Charles Tyler, of Bob Jones university, Greenville, S. C., requests The Times to publish the following notice:

An enjoyable Saturday evening awaits every young person of Brevard at the Young Peoples' Fellowship club, which meets at Wilma Zachary's on Highland road at 8 p. m. There are laughs galore in store at the jesting of two talented young humorists in the entertainment portion of the program. For unusual arrangements in musical ministry, you'll hear the youth instrumentalists, Stan and Norm Henderson, from Alaska. The topic of challenge will be "Straight from the Shoulder Punching from the Bible to Youth."

Recent legislation allows United States cotton farmers to plant 21,379,358 acres of upland cotton in 1954, an increase of 3,468,910 acres over that authorized earlier.
