SHOWER GIVEN FOR TEACHER

Last Wednesday after school a surprise shower was given Mrs. Austin Hogged, who before her marriage on Dec. 30 was Miss La Verne Whitmore, English teacher. The shower was given by the high school faculty and the informal party was held in the home economics department.

Mr. Tilson presented Mrs. Hogged with a set of crystal, a gift from the faculty. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Mrs. Jordan Whitmore, mother of the bride, was also a guest.

WIN ATTENDANCE BANNER

Mr. Lawrence's 10th grade boys won the attendance banner for the month of January. They had an average of 95%.

Other averages were: 8th grade girls, 91.4; 8th boys, 94; 9th grade girls, 88; 9th boys, 91; 10th grade girls, 82.5; 11th grade, 88.9.

P. T. A. MEETING

The February meeting of the Rosman P. T. A. was held Tuesday afternoon Feb. 8, in the high school auditorium with the president, Mrs. Eugene King, presiding. A Founder's day program was observed with Mrs. Lucille Jordan discussing that topic.

A group of ninth grade girls sang "Follow the Gleaner."

Miss Mary Morgan's second and third grades won the picture for having the largest number of parents present at the meeting.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, March 7. All parents are cordially invited to be present.

BOYS AND GIRLS EXCHANGE CLASSES

During the past week the agriculture boys have been taking home economics and the home economics girls have been taking agriculture. Under the supervision of Miss Nesbitt, the boys have made rugs, planned and cooked a meal and made cookies. Mr. Lawrence taught the girls to make what-ifs, book-ends and dressing tables. Both classes enjoyed exchanging work very much.

FASHION SHOW PRESENTED

Last Thursday during the regular assembly period, Miss Nesbitt's 9th grade girls presented a very interesting program and fashion show. A short sketch on "The Importance of a Well Planned Budget in Preparing a Wardrobe" was given. Following this the girls modeled their dresses, aprons, housecoats and pajamas, which they made in home economics.

Music for the occasion was furnished by Miss Kathryn Dillard and Mrs. Austin Hogged. A group of girls also sang "Don't Sit Under the Apple Tree!

A very interesting quiz contest was presented during the latter part of the program. Two representatives from each home room took part. Jean Hall, a senior, was the winner. She was presented an embroidered guest towel as a prize.

SCHOOL LOCALS

Judith Boley, Barney Sisk, Herbert Hall and T. R. Chastain were absent last week due to illness.

Miss Christine Morgan, a former R. H. S. graduate, who is now employed in Wilmington visited the school Thursday.

Helen Galloway, a junior, has been absent several days due to the serious illness of her mother.

Brandon Summey, formerly of the 1944 senior class, but now of the U. S. Navy, Bainbridge, Md., visited school last week.

SENSE AND NONSENSE

Oh, you readers! If I fail (have I ever?) to mention you in my "news" you develop a very icy attitude toward me, BUT if I do mention you... wow!... you try for my scalp. So I ask you, just what can a poor gossip writer do? Maybe it's my style (what style?) of writing. Oh, woe is me! Well, as I cast my eyes around the old familiar rooms, I see... what? I can't believe it! Bob R. sound asleep in French II. Rut S. dozing in English IV and Conrad W. snoring peacefully (?) in chemistry. Tut, tut, tells on you boys, keeping late (I mean early morning) hours. After all, I admit waiting for the 6:00 bus is better than walking from (censored) and you can admire the lovely starlight during that time.

Oh, dear, Barney S. is simply nuts over the air corps. June Lee is gaga about the marines. Helen G. has the "navy" hooked. Juanita J. is doing O. R. with the army (not bad, kid, by the way what was his name?) and ME, where do I stand? I don't. But this is leap year and I'm inventing a bear... man-trap, so just watch my speed. The seniors' new loafing (?) place has changed again. Now its the office. Further details withheld as military secrets. And wipe that grin off your face!

Don't look now, but Madrie G. is giving that charming (?) smile for the benefit of Pat S. M.m. good movie on I guess. But what about the other... eh... aw, "Wolf" you're trying to string along? "Sausage?" Could you be trying to make him jealous, or is he a "stand by" for a coming party? (Next time, M. G., think (impossible) twice before you blurt out my affairs. Remember, the "Navy" would make interesting news!)

Girls, how can you be so fickle minded in these hectic days? Ruby M. is treating Henry W. so dirty and for what cause? Yes, I wonder why. Pst, Ruby is "he" in the air corps, navy or just 4-F? Swosh!! It's a bird... it's a plane... it's a sailor—swishing by to greet Mae R. Yes, you're right, it's that "wolf in ship's clothing," Brandon S., who has just breezed in. Haven't you felt the place start shaking?

Ah, "young love," 'tis no other than Parlice E. and Cecil O. and as yet no one has tried to rock their dream boat (the lucky stiffs!) Those notes passed in study hall look so interesting.

Miss Wiggins is simply driving us to distraction! She refuses to give us any information on "that sailor" and gosh we are dying of curiosity! Come on, just tell us the color of his eyes!

"Mrs. Hamed refused to cooperate with dreamland," says "Pee Wee" Talley, when she poured water on her when she was so peacefully dreaming of the patriotic bond rally Monday n..ht.

Well, everybody be sure and buy an extra bond this month and keep 'em gossiping. I'll be around again soon.

Bataan's Hell

BETWEEN Mariveles, at the tip of Bataan, and San Fernando to the north lies the route of "the March of Death." Here it was that 5200 American prisoners and many thousands of Filipinos were driven by Jap butchers. Many were killed or beaten as they marched. Thereafter, they were sent to prison camps to face new tortures; to die of starvation and disease; to be murdered - or, somehow, survive and, in a few instances, escape. The black section on the map indicates the "March" scene. (International)

NO PERMIT PERIOD ON HOG SLAUGHTER EXTENDED A MONTH

Farmers May Continue To Kill Until March 17 Without Permit

North Carolina farmers will have an additional month in which to slaughter hogs without a permit or license and in which they may deliver any quantity of pork to persons not living on the farm, W. J. Velsor, area supervisor of the War Food Administration's Office of Distribution, Asheville, disclosed this week.

The WFA, he said, has extended to March 17 the period of non-restriction on farm slaughter of hogs. Regulations requiring a permit in effect since last spring, were lifted November 17 for a 90-day period; which would have expired February 17.

Extension of the no-permit, no-license period, Mr. Velsor said, has been granted to enable farmers to continue off-the-farm sale and delivery of pork at a time when production is still high and storage facilities are inadequate to handle the output.

abundance of labor in the past most of the cutting has been done by hand. Now that farm labor is extremely scarce growers are now looking for a mechanical cutter that will do a good job. Such a cutter is shown on a leaflet which has recently been prepared by the Extension Service at State College, and a copy will be mailed to anyone interested in securing a simple mechanical potato seed cutter. Inquiries for this diagram should be addressed to the Horticultural Department, State College, Raleigh. Ask for a copy of the information of cutting Irish potato seed.
