

Officials of the Brevard Music Festival and the Brevard Music Foundation announced the elaborate plans for the 1953 event at a joint meeting of the civic clubs of Brevard last Wednesday night in the Brevard college cafeteria. JAMES CHRISTIAN PFOHL, founder and director of the camp and festival, is pictured above speaking on the program, and JOHN EVERSMAN, president of the festival, who presided, is at the center. ED M. ANDERSON, trustee of the foundation, is at the right, and he also spoke on the program, emphasizing the vast amount of publicity the camp and festival give the community through the press and radio of the nation. (Times Staff Photo)

Elaborate Plans For The '53 Festival Are Announced At Joint Meeting Of Civic Clubs

Full Cooperation Is Urged By Officials. Many Broadcasts Are Slated

Members of the civic clubs of Brevard got a first hand report on the 1953 Brevard Music Festival, the South's No. 1 musical event each summer, at a joint meeting in the Brevard college cafeteria last Wednesday night.

John Eversman, president of the festival, presided over the banquet meeting, which was attended by some 150 Lions, Kiwanians, Rotarians, Jaycees and other civic leaders.

Rev. Robert H. Stamey, president of Brevard college, welcomed the group, and he pledged the cooperation of the school to the festival.

Mr. Stamey explained that the facilities of the new dormitory would be available to house a part of the large crowd expected here for the big three-weeks' event in August.

The college president also expressed deep appreciation to the civic leaders for the fine cooperation of the school is receiving from townspeople.

"Brevard college is proud to have some 50 Transylvania boys and girls enrolled this year, and we are expecting more local students next year," Mr. Stamey declared.

Prior to introducing the other speakers on the program, Mr. Eversman explained the purpose of the meeting as being to create a closer relationship between the festival and the community. The festival, he continued, is a community enterprise, and for its continued success, the support of the entire community is necessary.

Mr. Eversman touched briefly on the history of the festival, telling of organization in 1946, and the remarkable growth of the non-profit organization.

The formation of the Brevard Music Foundation in 1949 to operate both the music camp and the festival was also discussed by the master of ceremonies, and then he presented F. S. Best, treasurer of the foundation, who gave a financial report.

Mr. Best said the festival and

—Turn to Page Eight

Why Go To ASHEVILLE WHEN THEY'RE COMING TO BREVARD Saturday, June 6 BREVARD HI SCHOOL?

in Person!

ARTHUR SMITH

AND THE CRACKER JACKS

Sponsored by Transylvania Shrine Club
Tickets Now On Sale by Members

Seeking Talent For Arthur Smith Show Here On Saturday, June 6th

Members of the Transylvania Shrine club are accepting applications, both amateur and professional, for appearance on the Arthur Smith "Television Talent Hunt" which will be given in the Brevard high school auditorium on Saturday night, June 6th, beginning at 8:15 o'clock. The local Shrine club is sponsoring the show for benefit of the Masonic temple building fund.

The following have been appointed as a committee to take applications to participate on the program: Dick Pierce, chairman, W. C. Bangs and Henry Henderson, of Brevard; and Virgil McCrary, Penrose and Paul Stroup, of Rosman. The deadline for filing application will be on Monday, June 1st. The top 15 acts will appear on the stage and the winners will be judged by audience applause.

Three prizes will be offered, the first place winner to appear on WBTB on Arthur Smith's Tuesday night program; second place winner will receive $1000 and third place winner will receive $500, which will be given by the Transylvania Shrine club.

V. P. Fullbright is chairman of the ticket committee and tickets are now on sale by both Shriner and Masons and also at Macfie's, Long's and Vaner's drug stores, and at the three news stands, Ward's, Clark's and Jones'. Tickets are $1.00 for adults and 50c for children under 12.

Revival Begins Sunday Night At Oak Grove Church

By MRS. PAUL FISHER

QUEBEC — Revival services will begin next Sunday, May 24th, at Oak Grove Baptist church with Rev. Don Milam, of Oklahoma, doing the preaching. Everyone has a cordial invitation to attend.

The regular monthly meeting of the WMU and the auxiliaries will be held at the church Thursday night of this week. Everyone is urged to be present.

The seventh grade graduation exercises of Quebec school will be held Friday night, May 22. Rev. Gene Henson will be speaker of the hour.

Mrs. Alcovia McCall, principal of Quebec school, entertained her seventh grade boys and girls with a weiner roast at her home last Thursday night. The invited guests were Carol Brown, Jennie Sue Brown, Doris Fisher and Mary Ina Whitmire. Games were played and delicious refreshments were served. All enjoyed a delightful hour of fun and fellowship together.

Mrs. Charles Clark with her junior girls Sunday school class, enjoyed a picnic together in the Oakland section Sunday after church. Rev. and Mrs. Hulon Arms and children were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Sanders.

Mr. and Mrs. Demus Lowe and daughter, of Enka, spent the week end with the former's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Luna Lowe.

Dolph Waldrop is a patient in general hospital in Greenville, S. C. He is to undergo an operation this week. We wish for him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Thomas and family, of Pickens, S. C., spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Thomas and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Miro Welyczko and children spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Banther of Gloucester.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Brown and daughter and Miss Ruth Thomas, of Easley, visited friends and relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mathis and children were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Hillie Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bowers and daughter, of Pickens, S. C., visited Mrs. Alcovia McCall Saturday.

Haskell Whitmire, of Columbia, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Whitmire.

We are sure the children are all happy to know they will soon have a vacation. School days are almost over. We would like to take the space to express our heartfelt gratitude to our teachers of Quebec school who have done such a wonderful work with our boys and girls. We are very proud of them and are looking forward to having them with us again next year. We wish for all the boys and girls along with the teacher, a very happy vacation.

Saturday night prayer meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dillie Fisher. Everyone is invited to attend.

They asked an explorer this: "Will wild beasts in the jungle harm you if you carry a torch?" "It all depends," he answered, "on how fast you carry it."

Will MC Show

CLYDE McLEAN, popular announcer of the Arthur Smith TV show, will appear here on the talent program on June 6. Mr. McLean will be the master of ceremonies, and the program is being sponsored by the Transylvania Shrine club.

NO BIG TRICK

One humiliating thing about science is that it is gradually filling our homes with appliances smarter than we are.

"Anybody hurt in the wreck?"
"One gentleman, I believe."
"Bones broken?"
"I think it was his heart. He sat down by a leaking suitcase and shed tears."

HD CLUB NEWS

PLANNING SCHOOL

A number of local persons have indicated they will attend the annual handicraft workshop to be held at Camp Schaub near Waynesville June 2-3-4. All Home Demonstration clubs are eligible and they should let the home agent know if they wish to attend.

Those who have already signed up to go are Mrs. A. R. Sarratt, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Van Deusen, Mrs. E. H. Mackey, Miss Sallie Merrill, Mrs. Thalia Shufford and Mrs. Walter Cantrell.

CLUB SCHEDULE

The Penrose and Blantyre clubs will have a joint meeting Monday, May 25, at 1:30 with Miss Anne Benson Priest at her apartment at the S. E. Varner home.

Lamb's Creek meets Tuesday, May 26, at 1:30 with Mrs. Ed Owenby.

Little River-Holly Springs meets with Mrs. M. C. Shipman on Wednesday, May 27, at 2 p. m.

Glady Branch will meet at 2 p. m. Thursday, May 28, with Mrs. Spalding McIntosh.

WEEK ANNOUNCED

Farm and home week will be held in Raleigh June 8-12 and all Home Demonstration members from this county are eligible to attend. Mrs. Joseph Jones, Cedar Mountain, is the only one who has indicated she will accompany Home Agent Anne Benson Priest.

Blonde: Sorry, soldier, but I never got out with perfect strangers. Soldier: Don't worry about that, I ain't perfect.

When you think of prescriptions, think of VARNER'S.—adv.

Slides Of Drama Enjoyed At Toxaway

By MRS. H. D. LEE

LAKE TOXAWAY — The children of Lake Toxaway school enjoyed the slides of the Cherokee drama, "Unto These Hills," shown by R. L. Love, assistant county farm agent, at the last 4-H club meeting.

Miss Priest are showing in the 4-H and Home Demonstration work here is appreciated.

PERSONAL ITEMS
Sgt. Charles Lee, of Shaw Field air base, Sumpter, S. C., visited

—Turn to Page Eight

OF BREVARD COLLEGE AND OUR HIGH SCHOOLS

You deserve praise for the industry and aptitude which have enabled you to win a diploma. Every member of the graduating classes has our best wishes for happy and useful careers.

BELK'S

BELK'S ANNUAL

MAY COTTON DRESS JUBILEE!
$2.77

A. Lovely Sheer batiste sizes 12/20

B. "No Iron" Cotton plisse sizes 16 1/2/24 1/2

Get ready for Ole Man Summer with an armful of these wonderful washable cottons.

15 STYLES

Values to $3.98

LOOK AT THE FABRICS

- Polished Cottons
- Seersuckers
- Parcales
- Sheers

- IN SUNBACKS
- IN SLEEVELESS STYLES
- IN BOLERO STYLES
- IN DRESSUP STYLES

LOOK AT THE SIZES

- 9 to 15
- 10 to 20
- 38 to 46
- 16 1/2 to 24 1/2

TINY PRICED AT JUST

$2.77

BELK'S