Best Sellers Are In County Library, Miss Barnard Says

Favorites Of Public In The New York Times Book Review Section Named

The Transylvania county library now has 12 of the fiction titles and 12 of the general titles appearing on the best seller lists in the New York Times book section, according to Miss Ruth Barnard, county librarian.

"See how well we are keeping readers up to date," the librarian stated.

One month after the publication of the novel, "The Gown of Glory" by Agnes Sligh Turnbull, this book leaped to third place on the national best seller list.

Coast-to-coast acclaim for the new national best seller by Mary O'Hara, "The Son of Adam Wyngate," has also been heard. One reviewer said, "In her greatest, most human, most compelling novel, Mary O'Hara tells the dramatic story of a brilliant minister who, at the peak of his career, is trapped in a soul-destroying struggle between the compulsions of the flesh and the spirit."

Receives Grant

MISS CARTLEDGE GETS SCHOLARSHIP

Granddaughter Of Mrs. Witmer To Study Under Fulbright Act

Matilda R. Cartledge, granddaughter of Mrs. M. B. Witmer, of Brevard, has been selected by the board of foreign scholarships for a government grant under the Fulbright Act to study religion at the University of Edinburgh, Scotland.

Miss Cartledge, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Cartledge, has spent most of her summers in Brevard, where she is well known.

At the present time she is instructor in Bible and religious education at Belhaven college in Jackson, Miss.

Miss Cartledge plans to leave in September and will remain in London for a brief orientation period before taking up studies at Edinburgh.

She received her bachelor's degree from Oberlin college and her masters in religious education at the Biblical Seminary in New York City.

The Fulbright Scholarships were set up to enable American students to study in Europe and at the same time aid the countries in which they study. Miss Cartledge is the second woman with local connections to receive one of these grants.

LETTERS TO TIMES

In Korea, Congress cut the appropriation for PMA. As a result, each county in North Carolina, including Transylvania County, received a cut in its PMA allotment.

We shall appreciate it if you will kindly publish this letter so that the people may know the true facts about the PMA which has done and is doing so much to help the farmers of Transylvania county.

Very truly yours, MARVIN W. WHITMIRE, Chairman, PMA County Committee for 1951. RICHARD McCALL, Vice Chairman, PMA County Committee for 1951. EDWARD H. MACKEY, Member, PMA County Committee for 1951.

Dear Editor: In reply to your article of May 14th about the "Hugging Party" of 1902, well, I must confess that the party dates back some months before I was born.

There is a mistake somewhere and those young ladies and young men of 1902 are now resting beneath the clay. They have already heard that "Well done, thou good and faithful," and I feel that if Christians of 1952 haven't got the guts to defend them against an article of this nature it just seems to

A LIFETIME OF PUBLIC SERVICE ...

Bill Umstead taught school in the public school system in Kinston in 1916-17.

After leaving his classroom job he entered the Army and served with the 317th Machine Gun Battalion, 21st Division, for a period of about two years, about eight months of which was overseas.

After finishing law school in 1920, he was elected Prosecuting Attorney of the Durham County Recorders Court in 1922 and was re-elected in 1924.

From 1927 to 1933 Bill Umstead served as Solicitor of the Tenth Judicial District.

In 1932 he was elected to Congress in the Sixth Congressional District, and re-elected in 1934 and 1936, retiring voluntarily at the end of his third term. Being in Congress in the depth of the Depression, he realized the problems of the farmer and laboring man in North Carolina and was a key figure in developing the foundation of today's Farm Program as a member of the Sub-Committee on Appropriations for the Agriculture Department.

Served as chairman of the State Council for National Defense, 1943-44.

In August, 1944, Mr. Umstead was elected Chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee and conducted the State Democratic campaigns in 1944 and 1946.

On December 18, 1946, he was appointed to fill the unexpired term of the late United States Senator Josiah W. Bailey and served until December 30, 1948.

Is a trustee of the Consolidated University of North Carolina.
