

New Brick Dormitory For Women Occupied At College

The new dormitory for women constructed by the J. A. Jones company on the campus at Brevard college will be on display at open house Sunday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock.

To Hold Open House At New Dormitory For Women On Brevard College Campus

COSTS ARE SAID OVER $125,000, TOUR REPORTED

Equipment Is Also Most Modern On Market Today. Many Unique Features

By STAFF WRITER Want to live among the most beautiful surroundings in Brevard? Then enroll as a co-ed at the local college.

A tour of the new dormitory at Brevard college reveals that little has been spared to make the residence for girls one of the most beautiful and modern to be found anywhere.

Constructed by the J. A. Jones company at a cost of some $125,000, the new dormitory is valued at a great deal more because of the donations of the Jones family and other friends.

Pleasant Room Overlooking the formal gardens on one side, the mountains and the college farm on the other, the lobby

Girls Relax In New Dormitory

Relaxation amid the pleasant surroundings of the rooms in the new dormitory for women at Brevard college seems to be very enjoyable judging from the expression on the faces of the three co-eds above.

PRESIDENT PROUD OF BUILDING, IS 1ST UCA PROJECT

Public Is Invited To Inspect Structure From 4-6 Sunday Afternoon

KICK-OFF CEREMONY

Construction on the beautiful new dormitory for women at Brevard college has been completed and the girls have moved into the building.

The modern structure will serve open house on Sunday afternoon from 4:00 to 6:00 o'clock, and all friends of the institution are invited to inspect the new dorm.

This is the first building project of the United College Appeal program which has as its goal the raising of two and one-half million dollars for construction of new buildings on four college campuses in North Carolina.

In addition to Brevard, these Methodist institutions are High Point, Greensboro and Louisburg. President Roberts said yesterday that he is extremely proud of the new building here, and he cordially invites the public to open house on Sunday.

Simultaneously with the event will be an art exhibit in the James Addison Jones library by the Brevard art club, and another by the art students of the college in the studio in Dunham hall.

Holding of the open house on Sunday will be the curtain raiser for the 1953 commencement at Brevard college, which will include in the three-day program the regular production exercises, the inauguration of the new president and the centennial celebration of the institution.

BLOODMOBILE WILL RETURN TO COUNTY

Will Make Visit At Rosman May 22. Here All Day May 27

The American Red Cross Bloodmobile will be at Transylvania on two occasions this month.

According to Tom Eller, general chairman of the blood program, the Bloodmobile will be at Rosman Friday, May 22, from 1:00 o'clock until 6 p. m., that afternoon, with the Rosman Garden club sponsoring.

On Wednesday, May 27, the mobile unit will be at the American Legion building under the sponsorship of the Legion Auxiliary.

According to Mrs. Ed Lass, president of the auxiliary, Mrs. C. L. Newland is the recruiting chairman for the Brevard visit, and Mrs. Ed Sikkema and Mrs. Elton Lewis are in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Joe E. Osborne is making the arrangements at Rosman. Mrs. Lass further states that some 300 pints are needed on the visit to Transylvania, and that the blood received here will be used for gamma globulin, which helps to prevent the crippling effects of polio.

Winners Announced In Poppy Contest

Winners in the poppy poster contest, sponsored in the local schools by the American Legion auxiliary of the Monroe Wilson post, No. 88, are announced today by Mrs. Roy Head, the poppy chairman.

Glenn Peavy, fourth grade student, was the winner in group one, which consisted of students in the 4th, 5th and 6th grades. Prizes of $5.00 each went to the two winners, and the prize

Chamber Of Commerce Office To Open Friday, Good Season Is Expected Here

Much Publicity Material Being Sent Out. Budget Of $3,800 Is Adopted

The Brevard chamber of commerce office on the court house lawn officially opens for continuous service on Friday morning of this week, it was announced at the director's meeting here Tuesday night.

First work of the information bureau will be the mailing of over 2,000 folders to selected inquiry lists provided by the WNC Highlanders, along with copy of the new Transylvania county accommodations list which has been worked up by the secretary and the tourist committee of the chamber.

Membership requests are also being mailed to a list that has been prepared by special committee of directors, and President S. E. Varner, Jr., suggested at the meeting that any and all persons interested in the growth of the section would be welcomed as official members of the organization.

The directors adopted the budget for the year '53, which authorizes the expenditure of $3,800.00. The president explained that the drive for membership is underway and he urges prompt payment of dues.

He pointed out that much work is being done continually by the

Taylor And Batson Lease Esso Station

R. G. Taylor and Carroll Batson have leased the Esso station on East Main street and are now operating the business. They announce that they will carry a complete stock of Esso products and render prompt car maintenance service.

CALENDAR OF COMING EVENTS

Thursday, May 14 - Shrine club meets at Masonic temple, 6 p. m. Kids square dance, NYA hut, 7:30 p. m. Wildlife club meets over city hall at 7:30. Masons meeting in the Masonic temple, 8 p. m. Woodmen circle in WOW hall at 8 p. m. 'The Curious Savage' at Brevard college, 8 p. m. Friday, May 15 - Chamber of commerce office opens for summer, 9 a. m. Garden club meets with Mrs. Arthur McCrary, 3:30 p. m. 'The Curious Savage' to be given again at college, 8 p. m. Sunday, May 17 - Attend the church of your choice. Open house at new dormitory, Brevard college, 4-6 p. m. Monday, May 18 - Rotary club

Transylvania Put In New Highway District, Buchanan Commissioner

Harry E. Buchanan, of Hendersonville, has been named commissioner of the newly-formed 14th highway division, which comprises the counties of Cherokee, Clay, Graham, Haywood, Henderson, Jackson, Macon, Polk, Swain and Transylvania.

His appointment was revealed this week, when plans were disclosed by Governor Unstead for redesignating the state into 14 parts. None of the old commissioners was reappointed. L. Dale Thrash, of Asheville, is the retiring commissioner for the old 10th district, which included Buncombe and the counties west of Asheville.

MAYOR, ALDERMEN NAMED AT ROSMAN

Many Write-In Ballots Are Cast. Candidates On Ballot Chosen

Action was lively Tuesday at Rosman in the general election, which was slated to be a matter of formality.

The primary election was held last week, and high men were listed on the ballot this week. However, several candidates who were not listed on the ballot received write-in votes.

Harlow Mason, who won out in the primary over R. K. Powell, was elected on Tuesday, with former mayor, A. M. White receiving 61 write-in votes. The new mayor polled 126 ballots, while his opponent in the primary was given seven

WPNF Program Highlights

Defense Secretary To Be Heard On Friday Night, Log Is Highlighted

Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson will discuss 'Our National Defense Policy' during a special Mutual - WPNF broadcast Friday night from 10:30 to 11:00 o'clock. Mr. Wilson's broadcast will originate from the 4th annual Armed Forces Day dinner to be held in the Statler Hotel, Washington, D. C., on the eve of the annual Armed Forces Day celebration.

Thursday at 9:05-9:30 p. m. Bishop Fulton J. Sheen plans to discuss 'Fatigue - Mental, Not Physical.' The tenor of his remarks will concern the theory that mental stagna-

The increase in commissioners and divisions was recommended in a report by a special five-member committee created by the 1953 legislature. Under the reorganization, A. H. Graham, of Hillsboro, took over as chairman of the state highway commission, replacing Dr. Henry Jordan.

Buchanan and the other newly-appointed commissioners were sworn in this morning. He is well known in Democratic political circles and has been a lobbyist for the motion picture operators of the state for a number of years. He is president of the Cherokee Historical society and a leader in the establishment of the Cherokee Indian Village and the successful operation of the Indian outdoor drama, 'Unto These Hills.'

In a statement issued following his appointment, Mr. Buchanan said in part: 'The increase in commissioners and divisions was recommended in a report by a special five-member committee created by the 1953 legislature. Under the reorganization, A. H. Graham, of Hillsboro, took over as chairman of the state highway commission, replacing Dr. Henry Jordan.'

Many Activities Will Highlight Bob Loftis Day This Thursday

The Transylvania district of Boy Scouts of America is holding 'Bob Loftis' day on Thursday.

A former outstanding student at Brevard high school and a high ranking Boy Scout, Young Loftis is being honored by fellow scout leaders, members of the various troops, scouts and hundreds of other friends on Thursday. All Scouts and Cubs in the county will wear their uniforms on Thursday, and a special chapel program at 1:30 at Brevard high school will begin the activities of the day. Harry Sellers, Jr., will be in charge. Then at 7:00 o'clock that evening the Bob Loftis parade forms at the high school and then proceeds to the First Methodist church for the special court of honor exercises. The court is being held in honor of Young Loftis and the boys are advancing in his honor, Charles Dunlop, district chairman, announces.

Leading the parade will be the Brevard high school band, under the direction of John Eversman.

TEACHERS WILL RECEIVE BONUS

General Assembly Authorized 10% Increase Retroactive To Last July

Transylvania school personnel will receive a total of $34,044 in bonuses, Supt. J. B. Jones announces today.

These bonuses will be paid to the 119 teachers, and employees, 25 bus drivers and 15 janitors.

The 1953 General Assembly authorized a 10 per cent pay increase, retroactive to July, 1952, for all school teachers and state employees.

It is also announced that the board of education will meet on Friday night, May 15, at 8:00 o'clock for the purpose of election of a county superintendent.

By the summer of '54, it is hoped that a workable plan can be devised to give Brevard some outstanding softball games both day and night. Plans of the Jaycees also call for making the setting attractive enough to get one or more southern softball tournaments.

'This would add much to the summer entertainment program here as well as giving Brevard one more outlet for publicity,' Jaycees point out.

Additional Rabies Clinics Scheduled

According to Clyde Hubbard, dog warden in Transylvania, three additional rabies clinics have been scheduled on request. The warden explains that if 10 or more people will request a rabies clinic to be held at a certain area in the county, a clinic will be scheduled. The additional clinics set-up at the present time are: May 15 - Gladly Creek church, Pisgah Forest, 5:00 to 7:00 in the evening. May 18 - Lanning's store,

Presbyterian Men And Women Stage First Annual Minstrel

NOW WORKING ON FOLK FESTIVAL

Jaycees Would Like For Proceeds To Go For Softball Diamond

Brevard Jaycees are busy with plans for the 1953 Sylvan Valley Folk Festival, Dr. Frank McGuire, the newly elected president, announces.

At a recent board of directors meeting it was decided that proceeds from the festival this year would be used to benefit the largest number of people. The result of much discussion was the decision to at least initiate a move to create on the Brevard high school athletic field a first class softball diamond.

In addition to the playing field, the Jaycees would like to see appropriate stands to accommodate a large number of people erected.

By the summer of '54, it is hoped that a workable plan can be devised to give Brevard some outstanding softball games both day and night.

Plans of the Jaycees also call for making the setting attractive enough to get one or more southern softball tournaments.

'This would add much to the summer entertainment program here as well as giving Brevard one more outlet for publicity,' Jaycees point out.

Event Slated Saturday Night At School. Jack Richards Is Directing

The first annual minstrel in black and white being staged by the men and women of the Brevard-Davidson River Presbyterian church is expected to attract a large crowd on Saturday night.

The show will be held in the Brevard high school auditorium, beginning at 8:15 o'clock. Proceeds will be used for youth activities, and admission will be 75 cents for adults and 35 cents for children. Reserved seats are on sale at Jones news stand at $1.00.

The minstrel is under the direction of Jack Richards, who has had wide and varied experience in show business.

Mr. Richards' father was an entertainer all his life, having had leading roles in the Cleveland Grand Opera company, and he has traveled with such shows as Al C. Fields, Lew Docksteder, and others, featuring Al Jolson, Eddie Cantor and many others.

Young Richards spent many years with his father in show work, both writing and directing, and during the past 15 years, he has put on many minstrels for various civic organizations. He is a chemist at Ecusta.

The show here on Saturday night will consist of a minstrel chorus and a number of special acts. The end men are Bill 'T-Bone' Huffman, Clyde 'Butter Ball' Jones, Jack 'Pork Chop' Alexander, Dick 'Smokoey' Pierce, Art 'Shorty'

The sale of stock will be continued until June 1, when it is hoped

Sale Of Stock In Country Club Is Now Underway, Improvements Made

An intensive drive to sell stock in the newly organized Brevard Country Club, Inc., has been launched, and according to Jack Alexander, the chairman, early response is good.

Four captains to head the four districts, which are divided off by Main and Broad streets, have been named, the chairman states, and they are as follows: District one, with the court house as home base, Bob Arnold.

District two, down Main and Broad streets from the Waltermire hotel, L. C. Poor. District three, the section west of Broad and southwest of East Main, Ned Medford.

District four, Northwest side of Broad and north of Main, Dr. Norman Boyer.

Mr. Alexander explains that six lieutenants will be named to assist each of the captains, and it is hoped that everybody will be contacted. The chairman points out that persons do not have to wait until they are contacted to purchase stock. All that is necessary, he says, is to see or call one of the captains or an officer or director of the country club. Mr. Alexander himself will take the money or receive pledges.

The sale of stock will be continued until June 1, when it is hoped