a number of cities and towns in the state and nation. In other words, the two drives were consolidated.

Mr. Jerome announced that a meeting of the executive committee of the community chest will be held within the next few days to work out complete plans for the year's work.

This week Mr. Silversteen again praised industries, merchants, schools and individuals for their excellent response to the war fund drive. He also lauded Jerry Jerome and C. M. Douglas for their work in promoting the campaign.

Winners of the contests among the schools were Pisgah Forest school, first prize, $25, given by H. H. Straus; Rosman high school second prize of $15, given by J. S. Silversteen and Brevard Elementary school, third prize of $10, given by Ed M. Anderson.

"On behalf of the community chest, as well as the war fund drive, I wish to thank every one for excellent co-operation," Mr. Jerome declared.

Faith Is Keynote Of Southern Ads

Employing the unusual technique of advertising its own advertising, the Southern Railway system is currently reproducing some of its national magazine advertisements in southern newspapers along its line.

"Faith is the keynote of these advertisements... a compelling, abiding faith in the future of America's great and growing Southland," Ernest E. Norris, president of the Southern explains.

These magazine advertisements which reach 1,492,153 people each month tell of the contribution the South is making to help speed victory; its agricultural and commercial growth in recent years; and the new opportunities for Southern industry and agriculture after the war is over.

The railway is thus "proudly telling the nation to 'Look Ahead—Look South,'" Mr. Morris added.

CONSENT ORDERS ARE ENTERED AT HEARINGS

Asheville, Jan. 16—Four Western North Carolina food stores and three filling stations of a motor firm had their right to deal in rationed commodities suspended temporarily at hearing in the federal courtroom here yesterday morning before Daniel L. Bell, commissioner of the Office of Price Administration.

With all the food stores, there was allegation of charging above ceiling prices.

Consent orders were given in all the cases.

Two filling stations at Franklin and one at Brevard owned by the Burrell Motor company had their right to do business suspended for in Australia and New Zealand. The Red Cross official said that the men in such "hell-holes" as New Guinea needed everything the organization could give them in way of recreation and encouragement. He stressed the fact that there were no other agencies that were acceptable to the U. S. Army officials, and that guidance, comfort and maintenance of morale were chargeable directly to the Red Cross and from the organization to the people in America whose chance it will soon be to contribute to the cause of keeping their brothers, fathers, sons and sweet-hearts from actually "going wild."

Transylvania Red Cross chapter was represented at the meeting by Jerry Jerome, Alex Kizer and C. M. Douglas.
