Funeral Held Tues. For Mrs. Earl Hall

Funeral service was held Tuesday afternoon at the Oak Grove Methodist church near Brevard for Mrs. Earl Hall, 36, of Brevard, who died at her home early Sunday morning following an illness of a few days. Rev. W. S. Price and Rev. S. F. McAuley conducted the service. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Surviving are the husband and 10 children, all living at the home in Brevard. Five brothers and one sister also survive.

Mrs. Hall was formerly Miss Marjorie Ball, daughter of Mrs. Maggie Whitmire, of Brevard. She was a native of Brevard and had always lived here.

BREVARD HARDWARE MARKS ITS INITIAL ANNIVERSARY

The Brevard Hardware is celebrating its first anniversary. On this occasion, Mr. R. W. Parris, manager, is extending his thanks for the patronage given the concern the past twelve-month and renewing his invitation for the people to call at their store opposite the courthouse for their hardware needs. With a slackening of war demands, Mr. Parris predicts that more hardware of all kinds will be available.

TO START REVIVAL 5th A revival will start at the Middle Fork Baptist church this Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service, the pastor, Rev. George Holcomb, announced. Services will be held each evening at 8:30. The public is invited.

EXPLANATION IS MADE In the old Brevard bank case, it has been pointed out that S. R. Owen, A. M. White and W. L. Talley, who were tried for "criminal conspiracy" in violation of banking laws in the superior court here in 1931, were cleared on appeal and that they did not pay any fine or serve any sentence.

CARD OF THANKS We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their help and kindness through the illness and at the death of our beloved wife and mother, and also for the many beautiful flowers, and hoping God will bless all of you. Earl Hall and Children.

UNQUOTE Sergeant (very angry): "Not a man in this company will be given leave this afternoon." Rookie: "Give me liberty, or give me death." Sergeant: "Who said that?" Rookie: "Patrick Henry."

FOR FUTURE USE Man (at Police Station): "Could I see the burglar who was arrested for breaking into our house last night?" Sergeant: "Why do you want to see him?" Man: "I want to ask him how he got in without waking my wife."

eral hospital until recently when she was moved to California and then to China. She is the wife of Mr. Jay Neely, formerly of Brevard, and has often visited here.
