

"How Much Are Those Kittens In The Window?"

DEBORAH CARR, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carr, is snapped as she admires the cute kittens in the window of Dean's Plumbing Shop in the Times Arcade. The mother cat slipped in the back of the shop recently and shortly thereafter the family above was discovered in a display sink in the window. P. S. Mr. Dean says there will be no charge for the kittens . . . first come: first served. (Times Staff Photo)

Most Successful Music Festival Ends, Mrs. Cooledge Re-Elected Chairman

Largest Crowd Ever Attended Sunday's Concert, Resume Given

The eighth annual Brevard Music Festival came to a close Sunday afternoon with a concert attended by overflow crowds estimated at over 1,200.

To hear the program, which included the second week end performance of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony, many people sat on chairs set up just outside the auditorium. Some settled themselves on the hillside opposite and listened.

The sunny afternoon drew people from near and far. Many seemed to have saved the week end for their pilgrimage to Brevard, and license plates from Georgia, Florida, and even Iowa and Illinois were seen on the parked cars.

James Christian Pfohl, who conducted the Brevard Festival or heard the famous artist in artias of Gluck and Wagner. This was Miss Farrell's fourth appearance at festival or camp concerts, and her arrival here is traditionally looked forward to by the public and the festival staff alike.

On Tuesday and Sunday the programs opened with Beverly Wiff, contralto, in the solo role of Bach's cantata "Schlage doch." The youthful Atlanta soprano was warmly received for her impeccable and resonant performance.

Soloists in the Beethoven Ninth Symphony were Miss Farrell, soprano; Harry Strauss, Spaghetto Camp, baritone; Miss Wolff, contralto; Andrew McKinley, tenor; and Andrew White, baritone. A large community chorus of 120 members stood on either side of the special raised conductor's podium, in front of the orchestra, the world's oldest network, universally agreed that this was an exceptional choral sound which handled the difficult finale with ease and richness of timbre. Lester McCoy was choral director in charge of training the chorus.

CALENDAR OF COMING EVENTS

Thursday, Aug. 27 — B & PW club meets at 8 p. m. at Camp Harry Strauss, Spaghetto Camp, baritone; Miss Wolff, contralto; Andrew McKinley, tenor; and Andrew White, baritone. A large community chorus of 120 members stood on either side of the special raised conductor's podium, in front of the orchestra, the world's oldest network, universally agreed that this was an exceptional choral sound which handled the difficult finale with ease and richness of timbre. Lester McCoy was choral director in charge of training the chorus.

Friday, Aug. 28 — Youth band at Presbyterian church, 7:00 o'clock. Scout committee meets at Duke Power office, 7:30 o'clock. Square dance in the American Legion building, 8:30 o'clock.

Saturday, Aug. 29 — American Legion auxiliary food sale, Duke Power office, 8:30 a. m.

—Turn to Page Five

TV WEDDINGS ARE PROVING POPULAR

Another Event Of Local Interest Will Take Place On Sept. 1st

By STAFF WRITER

Another marriage with local interest will take place on the "Bride and Groom" television show Tuesday, September 1st.

Several weeks back a couple from Marion were married on this program and considerable local interest was manifested due to the fact the bride had been a court reporter here just prior to the wedding.

And now, along comes a bride whose mother was a native of Transylvania with a large number of relatives living here.

Miss Delano Dickerson, of Wells, Maine, and Lee Everett McDonald, of Haverhill, Mass., will become man and wife on the popular television show.

—Turn to Page Ten

Frances Walker Wins Deep Freeze Award

Frances Walker was awarded a Frigidaire deep freeze Tuesday night by the Brevard Business and Professional Women's club at the climax of their drive for contributions to the club's nursing scholarship fund.

The selection of the winner took place at the Brevard Drive-In theatre, where the club was sponsoring the movie, "Lone Star." It was also sponsored by the showing of the film on Wednesday evening.

For several weeks members of the B & PW club had been accepting contributions for the scholarship fund. It is understood that several hundred dollars were realized from this project.

Miss Walker is associate editor of The Times and women's program director of WPNF. She is not a member of the Business and Professional Women's club.

WPNF Program Highlights

NBC Will Carry Transylvania Music Camp Program On Saturday, Sept. 5

On Saturday afternoon, September 5th, the National Broadcasting Company, the world's oldest network, will present a special program from the Transylvania Music Camp, featuring the '53 camp orchestra and interviews with the theme, "Brevard, the Summer Music Capital of the South." The program will be heard over WPNF and the other NBC affiliates from coast-to-coast.

This 30-minute program will be heard here from 1:30 to 2:00 o'clock.

Trustees Optimistic Over Future Of Camp. Plans Being Made

A highly successful meeting of the trustees of the Brevard Music Foundation was held last Saturday and Mrs. Harold N. Cooledge, of Atlanta, Ga., and Highlands, was re-elected chairman of the foundation.

Other officers chosen were as follows: George E. Morse, of Biltmore, first vice chairman; John D. Eversman, of Flat Rock, second vice chairman; Mrs. William J. Kirk, of Brevard, secretary; and F. S. Best, of Brevard, treasurer.

James Christian Pfohl is music director of the foundation.

Mr. Eversman holds the second vice chairmanship in view of his office as president of the Brevard Music Festival.

Reports were given on the Transylvania Music camp and Brevard Music Festival seasons. Much optimism was shown about the way these projects have developed in the past year, and it was realized that the work of the foundation is not just a summer activity but must continue administrative operations throughout the year. With this in mind the trustees are making plans for such year-round operation.

It was brought out that the foundation is making plans for such year-round operation.

—Turn to Page Ten

Western Union Seeks Permission To Close Telegraph Office Here

Permission to close its office here was requested on August 14 by the Western Union Telegraph Co. The company proposes to provide telegraph service at the bus station here from 8:30 a. m. to 7:30 p. m. Monday through Saturday, 9:00 a. m. to 11:00 a. m. and 4:00 to 6:00 p. m. on Sunday.

Any person desiring to object to the proposed arrangement may write the Federal Communications Commission in Washington, D. C. on or before Sept. 16.

At present the company maintains an office in the Lawrence building for sending and receiving telegrams, except during evenings, Saturday afternoons and on holidays, when they have been handled at the bus station. This arrangement has been in effect here for the past two and a half years.

Granting of the petition by the federal agency would mean that all telegrams originating in and intended for Brevard would be handled through the bus station.

Schools In Transylvania To Open Monday, Some 3,750 To Enroll

AQUATIC SCHOOL IS UNDERWAY AT CAMP CAROLINA

Bill McDonald Is Director. Approximately 100 Are Attending

The second session of the 1953 American Red Cross Aquatic school at beautiful Camp Carolina opened on Monday and will last for 10 days.

Bill McDonald, of Carolina Beach and Red Cross first aid and water safety representative, is director of the school, and he is being assisted by Earl Hollowell and John Delabar.

Some 100 persons are registered for the school, which is offering courses in lifesaving, water safety, swimming, diving, small craft operation and first aid.

The school faculty is composed of Red Cross leaders in the fields of water safety and first aid.

Students completing the course satisfactorily will become qualified Red Cross instructors in aquatics and safety programs in schools, camps and Red Cross organizations throughout the southeast.

Among the instructors at this second session are: Richard Brantwell, Jacksonville, Fla.; Clyde Howard, Nashville, Tenn.; William Knight, Tampa, Fla.; and Marshall Upton, Charlotte.

Ray Martinez, assistant director of the New Orleans chapter, and Robert Duke, director during the summer months at the Wake county schools and camps.

Boy Scouts Of Charlotte Camp Up In The Pisgah

Some 50 Boy Scouts of Troop 3, Charlotte, are spending this week at Davidson River campground in Pisgah National Forest.

They are being accompanied by Lowe Walker, assistant commissioner of Mecklenburg county, and four other adult leaders. Mr. Walker has been bringing a group of scouts here each summer since 1936.

The boys are working on nature requirements for badges and expect to cover over 100 miles of hiking before they return home Saturday.

On Thursday night the Boy Scouts will entertain Girl Scouts of local troops 77 and 78 with a chicken fry.

Western Union Seeks Permission To Close Telegraph Office Here

Permission to close its office here was requested on August 14 by the Western Union Telegraph Co. The company proposes to provide telegraph service at the bus station here from 8:30 a. m. to 7:30 p. m. Monday through Saturday, 9:00 a. m. to 11:00 a. m. and 4:00 to 6:00 p. m. on Sunday.

Any person desiring to object to the proposed arrangement may write the Federal Communications Commission in Washington, D. C. on or before Sept. 16.

At present the company maintains an office in the Lawrence building for sending and receiving telegrams, except during evenings, Saturday afternoons and on holidays, when they have been handled at the bus station. This arrangement has been in effect here for the past two and a half years.

Granting of the petition by the federal agency would mean that all telegrams originating in and intended for Brevard would be handled through the bus station.

Reserved Seats To Be Sold To Home Games

For the first time, reserved seats will be offered for home games of the Brevard high school Blue Devils.

Located on the 50-yard line, the seats will be offered at a reduced price if a book for all home games is bought before the opening of the season.

As soon as the '53 schedule is official this week, the tickets will go on sale at Jones news stand. They will also be handled by Robert T. Kinney, the district principal, Raymond F. Bennett, Slim Bullock and John Anderson.

Brevard College Begins Second Century

With the opening of the 1953-'54 term, Brevard college begins its second century in the field of Christian education. A special student-faculty workshop is slated at Camp Tekoa between Brevard and Hendersonville from August 31 to Sept. 3, when Freshman week begins. Registration will be held on September 7th, and classes begin on the following day. (Times Staff Photo)

Brevard College Opens Second Century, Freshman Week Begins Sept. 3, Workshop Is Planned

Over 200 Students Expected This Fall, Classes To Begin September 8th

Brevard college opens for the 1953-'54 term on September 3rd with the beginning of Freshman week.

According to President Robert H. Stamey, an enrollment of over 200 is expected this fall, and classes will get underway on September 8th.

During Freshman week, the days will be devoted entirely to the new students and will be among the most important of the school year. A variety of activities will fill the students' schedule with work and fun. In addition to a number of tests for placement and counseling, recreational programs will be set up so that students and faculty may play as well as work together. In this way the ground work is established for the friendly atmosphere which pervades the Brevard college campus, Mr. Stamey says.

It is in the spirit of this friendly climate that the Brevard freshman will face his many problems. An assigned counselor will help him to select the course of study he should take, and assist him in work.

—Turn to Page Four

Faculty-Student Event To Be Held At Camp Tekoa. Begins Aug. 31st

Brevard college will begin its second century in the field of Christian education with the opening of the fall semester of the 1953-'54 session. The unique significance of this occasion is marked by the special attention which is being given to the planning of the year's work.

The college will conduct a faculty-student workshop at Camp Tekoa from August 31 to September 3 for the purpose of planning its program of activities, Rev. Robert H. Stamey, president of Brevard college, announces.

Members of the student council and other student body officers will meet with the faculty and administration to discuss problems, policies and programs related to the term's work with the purpose of making the school year one of the most significant in the history of the institution.

The theme of the workshop is "Christianity: Registration, Brevard Campus." It is the purpose of a conference to discuss methods for making Christian principles the directing force back of the academic

—Turn to Page Five

Transylvania's HD Club Women To Hold Achievement Day On Sept. 25

Transylvania county Home Demonstration club women will have their annual Achievement Day on Friday, September 25, in the Masonic temple here, according to plans outlined to county council members by Mrs. Roy McCall, general chairman.

Mrs. McCall announced her committees and gave suggested plans at the council meeting held Friday. Exhibits will be completed at noon with judging set for 1 p. m. A short business meeting will follow. Supper will be served at 6 p. m. and a program and men's style show is being planned for 7 p. m.

Ann Benson Frier, home agent, asked that all women have their club achievement scores into her office by September 15th, along with book reports.

The Achievement Day committees announced by Mrs. McCall are: Christmas: Registration, Brevard club, Mrs. Lynch Moore; Exhibit, Lamb's Creek, Mrs. Joe Norman; supper, Rosman Calvert, Mrs. C. L. McClure, Mrs. Roy Fisher and Mrs. Arthur Whitmore; program, Gladys Branch, Mrs. A. R. Serratt; invitation.

—Turn to Page Five

PRINCIPALS AND TEACHERS MEET SATURDAY MORN

Half Day Of Classes Planned For Monday, Cafeterias Operate Tuesday

REGULATION CITED

Transylvania's schools will open on Monday morning, August 31, at 8:45 o'clock and a normal increase in enrollment is expected.

According to Supt. J. B. Jones, enrollment during the first week should be around 3,750.

At the end of the first month last fall, enrollment was 3,557.

Classes on Monday will last only a half a day, Supt. Jones states, and the various cafeterias will begin operation on Tuesday.

The annual principals' and teachers' meeting will be held Saturday morning at the Brevard high school, beginning at 10 o'clock.

The state department of transportation has advised the local school board that the three additional buses ordered last spring cannot be delivered before the second week of school.

"There may be some inconveniences on the shorter runs for the first week or 10 days in both Brevard and Rosman," Mr. Jones states.

No changes have been made in transportation laws except in cases of crippled children or invalids who are unable to walk more than a half mile, the superintendent explains.

TEACHERS NAMED FOR ALL SCHOOLS

Total Of 117 Are Elected, Slight Increase Over Last Year

Teachers for the Brevard and Transylvania schools have been elected and are announced today by Supt. J. B. Jones.

A total of 117, two more than last year, will serve in the 13 schools of the town and county, and Mr. Jones says all vacancies have been filled.

With Robert T. Kinney as district principal, there are 83 principals and teachers in district one, and 34 in district two — upper Transylvania. E. F. Tilton is principal in the latter.

DISTRICT ONE

R. T. Kinney, District Principal

Brevard high school: Mrs. Dorothy S. Sams, Mrs. Sarah K. Tilton, Mrs. Lucille E. Sledge, Mrs. Margaret M. Kinney, Mrs. J. O. Wells, Miss Martha Boswell, Miss Clara Jean Parrish, Mrs. Eula H. Clarke, Mrs. Rose N. Durrell, Mrs. Sara C. Abercrombie, Mrs. Carolyn L. Winchester, D. C. Dail, Miss Madge L. Hall, Miss Ann Bailey, Marshall Teague, Randal J. Lyday, Mrs. James Fitzpatrick.

Brevard elementary: Forrest B. Cudd, principal, Miss Effie O. Matthews, Mrs. Beatrice M. Hagwell.

—Turn to Page Ten

Rogers Band Will Furnish Music At Friday Night Dance

By popular demand, the string band of Vernon Rogers, of Hendersonville, is returning to Brevard on Friday night and will play for the square dance at the American Legion building.

Legionnaires cordially invite the townspeople and summer visitors to attend the dance, which gets underway at 8:30 o'clock. The Rogers band is much in demand in Western North Carolina and is heard regularly at the Saddle club.

Earl Powell will call the dance Friday night in the absence of Weldon Misenheimer, who leaves Friday for St. Louis, Missouri, where he will attend the national convention of the American Legion. Mr. Misenheimer is first vice commander of the Monroe Wilson post here. Eb Morrow, commander of the 15th division, will also attend. The convention.