Directed Building Of College Dormitory

Two of the key construction personnel of the new dormitory for women at Brevard college are pictured above. On the left is J. A. JONES, JR., travelling manager of the J. A. Jones Construction company in North Carolina. Mr. Jones is active in civic and church affairs of Charlotte, and during World War II he served in the Marine corps with the rank of lieutenant. On the right is BOB T. SHIVER, project superintendent. Following the completion of the new dormitory, Mr. Shiver began work on renovation of Taylor hall. A construction superintendent with 27 years experience, Mr. Shiver supervised the erection of several fine structures in Florida and North Carolina. A member of the Brevard Lions club, he is active here in civic affairs and is an avid booster of Western North Carolina.

Enrollment In County Schools During Past Year Set At 3,808

Total enrollment in Transylvania's schools during 1952-'53 was 3,808, as compared with 3,613 for last year, Supt. J. B. Jones announces this week.

Average daily attendance was 3,135, eight over the previous year, Mrs. Jones states.

"With a decrease in building and construction work, there has been a slight drop in enrollment and average daily attendance," the superintendent explains.

Under the circumstances, he says, it is doubtful if any additional teachers will be allotted this spring. However, in case of overcrowded schools this fall, teachers may be secured based upon the average daily attendance for the first two weeks of school.

Enrollment by schools:

To Address Group

MISS BERTHA S. ADKINS, of Washington, D. C., and head of the women's division and assistant to the chairman of the Republican party, will deliver the principal address at an all-day meeting of the State Federation on Thursday at Lenoir. A large delegation from Transylvania is expected to attend the meeting.

MANY REPUBLICAN WOMEN TO ATTEND MEET THURSDAY

All-Day Affair To Be Held At Lenoir. Group To Leave At 7:30 O'Clock

A large delegation of Republican women is expected to attend the all-day meeting of the North Carolina Federation of Republican Women's clubs in Lenoir on Thursday.

The group will meet at 7:30 o'clock at Martin's bus station, from where the ladies will go to Lenoir in chartered buses.

Miss Bertha S. Adkins of Washington, D. C., head of the Women's division and assistant to the chairman of the Republican national committee, will deliver the principal address at the meeting.

Approximately 200 representatives from throughout the state are expected to attend, Mrs. Millard Teague, of Brevard, president of the state federation, says.

The Western North Carolina council of the federation will be host for the meeting to be held in the home of Mrs. Palmer Kountze, WNC council president, in Lenoir.

Miss Adkins, who has served on the Republican national committee since 1948, is scheduled to speak at 2 p. m. and will review the accomplishments of the first hundred days of the Eisenhower administration.

Mrs. Teague has called an executive committee meeting at 11:00 a. m. to discuss state-wide projects, finances, and the appointment of various committees.

The Caldwell county chapter of the federation will be host at a dutch luncheon at 12:30 p. m.

Methodist Districts Hold Mass Meeting

Aldersgate and Pentecost Sunday, May 24th, is being observed by the Methodist churches in this, the Wayneville and Marion districts. This mass meeting will be the climax of the United Evangelistic Mission which these churches recently observed.

The meeting is being held in the city auditorium in Asheville, beginning at 4 o'clock. Dr. G. Ernest Thomas, of the board of evangelism, Nashville, Tenn., will be the speaker. The Brevard college glee club will present special music.

Similar meetings are being held all over the world on this Sunday.

Local Methodists are urged to attend this meeting and to invite others to go with them.

McMahan Renamed To Utilities Group

Governor Umstead has reappointed Edward H. McMahan, formerly of Brevard, to a four-year term on the state utilities commission. Chairman Stanley Winborne was reappointed for a six-year term at the same time.

Mr. McMahan was named to the commission by former Governor Kerr Scott following a fight with the 1949 legislature, in which he was authorized to add three additional commissioners.

Bob Loftis Day Highly Successful, Scoutmasters Get Awards At Court

Bob Loftis day in Brevard last Thursday was a tremendous success, Charles Dunlop, chairman of the Transylvania district of Boy Scouts of America, states.

Special chapel exercises were held at the high school, and the outstanding event of the day was the big parade from the hut, through the business section of town to the First Methodist church.

Hundreds of spectators lined the street and the Ecusta band led the parade following the Scout leaders and the car with Young Loftis.

Climaxing the day was the largest court of honor that has been held here in a long, long time. All boys advancing at the court were advanced in honor of young Loftis, and a special gift was presented to him at the meeting.

E. B. Garrett was chairman of the honor court, and others participating on the program were T. Earl Hall, Bob Garner, Oscar Smith, Rev. John D. Smith, F. S. Best, Fritz Merrell and Chairman Dunlop.

On behalf of the Daniel Boone council, Mr. Dunlop presented the following scoutmasters with framed certificates of appreciation: Jack Morgan, troop 1; Fritz Merrell, troop 2; Robert Head, troop 4; Hugh Bradburn, troop 5; Walter Williams, troop 10; Jim Bayne, troop 11; John B. Reeves, troop 14; Jim Curwen, Cub Pack No. 1, and Rev. David F. Cooper, Cub Pack No. 2.

From A Reporter's Notebook By FRANCES WALKER

Congratulations and best wishes go along with verbal bouquets to all the graduates who will be receiving diplomas Tuesday. Nostalgia creeps into this corner around graduation time each year. I remember so vividly graduating from both Brevard high school and Brevard college. In some ways it seems long ago, in others a short time. But for sure, it's a year longer each spring. Upon reflecting what type of message or well-wishing to send out from this column to the graduates, it dawned on me that in all the years from my own graduation to now one thing has not changed. Just as my class speakers in 1944 talked about the uncertainties facing the youths of today, the challenges of a changing world in which peace is the number one objective, so the graduates of 1953 are pondering and wondering about the very same things. A lot of progress in many fields has been made since 1944, that's for sure, but it seems tragic that the status of the world has changed but little. There's your challenge, grads of '53! Here's your chance to bring about conditions that the young people and the old people who went before you have been unable to effect.

Since this week's Times is the annual graduation edition, perhaps it would be appropriate to reprint here a teacher's contract that Mrs. Arthur Ffoulkes found recently in going through some of her things in the attic trunk. Here it is:

"This contract, by and between teachers, and the board of public instruction for the county of Clay State of Florida, Witnesseth that:

The said Mrs. M. E. Goodwin agrees to teach the public school No. 18 at North Prong of Black Creek or such other public school as the board may elect, commencing on the ninth day of October, 1971, for the term of three months, and to perform well and faithfully the duties of teacher, according to law and the regulations, of the Department of Public Instruction of Florida, and in consideration of services, so rendered, the said Board of Public Instruction for the county of Clay agree to pay to the said Mrs. M. E. Goodwin the sum of ten dollars per school month and to give such further aid as the law requires, (signed) Mrs. M. E. Goodwin, teacher."

Everyone who knows Mrs. Mary Jenkins is familiar with the kindness that literally pours from her heart. She is one of the most perfect examples of a Christian lady that we have ever been privileged
