

BTU PROGRAM TO BE GIVEN MONDAY AT GLADY BRANCH

"M" Night Will Be Observed By Directors Of 13 Churches

Training Union "M" night will be held by the BTU of the Transylvania Baptist association Monday night, December 6, at 7:30 o'clock at the Gladly Branch Baptist church, according to Ruel Whitmire, director. The "M" is for "Mobilization," a project which is being carried out in Baptist churches throughout the South.

Highlighting the meeting will be a talk by Rev. C. F. Rogers, pastor of the Pisgah Forest Baptist church, on "Found Faithful in Our Task."

The program will also consist of a report by the 13 associational training union directors on their themes for 1949. These directors who will report are as follows: Mrs. B. B. Barnes, Mrs. W. W. Mull, Calvin Raxter, Miss Lucille Merrill, Ralph Lee, Claude Davis, Lester Cox, Ray Cheek, Ansel Hart, Jessie Gillespie, Floyd Gray, Charles Zeiger and Clarence Summey.

Rev. Clyde Collins, pastor of Gladly Branch, the host church, will lead the devotions, and special music is being arranged by Robert Orr, associational choister.

Attendance banner will be given to the church having the highest percentage of their enrollment present, and the director urges all churches to send a large representation.

OAKLAND NEWS

By MRS. LEE NORTON

I know there are those who read the Times who would be pleased to know I had a nice quiet birthday and spent Thanksgiving in a delightful way. One was on the 24th and the other the 25th.

I spent my birthday at home with my niece, Mrs. Maggie Nicholson, who cooked my birthday dinner. Then on Thanksgiving morning another niece, Mrs. Oat Henson, and her daughter, Mrs. Wain Johnson, of Eastley, S. C., came by and picked up Mrs. Nicholson and me on their way to Cashiers. In Fairfield we were joined by Mrs. Mack Robinson. We visited with a few friends in Cashiers and dined at the cafe. On our return from dinner, we were joined by Mack Robinson, in Fairfield, who was once caretaker of Fairfield Inn, now Tatum's Sky club. Mack showed the party the interesting places about the Inn, and from there he took us to the milk farm. One would have to walk among the cages to get any idea what a milk farm was like, but let me assure you that it's interesting to watch those little animals dodging in and out of their cages.

We then went to an old orchard, gathering a few bushels of apples for the South Carolina ladies, then home to feast on turkey that had been prepared by Mrs. Roy Flynn.

A pretty full day for an 82-year old lady, don't you think, and one to be long remembered by this writer.

By 1946 farmers were spending three times what they spent in 1936 for medical care.

Have you heard the paracher's theme song? "It don't mean a thing if you don't pull that string."

Pisgah Forest P-TA To Meet On Tuesday

The Pisgah Forest P-TA will meet Tuesday evening at 7:00 p.m., one week earlier than the regularly scheduled meeting day.

In place of the regular session, the patrons and school patrons will be invited to visit the classrooms and meet the teachers. Children's work will be on display in all of the rooms, it was learned. According to Miss Annie May Patton, principal, the school has recently acquired a number of new and attractive books which will be shown in the library.

In addition to the classrooms, an inspection of the Grade A lunchroom will also take place, with parents being permitted to inspect new equipment. Following the tour of the building, guests will be served tea in the lunchroom.
