4 Candidates Announce For Democratic Primary

CARL ALLISON IS TO RUN FOR HOUSE REPRESENTATIVES

Mrs. Gillespie Out For Register Of Deeds And Two For Tax Collector

DEADLINE APRIL 15

Politics in Transylvania county started warming up this week when four persons announced their candidacies for nominations, subject to the Democratic primary to be held on May 27.

E. Carl Allison, who has been a member of the county board of commissioners for the past eight years and chairman of the board for the last four years, announced that he would not seek re-election, but would run for the house of representatives.

Mrs. Melvin Gillespie, who was appointed to fill out the unexpired term of her husband when he entered military service last year, announced that she would seek re-election as register of deeds.

T. E. Reid formally announced that he would be a candidate for the Democratic nomination as town and county tax collector. He was appointed to this position last year when Edwin Morgan entered service. For a number of years, Mr. Reid served as chairman of the county board of education.

Elmer Gillespie, of near Rosman, has also announced that he will seek the nomination as tax collector. He has formerly run for this office and for clerk of court. As yet no candidates have announced for county commissioners. It is understood, however, that John Wilson will not seek re-election. The third member of the present board, Willis Brittain, is expected to run.

The deadline for filing is April 15, Fred Johnson, chairman of the county election board, announces.

TO HOLD CLINIC FRIDAY

A maternity, infants and immunization clinic will be held in the clinic room at the Rosman Methodist church Friday afternoon from 1 to 3 o'clock, Mrs. Paul Lollis, county nurse, announces.

Young People Will Hold Easter Sunrise Service This Sunday

An inter-denominational Easter sunrise service will be held by the young people of Brevard and the students of Brevard college, Sunday morning.

Arrangements for the service are being made by the inter-denominational council of Brevard, made up of representatives from each church and the college.

The young people will gather in front of West Hall on the college campus at 6:30 o'clock and hike to Cooper's hill. There the service will be conducted by Miss Corinne Puett, of Dallas, who will represent the Methodist church; Jerry Murray, of Charlotte, who will represent the students; and George Buchanan, of Brevard, representative of the Baptist church.

A fellowship breakfast will be served in the college dining hall.

Trial Of Onie Kilpatrick, Charged With Assaulting Of Walter Wood, Is In Progress

Maxie Is Found Not Guilty. Other Cases Are Tried In Superior Court

The trial of Onie Kilpatrick, charged with assaulting Walter Wood with a deadly weapon with intent to kill, is now in progress in the Transylvania county superior court and the jury is expected to render a verdict some time today.

Trial of the case got underway yesterday afternoon. Wood testified that on Friday night, January 21, Kilpatrick cut him in both arms with a large knife in a cafe here and that he still does not have use of his left arm.

The witness further testified that he spent 12 days in the hospital here and 18 days on two different occasions in the Biltmore hospital at Asheville, and that he would have to return for another operation.

The testimony of other witnesses in the case was not available in time for publication.

After deliberating several hours a jury rendered a verdict of not guilty in the case of C. C. Maxie, charged with assaulting Leo Gravelly with intent to kill.

On the stand Maxie and his wife stated that Gravelly came to their house some time ago, assaulted them with a stick, tried to steal their cow and refused to leave and threw rocks at them. While Gravelly was in the yard throwing rocks at them, Maxie said he shot Leo with a shotgun.

Gravelly, on the other hand, testified that he stopped by to visit the Maxies and that when he asked Maxie about some woman he got mad and struck him over the head with a shovel.

The grand jury completed its work in one day, which is a record for Transylvania county. Other cases tried this week are as follows:

Clarence Stamey, charged with possession and transporting, was given a six months' sentence and a 12 months' suspended sentence.

Hayden Crane, Clyde Blythe and Orange Henry Mooney were each fined $50 and cost and their drivers' licenses were revoked for 12 months on charges of drunk driving.

Will Gravelly was given 6 months' suspended sentence and ordered to pay costs for public drunkenness and violation of the —Turn To Page Six

BREVARD P-TA TO MEET NEXT TUESDAY AT 3:30

The Brevard Parent-Teachers association will meet next Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the elementary school building. Miss Doris Whitesides, home economics teacher, will be in charge of the program.

Income Tax Declarations Must Be Filed On Or Before April 15th

Deputy Collector Dewey Gravelly this week reminded all persons who have fairly high salaries or incomes from sources other than wages and salaries that they are subject to withholding taxes that they must file estimated returns for the year 1944 on or before Saturday, April 15, and that they must make a payment of at least one-fourth of the amount due for this year as part of the pay-as-you-go system of federal tax collection.

Farmers may also file their declarations of estimated tax by April 15 or they may wait until December 15. Farmers are defined as those who receive 80 percent or more of their income from agriculture. If they file by April 15, they can make their income tax payments in four quarterly installments, but if they wait until December 15, they have to pay the

COUNTY IS WELL OVER TOP OF ITS RED CROSS QUOTA

Exceeds Goal By Around 25 Percent. Leaders Pleased

Transylvania chapter American Red Cross has again gone over its quota by 25 percent or more, and with a few more reports to come in from group workers in outlying districts of the county, the grand total is expected to reach $10,200 by end of the week, when all reports are required to be in the office of Jerry Jerome and C. M. Douglas, co-chairmen of the drive.

Nearly two-thirds of the donations came in from industrial workers and contributions from the offices of the several companies in the county.

From Ecusta where the largest single amount was received, workers contributed at the local plant $1858.20 and a like amount from President Harry Straus brought this total to $3716.80.

Silversteen plant employees contributed $320.48, and $800 from President Joe Silversteen brought this total to $1120.48.

Wheeler Hosiery mill employees and President A. W. Wheeler's contribution amounted to $434.22, to make the largest per person donation in the industrial group.

Pisgah Cotton mill and office contributed $293.65, with each person in the plant making a donation of some size.

Carr Lumber company report had not been made Wednesday morning, but is expected to swell the grand total of the industrial group to a new top figure for any Red Cross drive ever held in Transylvania.

TIRE QUOTAS FOR APRIL ANNOUNCED

Allotments Vary From Those Of March. Stove Quotas Are Also Given

April new tire quotas for Transylvania county for passenger cars and trucks have been released by the war price and rationing board and announced by Miss Mattie Lewis, chief clerk. A total of 79 new passenger car tires and 44 tubes, and 51 truck tires and 24 tubes comprise the month's allotment.

Included in the total quota are 34 Grade I passenger car tires, 45 Grade III and 44 tubes, with 44 smaller truck tires, 7 larger tires and 24 tubes. The allotments vary in most instances from the March quota, representing an increase of 7 in the number of passenger tires and 4 in the number of new tubes; while in the total truck quota there is an increase of 21 tires and a decrease of 4 in the number of tubes.

The stove quota for April includes: coal and wood cooking, 5; coal and wood heating, 28; oil cooking, 3; oil heating, 2.

The greatest decrease in the stove allotment over that of March is found in that of coal and wood heating stoves, which was 37 in March. The other stove allotments for April remain practically the same as last month.

Miss Jean Bennett Awarded Scholarship By Duke University

Miss Jean Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bennett, of Pisgah Forest, has just been awarded a $450 scholarship for excellence by Duke University.

Miss Bennett, who is majoring in languages, will graduate next month and this scholarship entitles and encourages her to return to Duke next year and study for a master's degree.

At Brevard college Miss Bennett also made an outstanding record.

CLUB SPONSORING CANCER CONTROL DRIVE HERE NOW

Campaign Is Being Conducted By Fortnightly Club. Want Donations

Brevard and Transylvania county's annual cancer control campaign got underway this week and will continue through the month of April, under the sponsorship of the Fortnightly club, with Mrs. J. F. Zachary, chairman. The drive here is under the supervision of the North Carolina division of the Women's Field Army of the American Society for the Control of Cancer.

The local, state and national program has heretofore had for its chief aim and purpose the dissemination of educational information to the public regarding cancer, its symptoms and treatment, but the program has now been broadened to include the development of a cancer clinic movement to provide diagnosis and expert treatment. A third step in this new program is to make these clinics serve the people through a state enrollment campaign will begin, and it is hoped this district, fully alive to the worth of Scouting, will be among the very first, if not the first, to reach its quota.

Adult Boy Scout Rally Will Be Held At Brevard High School Mon. Night

An adult membership enrollment campaign to raise $935.00 locally for the Boy Scouts will begin with a rally in the high school building here Monday, April 10, at 8 o'clock. This decision was reached and plans for the drive were formulated at a meeting of the Transylvania district committee on adult membership enrollment which was held in the city hall last Thursday evening.

The rally Monday evening will be opened by Ed H. McMahan, who will be assisted by other members of the committee. A group of Scouts and Cubs will also participate in the program. Similar rallies will be held at the same time in the 49 other communities comprising the Daniel Boone council. All citizens of the county are invited to the local affair. Immediately after the rally, the

Birth Of Christ Will Be Commemorated In All Churches Sunday

TO BE LOCATED AT COLLEGE AND A LOCAL CAMP

Minimum Of 100 Students Expected. Davidson College Man In Charge

TO OPEN JUNE 13

A Transylvania Music School will be operated here this summer at Camp Transylvania and Brevard college under the direction of James Christian Pfohl, head of the department of music at Davidson college and his associates, it was learned here today.

According to present plans, the music school camp will open on June 13 and last until July 22. Girls attending the school will be housed at Brevard college and the boys at Camp Transylvania.

It is anticipated that at least 60 boys and 40 girls will enroll for the six weeks' training and instruction will be given in piano, violin, pipe organ, voice and orchestral work.

It is also proposed that the school will become a permanent institution.

Camp Transylvania has been closed for the past two or three seasons and it was formerly operated by Miss Mary Gwynn. The school is being transferred here from Queens college in Charlotte.

"Brevard college is extremely fortunate in being able to make an arrangement whereby the Transylvania Music School camp," Dr. E. J. Coltrane, president of the college stated today.

"It is my opinion that this will become one of the outstanding music camps in the southeast. Mr. Pfohl and his associates know what a good music camp is and have the ability and energy necessary to make it a success."

Ed H. McMahan, president of the Brevard chamber of commerce, stated that the chamber of commerce wholeheartedly endorses the music school and welcomes it to Brevard. "This school will have the support and encouragement of all the citizens of Brevard."

CIVIC CLUB WILL BEAUTIFY 3 LOTS

Action Taken At Meetings Of Club And Board Of Aldermen This Week

The Women's Civic club here has agreed to beautify and develop into parks three large vacant lots owned by the town of Brevard, it was announced today.

The three lots are located at the intersection of Parkview and Park avenue, East Main and the Greenville highway and Broad and Rosman highway.

At their April meeting members of the civic club unanimously voted to adopt this as their spring and summer project. Following formal presentation made by a chamber of commerce committee composed of Jerry Jerome, H. B. Shiflet and Willis Brittain, the —Turn To Page Twelve
