Original Three-Act Comedy To Be Given At Community Club Meet Thurs. Night

Program To Be Preceded By Chicken Supper. Church News Is Reported

By MRS. JOHN T. NEAL
LITTLE RIVER — "You Didn't Ask Me," is the name of the play to be presented at the Little River Community club meeting Thursday night, March 11th at 8:00. The play is an original comedy in three acts written and directed by Mrs. Glanny Shipman.

Preceding the play will be a chicken supper, served from 6 to 8, after which will be a short business meeting. Mr. Yates from the Farm Bureau, will be on hand to present the new insurance for farmers. Otis Merrill, club president, is anxious for all families in the valley to be present at the meeting whether they come to eat chicken or not. The money made from the supper will be used to build a new community club building and recreational center.

Prayer For Home Missions

Young people observed the season of prayer for home missions during the Wednesday evening prayer service at the Little River Baptist church last week. Auxiliaries of the WMS which also observed a week of prayer for home missions, namely, the Sunbeams, under the leadership of Miss Jean Pickelsimer, the Royal Ambassadors, under the leadership of Lewis McGee and Juddy McCrary. The girls auxiliaries, junior and intermediate, sponsored by Mrs. Overton Mull and Mrs. Neal. Miss Martha George presented the GA program. Mrs. Alvin McCrary, sponsor of the YWA, presented her group in the climax to the program. Special music was rendered by Barbara McCall and Sandra George from the Sunbeams and Linda Mull from the Junior GA's.

WMS Went Visiting

Thursday night of last week the WMS of the Little River Baptist church visited the ladies of the Turkey Creek Baptist church and presented a program, typical of the work done in the woman's missionary society. The program was under the leadership of Mrs. Glanny Shipman and special music was furnished by the Little River ladies' quartet. After the program, and with the encouragement of their pastor, Rev. Earl Blythe, the ladies of the Turkey Creek Baptist church organized a WMS with Mrs. Ed Sentelle as president. Mrs. Martin Shipman, superintendent of the Transylvania WMS association, was present and helped in the organization of the new society.

Youth Forum

The young people of the Little River community met Saturday night in the home of the pastor for their first panel discussion. Jean Pickelsimer, Elaine Frady, Arlene Mull and Jack Frady were speakers on the panel. The attitude of parents and children towards each other in case of a misunderstanding was the topic of discussion. Arlene Mull was elected song leader and the next meeting will be held with Jo Ann Shipman at which time "Marriage Problems" will be the subject. Participants on this panel will be Joan McGee, Margaret George, Malcolm Whitener and James Earl Frady. The pastor of the Little River Baptist church will be moderator.
