JAYCEES SELLING CHRISTMAS TREES

Orders Are Now Being Taken In Former King Bakery Building Here

Brevard Jaycees are busy selling Christmas trees.

Members of the organization are going from door to door and are taking orders for finest quality balsams, cut in sizes from two to 10 feet, George Perkins, Jr., chairman of the project, announces.

Trees are also being sold in the building next to Galloway's cafe, which was formerly occupied by Kings bakery. The public is invited to inspect the samples and to note the display in the window.

"This is another non-profit project of the Jaycees, and funds realized will go to decorate the town at Christmas time and to pay for the current for the multi-colored lights," the chairman states.

Orders for trees may be placed with any Jaycee or Jaycette and deliveries will be made whenever specified, it is stated.

Brown Stars On Hunting Trip With Veterans From California Hospital

Cpl. Dwight S. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, who lost both of his legs in Korean fighting, starred on a hunting trip in California last week and received a nice write up in several of the California daily papers.

With 23 navy and marine veterans, who were all wounded in Korea, young Brown went pheasant, duck or geese hunting at Klamath Falls, California, and according to the paper, "shooting honors went to the only double-amputee in the party—Cpl. Brown."

The article continues: "Cpl. Brown came on the hunting trip in a wheel chair. The corporal has both legs off above the knees, and shooting over a dog from the back of a specially rigged jeep, he bagged seven pheasants."

Young Brown is expected to fly home from the naval hospital in California next week to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents on the Country Club road.
