LOCAL OFFICERS NAB FIVE STILLS

Raiders Are Made In Several Sections. Many Gallons Of Mash Poured Out

During the past few days, local officers and ATU agents have captured five "moonshine" stills in Transylvania.

According to Sheriff Bert Freeman, more than 1,800 gallons of mash were also destroyed in the raids.

The sheriff and one of the local officers nabbed a 50-gallon outfit in the Middle Fork section, which was made of sheet iron.

It was brand new and had been in operation only a short while. Assisted by ATU officers, Sheriff Freeman captured a 90-gallon "steamer-type" still in the Old Toxaway section, and on the following day he nabbed a 60-gallon contraption out of commission in the Gloucester area. Deputy Paul Fisher assisted.

Deputies Fisher and John Kilpatrick located and destroyed a copper "beauty" in the Old Toxaway section. They also recognized the operators who "took to the hills."

With the assistance of Lon Chapman, constable in the Rosman community, Sheriff Freeman captured a 75-gallon copper still Sunday in the Shoal Creek section.

Approximately 300 gallons of beer were poured out.

NEW OFFICERS OF WMU ARE ELECTED

Annual Meeting Held At Gladly Branch Church. Resolutions Are Adopted

New officers for the coming year for the Transylvania associational WMU were elected at the annual meeting at the Gladly Branch Baptist church, with representatives from 15 societies attending.

Mrs. M. C. Shipman was elected WMU superintendent, succeeding Mrs. Alcovia O. McCall, who was chosen as the associate superintendent.

Other officers named are as follows: Mrs. J. L. Gillespie, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Brown Pace, young people's director; Mrs. J. A. Glaener, mission study chairman; Mrs. Lewis McGee, community mission chairman; Mrs. Kenneth McDarris, stewardship chairman; Mrs. Miro Welyczko, Margaret fund chairman; and Lewis McGee, royal ambassador chairman.

Out-of-town speakers on the all-day program included: Miss Janet Wilson, state representative, of Raleigh; Miss Bertha Wallis, missionary speaker of Birmingham, Ala.; B. W. Jackson, state R. A. secretary; J. B. Morgan, Waynesville; Charles Robinson, Enka; and Rev. Frank Hopkins, Candler.

Three resolutions, (1) opposing the return of legal sale of beer in Brevard; (2) opposing any such move in the county; and (3) urging citizens to express their opposition to the legalizing of alcoholic beverages by voting at the polls, were adopted at the meeting.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to express our deep appreciation and thanks to all the people for their many expressions of sympathy and for the lovely flowers which were sent during the illness and death of our wife and mother, Mrs. O. M. Galloway.

Mr. O. M. Galloway and Family.

Was Prominent In Civic And Industrial Affairs In Hendersonville

Charles M. Elliott, former merchant, manufacturer, politician and civic leader of Hendersonville, is the new house manager of the Brevard Elks lodge, Elk officials announce.

A native of Hendersonville, Mr. Elliott was educated in the city schools there, at Blue Ridge School for Boys and at Western North Carolina Teachers college. He is married and they have four sons, ages 11 through 17.

Prior to coming to Brevard, Mr. Elliott was a member of the Elks lodge at Hendersonville for 12 years, a member of the Woodmen of the World and a Rotarian. Active in civic affairs, he served as vice chairman and then chairman of the merchants committee of the chamber of commerce. He was also elected as a city commissioner.

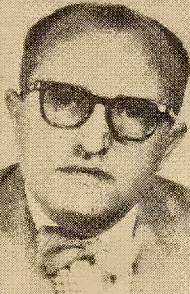

He is also a vestryman of the Episcopal church and a leader in Elk Scout work.

In 1938 he established, owned and operated through 1949 the Laureldale Hosiery company. During these years, from 1942 until 1949, he engineered and served as general manager of the following other industries in Henderson county: Spinning Wheel Rugs, Inc.; Coronet Imports, Inc.; Michaelian and Kohlberg, Inc.; and Craft Textiles, Inc. From 1950 to 1952 he engineered and developed as a partnership Skyland Handbag company, manufacturer of ladies nylon handbags. All of these concerns are reported to be successful enterprises today.

Local Elk officials express much pleasure in being able to obtain a man with Mr. Elliott's qualifications as house manager.

When you think of prescriptions, think of VARNER'S.—adv.
