icans, added together, make the majority and until Governor Scott put a negro on the board of education, no voice was allowed the Republicans in the conduct of the schools of North Carolina, although they vote for bonds and pay taxes."

The legislature also approved two other bond issues proposed by Governor Umstead—22 million dollars for building projects at mental hospitals and 14½ millions for new facilities at other institutions.

The legislature approved a 620 million dollar spending measure for the next two years. The bill calls for a ten per cent pay boost for all state employees and teachers retroactive to July 1.

The house unanimously enacted a bill to rewrite the state law on training and licensing of nurses. The law will be administered by a board composed of five nurses, two doctors and two hospital representatives.

The senate enacted into law legislation to provide a $50 monthly minimum retirement for teachers and state employees. It will apply to those already retired and those who retire in the future after 20 years of service.

The senate appropriations committee voted $10,000 for "Thunderland," $5,000 less than approved for the outdoor drama. The house had already approved $15,000.

Indications are that final adjournment of the assembly will come today or tomorrow.

FORTUNE IS HEARD AT TOXAWAY CLUB

Next Meeting On May 5th. Prayer Service Night Is Changed

By MRS. H. D. LEE

Another of a series of meetings under the direction of Mrs. S. C. Clapp and B. E. Keisler was held at the Lake Toxaway school on the evening of April 21st.

A large crowd was present and enjoyed the interesting talk by Ed Fortune, of Asheville, on "Making Homes More Attractive." Mr. Fortune discussed many ways in which homes might be made more attractive. Among them were: sanding and finishing floors, painting the interior and exterior of a house, the care that should be used in painting window and door casings, the kind of finish for cement or cinder blocks. He showed many different paint brushes for different paint jobs, also a roller paint set. He stressed the fact that every one should choose the color or design for decorating their homes that suited them best and always to read carefully the directions on the paint can. The sincerity and enthusiasm in which Mr. Fortune spoke on home decorating was encouraging and helpful to all.

On display for the meeting was a picture in water color of Lake Toxaway, showing a sunset of rainbow hues reflected in the crystal clear water, which was greatly admired by all.

The humorous skit, "A Sunday Afternoon Drive," by Ruby Fisher, Dorothy and Martha Ann Thomas and Jimmie Lee caused the audience to roar with laughter.

At the close of the meeting a social hour with refreshments was enjoyed in the school dining room.

The following visitors were present: Miss Barron and Coach Winchester, of the faculty of Rosman high school and Mr. Waldrop, of Cherryfield.

The next of the series of meetings will be held at the Lake Toxaway school on May 5th, at 8 p. m. This is the regular date for the meeting of the Lake Toxaway Community club. All in upper Transylvania are urged to attend these meetings and any visitors who care to attend will receive a warm welcome.

DATE IS CHANGED

The date for the prayer services at the Lake Toxaway Methodist church has been changed from Friday evening to Thursday evening at 8 p. m. The service this Thursday will not be held at the church but will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barton and C. C. Hall, by request.

PERSONAL ITEMS

Mrs. Jack Breedlove and three daughters of Brevard, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Breedlove spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Leon Powell, at Duncan, S. C.

Miss Dorothy Thomas, student nurse at Mission hospital, Asheville, is spending her vacation here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. John Danielson and little daughter, of Aiken, S. C., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alton McKinna here recently.

Marooned on a sandy South Pacific island, two sailors were making a careful search for anything edible.

"With all this sand," muttered one, "I'm sure there must be some spinach around here!"

DR. BOYER WILL SPEAK AT MEET, PLAN MINSTREL

Presbyterian Organizations To Give Big Show At High School On May 16th

Dr. Norman Boyer, of the Ecusta medical staff, will talk on "Industrial Medicine as Practiced Today" at the Presbyterian Men's club meeting on Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the church fellowship room.

Saturday, May 16, has been set as the date for the first annual minstrel show, sponsored by the men's club and the women's organizations of the church.

The big show is under the direction of Jack Richards, a veteran director of minstrel shows in other towns. The show here on the 16th will be held in the high school auditorium.

Words cannot express the many deeds of kindness shown us at the death of our loved one and especially for the beautiful floral offering.
