

Inauguration Of New President To Highlight College Exercises

REV. ROBERT H. STAMEY, the new president of Brevard college, will be inaugurated next Tuesday morning at a special program in the college gymnasium, beginning at 10:30 o'clock. Much progress is being made at the local institution under the leadership of Mr. Stamey, who assumed his duties as president of the college here about a year ago. Many alumni and other friends of the institution are expected on the beautiful campus of Brevard college during commencement, which officially begins on Sunday. Mr. Stamey will preside over the various programs of commencement, and diplomas will be awarded to 34 candidates.

Plans For College Commencement Completed, Events Begin Sunday

PRESIDENT STAMEY INAUGURATION SET FOR NEXT TUESDAY

Diplomas Will Be Awarded At Exercises That Afternoon

The 1953 commencement exercises at Brevard college will include the awarding of diplomas to 34 candidates, the inauguration of the new president, Rev. Robert H. Stamey, and the centennial celebration of the institution.

The various events of commencement will get underway on Sunday morning, May 25, at 11:00 o'clock, when Rev. D. D. Holt, of Greensboro, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the graduates at the First Methodist church.

The inaugural ceremony for President Stamey will be held in the college gymnasium Tuesday, May 26, at 10:30 a. m. Bishop Paul N. Garber, of Richmond, Virginia, will deliver the main address and Edwin L. Jones, of Charlotte, who is chairman of the board of trustees, will give the charge. President Stamey will then deliver his inaugural address.

Bishop J. Harrell, of Charlotte, will deliver the commencement address in the college gymnasium at 2:30 p. m. next Tuesday, May 26.

Celebration of the Brevard college centennial will begin officially with the observance of the 1953 commencement program. Many outstanding leaders of the Methodist church will be attracted to the campus for this celebration.

Brevard college had its beginning with Rutherford college, located near Morganton, which received its charter in 1853. Weaver college, located at Weaverville, was incorporated in 1872. In 1934 the final merger of these two colleges took place on the site of Brevard Institute and became known as Brevard college.

Prominent Methodist Leaders On College Commencement Program

Three of the prominent Methodist leaders who will speak on the various programs of the 1953 commencement exercises at Brevard college are pictured above. BISHOP COSTEN J. HARRELL, left, of Charlotte, will deliver the address to the graduating class next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the college gymnasium. REV. D. D. HOLT, center, of Greensboro, will preach the baccalaureate sermon to the graduates on Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock at the First Methodist church. BISHOP PAUL N. GARBBER, right, formerly in charge of the Methodist work in Europe and now presiding bishop of the Virginia and North Carolina conferences, will be the special speaker at the inauguration of President Stamey next Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the college gym.

Board Of Trustees Of Brevard College To Meet Next Tuesday

Session Will Be A Part Of 1953 Commencement Program. Jones To Preside

The annual meeting of the board of trustees of Brevard college will be held Tuesday afternoon, May 25th, at 3:00 o'clock in the conference room of Dunham hall.

Edwin L. Jones, of Charlotte, will preside over the meeting, and a number of important business items will be acted upon.

Other officers are: Col. W. B. Moore, of Wadesboro, vice chairman, and Rev. James B. McLarty, secretary of the board.

Local persons on the board are: Ed M. Anderson, Mrs. J. H. Picklesimer and S. E. Varner.

Other trustees are as follows: Ralph Edwards, Morganton; George D. Finch, Thomasville; Otis Green, Asheville; Edwin L. Jones, Charlotte; Holt McPherson, High Point; Dr. E. H. Nease, Atlanta, Ga.; Dr. Henry C. Sprinkle, Jr., New York; Jonathan Woody, Waynesville; Joel W. Wright, Asheville.

Rev. Cecil Hefer, Lincolnton; Leon Ivey, Hickory; Richard Johnson, North Wilkesboro; Rev. Frank B. Jordan, Charlotte; Rev. James B. McLarty, Mooresville; J. Ed Millis, High Point; Col. W. B. Moore, Wadesboro; Clarence E. Morgan, Asheville; Flake Sherrill, Statesville; Rev. H. C. Sprinkle, Sr., Mocksville; Rev. Lee F. Tuttle, Charlotte; Judge Guy Weaver, Asheville.

Dr. Embree H. Blackard, Asheville; J. Hal Bobbitt, Charlotte; Rev. C. P. Bowles, Charlotte; H. A. Dunham, Asheville; Paul F. Evans, Lexington; Rev. W. A. Kale, Durham; S. Les Myers, Concord; C. M. Ogle, Hendersonville; Jean W. Schenck, Shelby; Allen Sims, Gastonia; Rev. Howard C. Wilkinson, Lexington; O. V. Woosley, Winston-Salem.

Invited to tarry for a session at a tavern, a henpecked husband expressed his regret: "I can't get to go home and explain to my wife." "Explain what?" the bachelor asked. "How the heck do I know," said the other wearily, "I'm not home yet."

Chairman Of Board

EDWIN L. JONES, of Charlotte, is chairman of the board of trustees of Brevard college. A prominent Methodist layman, Mr. Jones is president of J. A. Jones Construction company. Mr. Jones will preside over the meeting of the board of trustees on May 25 at 3:00 o'clock.

AND MOTHER WROTE BACK FOR ME NOT TO COMPLAIN

Student's first letter home — "About that straw that broke the camel's back. I'm sleeping on it."

When you think of prescriptions, think of VARNER'S.—adv.

and combine this with a need for relaxation in which it will be possible to find a long-sought-for time to read, listen to the music of the masters or enjoy some of the varied attractions of Western North Carolina, this is also on the summer school menu.

Fees for the summer school term are as follows: tuition and general fees—$75.00; tuition in excess of six hours—$10.00; tuition per semester hour if less than six hours taken—$15.00; room (private)—$35.00; room (two in a room)—$25.00; and minimum charge for board—$70.00.

Further information and literature may be secured by writing Director of Admissions, Brevard College, Brevard, N. C.

Cpl. Burrell Is Graduated From School In Murnau

Army Cpl. John R. Burrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burrell, of Brevard, recently graduated from the bridge construction course of the Army Engineer School at Murnau, Germany.

He received training as a member of a construction team that builds fixed bridges and other heavy timber structures. The school is operated by the United States Army, Europe Engineer Division.

Corporal Burrell, a carpenter with the 959th Engineer Construction Battalion, arrived overseas in February, 1952. He received basic training at Camp Rucker, Ala.

A former student of Brevard high school, Burrell entered the army in June, 1951.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Dr. Carl Hardin's dental office will be closed all day every Thursday.

Symbol Of A Progressive Administration!

CONGRATULATIONS TO

Brevard College

On The Erection of a Handsome Dormitory For Girls.

The Heating System And All Plumbing In This Building Were Installed By Us

GARRIS & HOSKINS

1501 S. TRYON STREET CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Congratulations TO Brevard College

ON THE ERECTION OF A MODERN DORMITORY FOR GIRLS

We feel that trustees, officials, faculty members, patrons and friends of the college are proud of this new edifice which adds so much to the appearance of the campus.

All painting on this new dormitory was done by us. Estimates on any size project cheerfully given.

STONE PAINT and WALLPAPER CO. CANTON, N. C.

BREVARD'S PLUMBER

YES, HEATING, TOO, IS IN OUR LINE. WE THINK OUR WORK IS MIGHTY FINE!

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

PRESSLEY-OSBORNE PLUMBING-HEATING Our Work Pays 3-2121 REV. N.C.