THEY KEEP ON WINNING . . . If you'll notice the bowling story on this page you will discover that the Pisgah Motor court team has won 13 out of the last 14 matches. This within itself is quite an accomplishment and a record of some sort. No question about it, the competition in the WNC loop this year is stiffer than ever, but the locals are right up there near the top. And the boys say they're going to stay there. One of the principal factors in the winning combination of the Pisgah team is the fact that all of the bowlers on the team have a good average. Bill Bridges is the top man with an average of 186 plus, and then right together are Tom Conley, Chris Rogers and Bruce Reynolds with 177. Buddy Oates follows next in line with 176. That's mighty good bowling in any league!

WAS HIS FACE RED? . . . One afternoon last week Pastor J. Julian Holmes was golfing on the local links and was shooting a pretty good round, although his partner, Gil Coan, was having a few fouls every now and then. Along about hole No. 6 when the Parson had just made a good shot and was being congratulated by his colored caddy, the negro boy, who was about as big as the golf bag he was carrying, turned to the Parson and said: "Mister, if you plays tomorrow, how 'bout me caddying for you?" In a most serious manner, Preacher Holmes turned and quickly informed the boy that tomorrow was Sunday and he shouldn't be out at the golf course.

ATTENTION HUNTERS! . . . Of particular interest to hunters in this section is the article on quail in the February Sports Afield mag. It has been the consensus that quail could not be raised profitably in the deep South, but Davidson explodes this fallacy. If you're interested, the story is on page 42. Copies of the magazine are on sale at local newsstands, or you can see the one on the desk of The Times sports editor.

CONGRATULATIONS! . . . Followers of Gil Coan are glad to learn that the baseball star has gone into business here and while away from the game, will spend his time in Brevard. Of course, Gil expects to play professional ball for many more years, but he says it's nice to have something to keep him busy during the winter months. "Hoss" Stamey, who recently signed with the St. Louis Cardinals, is assisting the Washington Senator outfielder and so are Fred Arnette and Bobby Mitchem.

SOME HUNTER . . . The hunter came panting up to one of the party and said, "Just met a great big bear in the woods." "Good!" said the other. "Did you give him both barrels?" The hunter wiped his perspiring brow. "Both barrels!" he returned, "I gave him the whole gun!"

Lees-McRae Cagers Are Scheduled On Saturday Night. Crowd Expected

The Tornadoes of Brevard college are looking forward to the toughest week end of the 1950 schedule.

The powerful cage team of Spartanburg Junior college will return here Thursday night to seek revenge for the upset victory of the Tornadoes at Spartanburg on January 30.

The game will get underway at 7:30 o'clock and a capacity crowd is expected to witness the contest on the college hardwood.

On Saturday night the Tornadoes play host to the basketweavers of Lees-McRae and the game promises to be a thrilling fight from the opening whistle until the closing gun. Another record crowd of townspeople and students is expected, when the game gets underway at 7:30 o'clock.

Last Saturday night Coach Bob Andrews' quintet continued its winning ways with a resounding 53-28 triumph over an outclassed Blue Ridge aggregation in a non-conference clash.

The issue was never in doubt. Brevard raced to an early lead and was never headed. At half-time the Tornado had ragged to 25-14 lead.

Charlie Brewer again paced the collegians with 16 points, while for the losers Schmidt took scoring plaudits with 11 markers.

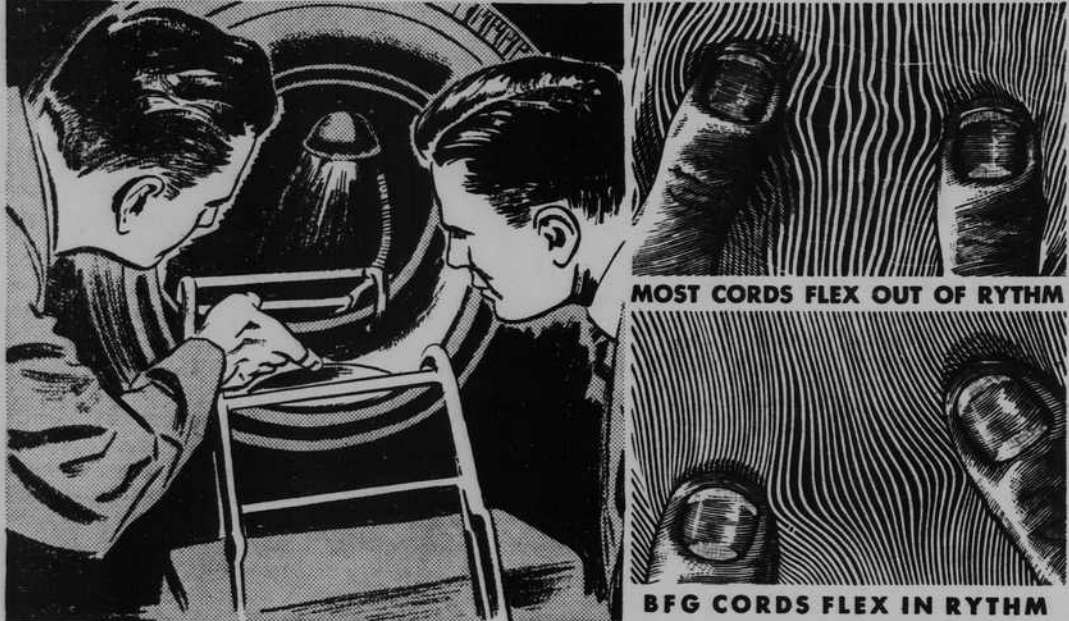

The win over Blue Ridge was Brevard's second straight triumph in a row. They had previously defeated highly regarded Spartanburg last week.

Rev. and Mrs. L. B. Vaughn and children were visitors Wednesday of Mrs. F. P. Tinsley and family.

George Whitmire and Clifford Galloway, of Rosman, were visitors Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Cison.
