

MUSIC FOUNDATION ORGANIZED

Homecoming At Brevard College Saturday

LARGE NUMBER OF ALUMNI EXPECTED TO RETURN HERE

Registration Will Be Held In Morning And Business Session In Afternoon

BIG GAME AT NIGHT

Plans have been completed for the 13th annual Brevard college homecoming event which will be held at the school on Saturday, according to Ray F. Swink, alumni secretary and assistant to the president.

A large number of friends and former students are expected to be on hand. Miss Lois Frazier, of the college faculty, who is in charge of registration, states that she has received many replies from the invitations sent out several weeks ago. The registration hours will be from 10:00 until 12:00 o'clock Saturday morning in the administration building, H. A. Dunham Hall.

An important business session will be held Saturday afternoon for the purpose of discussing some pressing matters that cannot be left until spring. Gilreath Adams, alumni president, will preside at this business meeting.

Members of the faculty social committee will give an informal tea in the living room of West Hall Saturday afternoon. All college organizations will be represented at the tea in order to welcome back the former students.

Both lunch and dinner will be served to visitors in the college dining hall. Those who desire meals will be asked to specify this upon registering.

Climaxing the day's activities will be the football game Saturday night between the Brevard college team and Hiwassee college.

—Turn To Page Six

FATHERS' NIGHT SUPPER IS HELD

Much Business Is Transacted At PTA Meeting On Tuesday Night

At the Fathers' Night supper held in the school lunch room on Tuesday night, the Brevard Parents-Teachers' Association voted to pay $150.00 for film to the Extension service of the University of North Carolina. This film will be used county-wide, but each school must pay the $75.00 flat fee, and the Brevard association is paying for both the grammar school and the high school. Over 150 persons attended the supper.

A motion was passed to equip Red Cross rooms in both the high and grammar schools, and committees were appointed to investigate.

—Turn To Page Six

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Thursday, Oct. 16—Lions club meets, Bryant house, 7:00.

Friday, Oct. 17—Kiwanis club meets, Bryant house, 7:00. Achievement Day for Federation of Home demonstration clubs, N. Y. A. Hut, 2:00. Brevard Garden club meets with Mrs. Al Montville, 3:00.

Saturday, Oct. 18—Homecoming at Brevard college with football game, Brevard vs. Hiwassee, 7:30 o'clock, high school field.

Sunday, Oct. 19—Attend the church of your choice. All churches observe "Students' Day." Unveiling of monument to Karl Bosse, Gillespie cemetery, by W. O. W., at 3:00.

Tuesday, Oct. 21—Drawing for Pisgah Forest deer hunts, Brevard Chamber of Commerce, 2:00.

Wednesday, Oct. 22—Rotary club meet, Gaither's cafeteria, 7:00.

Miami Area Hit By Severe Floods

Emergency precautions were taken by towns along the coast of the two Carolinas yesterday to cope with a hurricane that was expected to move inland from the sea. The picture above shows damage done along the Florida coast by floodwaters surging relentlessly from the Everglades upon Miami.

Tax Collections During Year Amounted To 94.6%, King Reports, Totalled $96,398.64

1947 Tax Books Turned Over To Collector. Prepayments Are High

Tax collections here during the past year have been exceptionally good, according to a report made by Frank King tax collector, to the county board of commissioners in session here Monday morning in the court house.

Ninety-four and six-tenths per cent of the county taxes for 1946 were paid in and totalled $96,398.64, leaving $10,017.98. Collection of delinquent taxes for years 1927 through 1945 amounted to $9,053.26. This figure includes penalties and costs.

The 1947 tax books were ordered to be turned over to Mr. King for collections and the total amount of taxes was $194,221.27. Pre-payments totalled $86,284.72, leaving a total of $107,936.55 to be collected.

Mr. King was commended by the board on his work in collecting 94.6 per cent of the taxes for 1946.

Morgan Resigns

The resignation of Edwin A. Morgan, county accountant and tax supervisor, was accepted with regret by the board. Mr. Morgan, who was employed in the court house here since 1934, was first assistant tax collector and for the past eight years, except for the three years while in the armed

—Turn To Page Seven

Staff Writer Interviews English Visitors Here, Observations Made

By STAFF WRITER

Since the ending of World War II, English brides coming to America have been "in the news," and today when an English family pays their daughter in America a visit, that is even bigger news. Transylvania county is so honored this week by a visit from the family of Jean Whitmire, English wife of Brevard's Tommy Whitmire. Mrs. Whitmire's mother, Mrs. Mary Baimbridge, and brother, Peter Waugh, of London, accompanied by a friend, Miss Grace Hunter, of Edinburgh, Scotland, arrived in New York last week aboard the Queen Elizabeth. A staff photographer on "Illus-

KIWANIS ELECT E. J. COLTRANE DISTRICT HEAD

Local College President Is Named To High Office At Charleston Convention

Dr. E. J. Coltrane, president of Brevard college, was elected governor of the Carolinas Kiwanis district in the closing session of the civic clubs' convention at Charleston, S. C., last Saturday morning. He succeeds Dupre Rhame, of Greenville, S. C., and was opposed in the election by Joe Chiott, prominent Asheville real estate executive.

Farry A. Barber, of Hendersonville, was named one of the nine lieutenant governors who will compose the board of directors with Governor Coltrane and Mr. Rhame. Officers elected at the convention will take office on January 1, 1948.

Over 500 Kiwanians attended the convention and the delegation from Brevard was composed of Dr. and Mrs. Coltrane, Willis Brittain, C. M. Douglas, Lewis P. Hamlin, Ralph Ramsey, George D. Perkins, Alex Kizer, Dr. C. L. Newland, Ray Swink and Dr. J. F. Zachary, who is president of the

—Turn To Page Twelve

METHODISTS MEET ENDS, McFARLAND IS REAPPOINTED

College Alumni Dinner Held During Conference At Charlotte

Rev. W. G. McFarland was re-appointed pastor of the Brevard Methodist church for the coming year at the Western District conference held last week at the Dilworth Methodist church in Charlotte.

"Speaking for myself and Mrs. McFarland, I wish to say how happy we are that we will be able to serve the people of our church and town, and it will be indeed pleasant to work another year in such a pleasant town," the Methodist pastor said. He commented on the report made at the convention from this church, and said it was the most favorable one ever presented, thus making the past year one of the best in the history of the church.

Mayor S. E. Varner, Sr., was lay delegate at the convention, and Mrs. McFarland accompanied her husband.

Held in connection with the Methodist convention in Charlotte was a Brevard college alumni dinner last Wednesday, which was attended by more than 100 friends and alumni of the local institution. Ray Swink, alumnus and assistant to President E. J. Coltrane, presided at the dinner meeting. Edwin L. Jones, of the Board of trustees, was speaker at the meeting, and he talked very encouragingly of the future of the college. Mr. Jones paid tribute to the many men who have played such a large part in the building program at the school, and lauded those who formulated the plans for expansion so many years ago.

Dr. Coltrane made a few informal remarks. It was announced at this meeting that Mrs. J. E. Abernathy, of Rutherford county, is presenting the entire library of her late husband to Brevard college in the near future.

To Feature Brevard In Jaycee Magazine

At the regular meeting of the Brevard Junior Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night, it was announced that the N. C. Jaycees' magazine "Future," will feature Brevard, Hendersonville and Asheville in the December issue. A committee was appointed Tuesday night to acquire the needed pictures and information about Brevard.

This magazine, it was stated, goes to some 5,500 Jaycees in North Carolina and other memberships out of state.

Guest speaker at the meeting was J. B. Jones, county school superintendent, who spoke on "Plans and Programs of the County Schools," and Mr. Jones while commending authorities for the many improvements made in the schools during the past two years, stated that many essential things

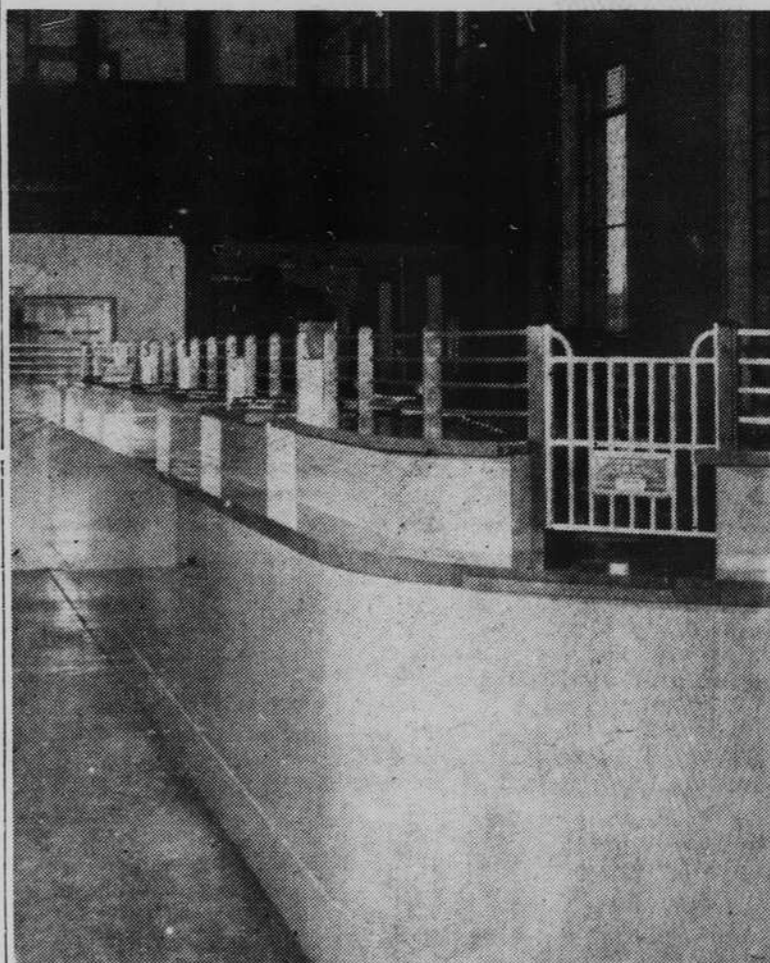

—Turn To Page Seven

Mrs. Doyle Now At Telephone Office

Mrs. Rhea Doyle is now manager of the business office of the Citizens telephone company here succeeding Rowell Bosse, who has accepted the position of bookkeeper with the Brevard Wholesale Grocery concern.

In taking over the office of the telephone company, Mrs. Doyle says that because of new regulations, telephone patrons must pay their bills within 15 days from date rendered, or phones will be taken out. The office is located in the Tinsley building over Slack's store and hours are from 9-12, 1-5, daily; and 9-12 on Thursday and Saturday.

Bank's Interior Greatly Improved

Shown in the photo above are the new low-type marble counters with seven windows recently installed at the Transylvania Trust Co. here. At the right rear upstairs is seen a section of the directors' room, which has been enclosed with paneling and windows. A new floor has also been laid and the walls and ceilings painted. Alterations now being made in the vault will make available space for 500 additional lock boxes, according to the executive vice president, Ralph Duckworth. (Staff Photo)

Elaborate Improvements Being Completed At Local Bank, New Full-View Counter Installed

MRS. SLEDGE NAMED TO POST IN NCEA DISTRICT GROUP

Dr. Loomis Elected Secretary Of Higher Education Body In WNC

Mrs. Lucille Sledge, president of the local chapter of the Classroom Teachers, was elected secretary-treasurer of the district teachers group, at the Western district meeting of the North Carolina Education association held at the Lee H. Edwards high school in Asheville last Friday. Mrs. Sledge is a language teacher in the local high school here.

Dr. Burt W. Loomis, director of guidance at Brevard college, was elected secretary of the higher education group, which met at

—Turn To Page Seven

Can Better Serve Public, Vice President Says. Growth Is Cited

Elaborate improvements have recently been made in the interior of the Transylvania Trust Co. here. These include the installation of new low counters, made of marble, with seven windows to serve the public, instead of the four which were replaced. The directors' room in the rear upstairs has been enclosed, the walls and ceiling painted and a new floor laid. More lobby space has also been provided by rearranging the counters and shifting the bookkeeping department.

R. J. Duckworth, vice president, also said that alterations are now being made in the vault which will make room for 500 additional lock boxes.

The object in making these improvements, Mr. Duckworth said, was to provide the bank's customers with a service adequate in

—Turn To Page Six

GROUP TO OPERATE MUSIC CAMP, BUYS TRANSYLVANIA SITE

Mrs. Carrier Heads Board Of Trustees. Ramsey Is Vice Chairman

CHARTER GRANTED

The Transylvania Music foundation yesterday purchased Transylvania Music camp for a sum not disclosed and charter has been received from the secretary of state as a non-profit organization.

Heading the board of trustees of the foundation is Mrs. Henry N. Carrier, president of the Brevard Music Festival association. Other officers and members are: Ralph H. Ramsey, vice chairman; F. S. Best, secretary and treasurer; Dr. C. L. Newland, Dr. Julius Sader, Mrs. Holt Hayward, of Winston-Salem, Mrs. Jonathan Woody, of Waynesville, James Christian Pfohl, Rev. Charles Jones, of Charlotte, Harry H. Straus, Mrs. Hattie Strong, of Winston-Salem; Ed Campbell, of Washington, D. C., and Francis Heazel, of Asheville.

The property was purchased from Frank Morgan, of Patterson, N. J.; Robert Neal, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Mr. Pfohl and Mr. Jackson, of Davidson.

Praises Pfohl

The foundation, Mrs. Carrier said, would continue to operate the music camp and to give the yearly festivals under the direction of Mr. Pfohl. Mrs. Carrier highly praised Mr. Pfohl for his sincere and abiding interest in both enterprises.

Operation of the camp by a foundation rather than by or in behalf of a group of individuals, Mrs. Carrier pointed out, had many decided advantages. In the

—Turn To Page Seven

DEADLINE IS SET FOR CHAMBER DUES

Names Of Only Those In Good Standing Will Be Placed On Ballot

Monday noon was set as the deadline for the payment of current dues in the local chamber of commerce by the board of directors at a regular meeting Tuesday night. Ballots for the election of directors will be prepared this week end and it was pointed out by Willis Brittain, president, that only the names of those who are in good standing will be placed on the ballot.

Rev. W. G. McFarland was appointed treasurer of the body's Brevard college fund, which was inaugurated in 1941 for the purpose of defraying a part of the cost of a science building at the local institution. The effort was suspended during the war, although considerable money was collected. The science building is to be started

—Turn To Page Six

To Unveil Monument To Karl T. Bosse On Sunday Afternoon

A memorial monument to Karl T. Bosse, who died here last June 5, will be unveiled at the Gillespie cemetery Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, with the members of the local camp No. 116, Woodmen of the World, in charge of the service. Rev. B. W. Thomason, pastor of the First Baptist church here, will officiate.

All Woodmen, their families and friends are cordially invited to attend this special service, it is reported.

Mr. Bosse was financial secretary of the W. O. W. here and was extremely active in civic and religious circles in Transylvania county.

Transylvania Home Demonstration Clubs To Observe Achievement Day

The Transylvania county Federation of Home Demonstration clubs will hold its annual Achievement Day program in the N.Y.A. Hut, Friday, October 18, beginning at 2:00 o'clock. Miss Mary Margaret Robinson, county demonstration agent announces.

All county clubs will participate in the program and exhibits will be given, also, Miss Robinson states. Program chairman is Mrs. J. A. Glazener, who is chairman of the county council. She will give the welcome address, and the response will be given by Mrs. Joe Norman. This will be followed by greetings, from J. A. Glazener, county farm agent, and a roll call by clubs by Mrs. Allen

Vaughn. The report of achievements will be given by Mrs. Robert Cansler.

Guest speaker for the event will be Mrs. Walter Pike, chairman of district 2, Hendersonville, who was official delegate to an international farm women's meeting held in Holland in September. Mrs. Pike will give a report of her trip to Europe and the events of the meeting. She will be introduced by Mrs. Pauline Hotchkiss, western district agent.

The presentation of the gavel to the club having the best attendance at the Achievement day program will be made by Miss Robinson.

—Turn To Page Seven