29 Scouts Received Promotions And Awards At Court Of Honor Held Here Last Friday Night

Mrs. Julius Sader, nutrition chairman; Rev. Harry Perry, hospital and camp chairman; Miss Flora Lyday, Junior Red Cross chairman; C. M. Douglas, Herbert J. Schain, Walter Straus, George Wheeler and Jos. S. Silverstein, war fund chairmen; Ed M. Anderson, publicity chairman; Miss Annabel Teague, chairman of rural activities.

Plans were discussed for the annual fund drive which will start in March and in which every person is expected to donate at least one day's pay or more to raise the large quota assigned to Transylvania county, for use in the county and for national headquarters.

Field Manager Roberts stated at the meeting that the national chapter is doing more work in the war than all other agencies combined, and is the accepted medium for the war department in all nations for contact and service to men in uniform and their families. Mr. Roberts said that as a part of the work of the national chapter, 6,000,000 pints of blood have already been donated through the Red Cross for use by and for wounded servicemen, and that by the end of 1944 no less than 10,000,000 pints of the life-saving blood will be given and probably one-third or more of it will have already been used by wounded. This blood is sold on the normal market by outside agencies at $35 per pint, Mr. Roberts said, but is furnished free by the Red Cross for armed forces. Cost alone of this item, if it were bought on the market would be $350,000,000. In addition the speaker said over two and one-half million men in service have been given various services, and nearly a million families of service men aided.

He said that better than 90 per cent of all surgical dressings used on the battle fields and in army hospitals is being furnished by the Red Cross, and that a minimum of 250,000 food and clothing parcels go to foreign chapters from America each week through the International Red Cross for distribution to Allied armed forces now in concentration and war prison camps in enemy countries. "Our people in America can well give of their time and money," Mr. Roberts concluded his speech by saying, "when we consider the fact that 5,000 people in neutral Switzerland are giving their entire time free to the Red Cross to help our wounded, sick and prisoners in Nazi-ruled lands where only the Red Cross is allowed to make any contact at all with Allied people imprisoned."

One of the highlights of the program was the presentation of a miniature Eagle to Mrs. Alex Kizer, Sr., by her son, Alex Jr. Before adjourning the scouts stood in silent tribute to a former Transylvania scout Jack Miller, who, as a Lieutenant Commander on a submarine is reported missing in action.

The court of honor, the largest held in Brevard in recent years, was conducted by Bill Wall, of Asheville, and Jack Trantham, of Brevard with the Rev. Mr. Sparks, of Brevard, giving the invocation.

Brevard college basketball team will play Gradegg, an outstanding team from Asheville, in the college gymnasium here tonight, Thursday, at 8:00 p. m. and will meet the strong Adam Mills cagers from Tryon on the local court Saturday night at eight o'clock. The public is cordially invited to see these games. Last Thursday night Coach Robert Wilder's Brevard Tornadoes lost an exciting game to Asheville School for Boys, making five points.

One Of Largest Courts Ever Held. Mrs. Alex Kizer Is Honored

Twenty-nine Transylvania boy scouts received promotions at the court of honor held at the Methodist church in Brevard last Friday night and five merit badges were awarded.

Attaining a high boy scout goal, Alex Kizer, Jr., of Troop 1, was presented the bronze eagle palm, the presentation being made by Frank Kerber of the district advisory council.

William Thomason, of Troop 2, was promoted to life scout. His award was made by Rev. Mr. Sparks, of Brevard, pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist church. Jack Trantham, district chairman of advancement, awarded first class certificates to three scouts, Donald Johnson, of Troop 4, Harold Stamey, of Troop 4, and Buddy Loftis of Troop 1.

Twelve boys were promoted to second class scouts and had certificates awarded by Alex Kizer, Sr. Those up for promotion were: Earl Hatley, Bobby Patton, Bobby Joe Nicholson, Byron Green, Tommy Smith, Raymond Clark, Bobby Reid, Jackie Hudson and Charles Pickelsimer, all of Troop 1; Roy Garren and Fred M. McCall, of Troop 2; and James Holden, of Troop 4.

Eleven new scouts and one scout who had graduated from cubbing were bestowed the rank of tenderfoot scouts by W. C. Wall, assistant district scout executive. These boys were Bobby Morris, Thomas King McCrary, Herbert (Pete) Shiflet and Charles Ray Brown, of Troop 1; Harold Houck, Bobby Martin and Edward McGaha, of Troop 2; Jerry James Stamey, Troop 4; Jack Johnson and Howard Wolfe, Troop 5; and Richard E. Bryant, of Troop 2.

The following merit badges were awarded: John Summey, Troop 1, rowing and canoeing; Stanley Kappers, Troop 1, pathfinding; Richard Harrison, Troop 1, pathfinding; Jason Orr, Troop 2, safety; William Thomason, Troop 2, athletics.

The court of honor, the largest held in Brevard in recent years, was conducted by Bill Wall, of Asheville, and Jack Trantham, of Brevard with the Rev. Mr. Sparks, of Brevard, giving the invocation. One of the highlights of the program was the presentation of a miniature Eagle to Mrs. Alex Kizer, Sr., by her son, Alex Jr. Before adjourning the scouts stood in silent tribute to a former Transylvania scout Jack Miller, who, as a Lieutenant Commander on a submarine is reported missing in action.
