 The program consisted of devotions, which were conducted by Mildred Crukleton and readings by Helen Galloway, Elaine Owen, June Lee and Lucy Tinsley.
 Several original Christmas poems written by ninth grade girls were read by Dorothy Jean Waldrop, Beverly Talley, Ruby Winchester and Nell Jean Lusk.

 A one-act Christmas play, "Aunt Bessie On The Radio," was given by the following tenth grade girls: Beulah Dodson, Thelma Gantt, Juanita Jones, Mildred McCall, June Lee and Ruth Greene.

CHRISTMAS SEAL FUND

By Norma King
 The Christmas seal sale has been completed in the Rosman schools. A total of $45.66 was sold. Of this amount the elementary school collected $30.40 and the high school $15.26.
 The Christmas seal sale was under the supervision of Mrs. E. H. Davis who turned the funds over to the Rosman P.T.A. to be used for the prevention or treatment of tuberculosis.

SCRAP PAPER CAMPAIGN

The students of the Rosman school have been collecting waste paper for several days. All the paper was turned in Friday and the home rooms were given the proceeds from the sale of the paper.

BUSES HAULING

per day and the buses haul passengers for each shift, leaving Mills River enroute to Ecusta at 6:50 AM, 2:50 PM and 10:50 PM, taking approximately fifty minutes to make the trip:

The P & M Bus Lines operating four buses from Hendersonville driven by John Osborne, Presley Halford, Hubert Morgan and Robert Greer. The round trip fare from Hendersonville to Ecusta and back again is forty cents each trip and the buses haul passengers for each shift. Three of these buses leave Hendersonville at the following times: 7:00 A. M., 3:00 P. M. and 11:00 P. M. and the fourth leaves at 6:35 A. M., 2:45 P. M. and 10:45 P. M., driving to Ecusta by way of the Crab Creek road. The P&M Lines also operate an office bus which leaves Hendersonville at 8:10 each morning and which returns each evening leaving Ecusta at 5:05.

Paxton and Hogsed have two buses operating from Rosman with Dick Paxton and K. Collins as drivers. The round trip fare from Rosman to Ecusta is 30 cents and the buses leave from Rosman each day at 7:00 and 7:05 A. M., 3:00 and 3:05 P. M. and 11:00 and 11:05 P. M.

Scott's Bus Line operates three buses from Brevard, with J. Heath, Leonard Fanning and Ginney Wood driving. The round trip fare is 20 cents per day and the buses meet all shifts leaving Brevard each day at 7:15 A. M., 3:15 P. M. and 11:15 P. M. Scott's Line also operates an office bus leaving Brevard each morning at 8:15 and returns to Brevard leaving Ecusta at 5:15 P. M. In addition to these buses, the Smoky Mountain Bus company of Asheville, operates a bus which leaves Asheville at 8:00 A. M. and returns, leaving Ecusta at 5:00 P. M.

It is noted that these several bus lines have done a splendid job in maintaining difficult schedules under the most trying weather conditions and have at all times given their consideration to the welfare of the Ecustans who travel with them. The Echo extends its congratulations to the owners and drivers of these buses for the faithful, courteous and efficient manner in which they have served and are serving Ecustans.—The Echo.

This was used for Christmas refreshments last Tuesday. Approximately 2020 pounds was collected by the high school students and the elementary students collected approximately 3,744 pounds.
 The campaign was sponsored by the Jaycees of Brevard.

SENSE AND NONSENSE

By Jean Hall

With the Christmas rush sweeping everyone off their feet, take time off from writing Santa and just take it easy for a while and let me (the one and only!) tell you who is sweeping who off their feet here at R. H. S. Nearly as nice as a Christmas gift, don't you think? Well—I said "nearly" didn't I?

Wow! Judy B. is stretching that smile of hers. The reason; her current heart interest has just decided to stay home instead of going to Kentucky.

Someone has just said that someone else was sad because Mildred C. was with Boice W. at a party. Someone said for someone to tell someone that someone else wasn't nary bit sad because someone was with someone. (Will "someone" explain this?)
 "You can't put out an old flame" . . . I hope," says Mildred B. We get the point after seeing her and Lee B. together at the Junior play.

Cecil Q. is very content to be sick just as long as Lyle G. visits him. Good deed for the day, or is there a romantic angle connected, Lyla?
 "Mind if I tag alone" mournfully (???) sings two well known guys after finding out that several well known girls were just stringing them along. Awful to suddenly discover you are being played for a "phony", eh boys?

"Shorty" M. is really going places during this man shortage. He always has a line of girls waiting to be taken home from church, I hear. Gracious, imagine, at his age!!!

Crash! Droop, droop, gangway folks, here comes Bob R. and the crash was his hopes crashing around playboy yesterday and forgotten man today. He just discovered that Wayne H., Harold B. and "Leck" are the ones ranking number one with his three former girls. (May I borrow a baseball bat a moment?) Serves you right Bob.

Doris P. nearly felt like leaping into the air and clicking her heels Friday, and all because of a letter that came drifting in from Bainbridge. Now, just how did that happen.
