"Womanless Wedding" Is Highlight Feature Of Ecusta's February Party

Highly Entertaining Performance Staged By The Electrical Dept.

Several hundred Ecustans attended the Ecusta Employee party presented by the recreation department in the Ecusta cafeteria last Friday night.

The main feature for the evening was a "womanless wedding" given by 26 members of the Electric department, under the direction of Ed Hupp, chief electrician. D. Gordon, as the bride, was dressed in a white wedding gown with a flowing train carried by H. Meece and J. Summey. The bride's corsage was of carrots, radishes and other vegetables.

Carrying out the tradition of womanless weddings, the large bride, had as a bridegroom petit H. W. Drake. The best man was Wayne Conn and the bridesmaids were Pickelsimer and Waters.

Ed Lancaster, as Mr. Turnip Green, played the pre-nuptial music.

Included in the cast for the wedding were C. Vance and R. Bishop as the two ushers. They introduced the wedding guests as they entered as: the aunt and uncle of the bride, B. Chapman and G. Bostic; Mrs. Nosey Toadvine—a neighbor, E. McLean; Miss Ubika Scratchfeed—the jilted sweetheart of the groom, Luke Harrison; Miss Needza Mann, R. Sherrill; the baby sister of the bride and her colored maid, M. Nicholson and K. Trefzer. The "22 pound baby" was rolled out onto the stage in a specially built carriage.

S. Lewis and E. McCall, as the bride's grandmother and grandfather arrived just before the mother, E. Collins, who expressed disappointment because Tiny's wedding presents were not plentiful.

The altar was artistically decorated for the occasion with all kinds of vegetable sand fruits. Jimmy Mitchell, with red nose, high hat and lack of dignity, played the role of minister.

T. Hargis and C. Holden, as flower girls, threw string beans, spinach and other vegetables among the guests.

Following the wedding, the cafeteria was cleared for dancing and the two Ecusta orchestras provided music for both square dancing and round dancing. Dick Paxton called the square dances. The swing band making its debut featured Lucille Heffner as vocalist.

TO ENFORCE NEW WATER ORDINANCE

All Past Due Bills Must Be Paid Promptly. Details Are Given

A new water ordinance for the city of Brevard is being announced by Alex H. Kizer, city clerk and treasurer. The new ordinance requires the payment of the current water bill on or before the tenth of each month.

The water department has been instructed to comply strictly with the new ordinance which specifies that water service shall be discontinued until an account has been paid and that a charge of $1 shall be made for turning water on again.

Mr. Kizer stated that those customers preferring to pay for several month's bill must pay in advance. In such a case the payment is treated as a deposit and the unused balance used as a refund. Failure to receive water bill does not exempt or alter payment dates.

The city clerk announced that all delinquent accounts, regardless of the amount, must be paid in full before April first this year and must be kept up-to-date thereafter.

All water bills are to be paid at the city hall.
