Rambling With The Sports Editor

DISAPPOINTED . . . Bob Kimzey, Jr., writes from Carolina that he's terribly disappointed with the Tar Heels this year. We know exactly how Ole Buddy feels: We're in the same boat. Bob goes on to give us a good account of a Brevard boy on the freshman team. He says that Charles Weiss, former Brevard high school star lineman, played a bang-up game against the Duke freshmen on Thanksgiving day. In fact, he said, Weiss has been in most all of the freshman games this fall, and shows excellent promise of developing into a real college player. Don't be surprised if you see his name in Carolina's line-up next fall.

BIG GAME . . . Many Brevard football fans traveled across the Pisgah last Thursday to watch the big Thanksgiving game between Waynesville and Canton. And the favored Mountaineer team came through in the final analysis. At least five Brevard cars didn't make it across the top of the mountain at Wagon Road Gap. Instead, they stopped up there "on top of the world" and listened to the game on the radio. The Waynesville station isn't strong enough to send the signal down into the valley on this side, but the reception up there was good. Among those in the various cars were Dan Merrill, Ralph Duckworth, John B. Kilpatrick, Jack Smathers and others.

GOOD HUNTING . . . Deer and bear hunting in Transylvania this year is good, good that is, for everybody else but us. Next week we plan to carry a layout with several pics of lucky local hunters and their kills. Baseball stars, Gil Coan and "Hoss" Stamey shot nice bucks during the past week, and Bill Erwin has the record to date on the largest deer killed. His weighed 248 pounds, believe it or not. Pete Bikas got his buck on opening day, as did four Rosman fellows — Earl O'Shields, Ed Owen, Norris Berkshire and P. E. Stroup.

THE WINNERS . . . Robert Sorrells was top man in our football contest last week end. He picked eight winners out of the 11 games listed, and his score of the Duke-Carolina game was 21-7. In second place was Jewell Henderson, of Pickens, S. C., who had eight winners and a score prediction of 14-7. She receives two tickets to the Clemson or Co-Ed with the compliments of Managers Carter and Shiftlet, while Sorrells gets three. The following get honorable mention for having seven winners: Leon McCall, Mrs. Leon McCall, Harold and Carroll Holden, Bonnee Henderson and Eugene Knig, Jr.

SEE YOU, NEW YEAR'S . . . Our football contests are being temporarily suspended since there are no more big games to speak of until New Year's. So we'll be seeing you come the last week end in the month when we will offer tickets galore for picking the winners of the bowl games.

"Did your friends admire it?" he asked, tenderly.

"They did more than that," she said. "Two of them recognized it."

Father: "I can see right through that girl's intrigue."

Son: "I know, Pop, but they all dress that way nowadays."

JONES WINNER OF THIRD FLIGHT IN GOLF TOURNEY

Huffman And Anderson To Complete President's Round This Week End

J. P. Jones has won the secretary's flight of the first annual Brevard country club golf tournament.

Over the past week end he defeated Jack Fenwicke, four and five, in the 36-hole final round.

Last week end Roy Orr won the championship flight by defeating Pete Wright, and Bill Huffman appears to be a sure winner of the president's flight, having John Anderson down at the end of 27 holes. The final nine will be played off this week end.

Chairman George Perkins, Jr., says handsome trophies will be awarded in all three flights at a golfers' banquet later in December. The medalist, Budgie Fraser, will also receive a trophy.
