

Dunn's Rock News

Improvement Work Being Completed On Grounds Of Community Center

Beaver 4-H Club Held Successful Meeting Last Friday Night

By MRS. J. E. CISON
Dunn's Rock community is proud of the ground improvement that has been done on the community center lawn and ball field.

The refreshment and entertainment committees are making plans for a supper in the near future and details on this will be announced later.

The next meeting will be held at the center Friday, March 12, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Leaders Praised
The regular meeting of the Beaver 4-H club was held Friday night at the Dunn's Rock community center.

Personal Items
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cison and sons, Auburn and Allen, and Miss Jean Cison were visitors of Mrs. H. V. Cison, Sunday at the Black Mountain sanitarium, Black Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Whitmire, of Lyman, S. C., were guests Sunday of Mrs. J. E. Gravely.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Holden, of S. C., spent the week end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Holden and daughter, Ruth.

Bill Hogsd left Thursday to assume work with a trucking firm in Florida.

Kadez Wilde, of Greenville junior college, Greenville, S. C., was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hogsd Thursday.

Would like to welcome some new neighbors to our community: Mr. and Mrs. Murray at the Hunt cottage; Mr. and Mrs. McCoy at the former James Brown home; and some new neighbors at the Marvin Gaddy house.

WMS To Meet
The women's missionary society will hold their next meeting at the home of Mrs. H. B. Glazener, March 18th.

Progress can be noted all over the community. There is drag line work going on adjoining the Michael Holden property, changing a creek.

Jay Cison is adding a new porch to his home, and Fate Raxter is re-setting fence.

Mrs. Mary McCall Buried Wednesday

Mrs. Mary McCall, 77, died early Monday morning at her home in Balsam Grove.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning, March 10th, at 11 a. m., at the Shoal Creek Baptist church at Gloucester.

Mrs. McCall is survived by two sons, Volney, of Balsam Grove and Rickman, of Brevard; and seven daughters: Mrs. Calvin Owen, Miss Alice McCall, Mrs. Obid Owen, of Balsam Grove; Mrs. Robert Ayers, Mrs. Lawrence Parker, both of West Asheville; Mrs. L. R. Chastain, Balsam Grove; Mrs. Walter Hamlin, of Brevard.

Osborne - Simpson funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

Statistics show that clergymen live longer than anyone else—evidently they are the best risks here and hereafter.

Clemson THEATRE

Saturday & Sunday

Robert TAYLOR Ava GARDNER Howard KEEL in M-G-M's 'RIDE YAQUERO!' (THE BEAUTY AND THE OUTLAW)

CO-ED THEATRE

Thurs. & Friday

RANDOLPH SCOTT THE STRANGER WORE A GUN

Saturday

THE ULTIMATE SUSPENSE THE GLASS WEB

Sunday & Monday

M-m-m... that MITCHUM! A-h-h... that SIMMONS! O-h-h... the things they do!

She couldn't say NO!

Tuesday & Wed.

THOSE REDHEADS FROM SEATTLE

PROCLAMATION

SAVE YOUR VISION WEEK—MARCH 7-13, 1954
WHEREAS, Vision is the most precious of our senses; and WHEREAS, neglect of vision may handicap the growth and development of our children; hamper the safety, comfort and efficiency of all who work; add to the already frightful toll of highway accidents; and rob the aged of their richest blessings;

Signed: JOHN A. FORD Mayor, Brevard, N. C.

REA Planning Series Of Meets In Upper Transylvania County

Many Goings And Comings In Oakland Community Reported This Week

By MRS. I. S. SANDERS
OAKLAND — The Haywood Electric Co-Op, of REA, is planning a series of spring meetings for members in the county, according to Dan Reid, of Oakland.

They were to be held in the various schools the latter part of this month. Notices as to the exact dates will be announced through the various school principals.

Met On Sunday
The Sunday school convention for District No. 5 was held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Lake Toxaway Baptist church.

A news item which may be of special interest to Oakland readers concerns Ben Hooper, ex-governor of Tennessee, from 1910 to 1914 and a lawyer from Newport, Tenn.

Personal Items
Mr. and Mrs. Walter McNeely and son, Louis, and Mrs. Beulah McNeely, visited in Greenville over the week end.

Miss Myrtle Cash, Mrs. May Clore and daughter, Miss Corah Pearl, visited their grandmother, Mrs. George Alexander, in Brevard, last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hinkle have been confined to their home the past week with flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clore and children, of Ellijay, Ga., were week end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Cash.

Miss Myrtle Cash and sister, Mrs. May Clore, and daughter, Miss Cora Pearl, visited Mrs. M. E. Nicholson Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Taylor and son, Rex, of West Asheville, visited Mrs. Taylor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Sanders Saturday.

Ray Sanders, who works in Kingsport, Tenn., reports 12 inches of snow up there last week.

Glady Branch GA's Hold Regular Meet
The GA's of the Glady Branch Baptist church had as their theme of the last meeting, "What Would Jesus Do," and the program was under the leadership of the counselor, Mrs. Roy Waldrop.

A good number attended the meeting, which was held at the home of Mrs. Waldrop, and delightful refreshments were served.

Tar Heel Drivers Have Itchy Feet
Tar Heel motorists had wanderlust in a big way last year, according to figures compiled by Major C. A. Speed, director of the Motor Vehicles Department's Highway Safety Division.

Tar Heel motorists had wanderlust in a big way last year, according to figures compiled by Major C. A. Speed, director of the Motor Vehicles Department's Highway Safety Division.

Balsam Grove Community Club Meets Thursday

By MRS. JASON McCALL
BALSAM GROVE — The newly organized Balsam Grove Community club will hold its regular meeting on Thursday night, March 11th, at 7:30 o'clock at the school.

Miss Joyce McCall returned home Friday night after a week's visit with relatives in Gastonia.

Doris, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ingomar McCall, has been very ill with chicken pox.

Mrs. Van McCall and sons, of Charlotte, attended the Shoal Creek church Sunday and visited relatives in the community.

Guests of Mrs. Dillard Owen for the past week were her daughter, Dora and son-in-law, of Maryland.

Mrs. Georgia Rackard, of Winston-Salem, was a visitor here last Sunday.

A very interesting sermon was delivered Sunday night on "The Need of Prayer" by the pastor, Rev. Ernest McCall.

Mrs. Ernest Allen, of Pisgah Forest, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Spurgeon McCall.

Mrs. Freeman Owen was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown on Sunday.

Funeral Services Held Monday For Mrs. Joe Sitton

Funeral services for Mrs. Joe Sitton, 86, who died Saturday at her home in the Horse Shoe section, were held Monday afternoon in the Boylston Baptist church.

Mrs. Sitton died last Saturday after an illness of 11 years. Officiating at the service on Monday were Rev. L. B. Vaughn, Rev. G. A. Hamby and Rev. Joe Mason.

Survivors are as follows: one daughter, Mrs. Leo Moody, Horse Shoe; two sons, Ed Sitton, Penrose and Arthur Sitton, Morganton; and one brother, Lonzo Case, Arden.

Mrs. Sitton was a member of the Boylston Baptist church.

Osborne - Simpson funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

NOT SAME McCALL
The Times has been requested to announce that the Ray McCall involved in a number of alleged robberies recently is not Ray V. McCall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jason McCall, of Lake Toxaway.

Selica News Is Reported

By MRS. WARD BREEDLOVE
SELICA — Mrs. Hubert Clayton has returned to her home here from Winston-Salem, where she underwent an operation and treatment at the Baptist hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barton, of Seattle, Wash., announce the birth of twin girls. The Bartons are former residents of Selica.

Among local persons returning home from Florida are Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Eubanks, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Galloway and families.

Persons on the sick list are Jules Lance, Alvin Fowler and Ransom Stamey.

Bill Wilson, of Greenville, S. C., is staying with his brother, Guy Bryson, and family here and attending school at Rosman.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobert Hobson, of Swannanoa, visited Rev. and Mrs. Hubert Clayton Sunday.

Mrs. Tom McKinney spent one day recently with relatives in Marietta, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles Moore and daughter and Mrs. Walter Blythe made a recent trip to Frostproof, Florida.

Michael Broom was reported improved last week from an illness which nearly resulted in pneumonia.

Mrs. Ossie Stamey is now in Transylvania Community hospital.

Business airplanes in operation in the U. S. in 1953 numbered about 10,000 — almost ten times as many as the 1,056 domestic scheduled airline planes in operation, reports O. K. Armstrong in the March Reader's Digest.

Upper County News Whitewater Farmers Now Busy

By MRS. PEARL BREWER
WHITEWATER — Farmers here are busy getting their land prepared for gardens and other early crops.

Mrs. Bessie Cash was a week end visitor of her mother, Aunt Alice Hinkle, at her home at Salem, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Phillips and daughter, Shellia Kay, are visiting relatives at Marietta, S. C., this week.

len were Mrs. W. M. Silvers, Mrs. Garland Grimshaw and Mrs. J. A. Brewer.

Mrs. Doyle Rice and son, Wayne, of Cashiers, visited her mother, Mrs. J. A. Brewer and family last week.

Ella Mae Rice spent a few days recently with her sister, Mrs. Nell Lyday and family.

Gus Allen made a business trip to Salem Friday.

The boll weevil destroyed $25 million worth of North Carolina cotton in 1953.

THIS SIZE AD

IN The TIMES CAN PLACE YOUR MESSAGE BEFORE MORE THAN 2,800 FAMILIES AT A COST OF $9.00*

Postcards sent to 2,800 families would mean an expenditure of $56.00 for the postal cards alone. On top of this would be the cost of printing and addressing.

THE TIMES

*This price is based on the retail rate schedule.

Enjoy Television More! GET NEW 1954 SYLVANIA TV

IT HAS BUILT-IN ONE-KNOB ALL-CHANNEL TUNING! All 82 channels can be tuned in without further adjustment.

- Pleasure Features Galore!
• More tubes for better performance!
• Higher picture tube voltage!
• Studio-Clear Sound!
• Television's most striking cabinet styles!

NEW PHOTOPOWER PERFORMANCE FOR THE BEST PICTURE IN ANY AREA!
Wherever you live, you can be sure of the brightest, clearest picture in your neighborhood with new Sylvania TV! All models have the amazing HALO-LIGHT Chassis.

TOP TRADE-IN ALLOWANCES TRADE IN YOUR OLD SET NOW ON NEW 1954 SYLVANIA TV. IT HAS EVERYTHING! BRYANT ELECTRIC CO.

Phone 3-3031 341 King St.

YOUR EYES WILL THANK YOU FOR HALOLIGHT
Yes, the Frame of Light that's Kinder to Your Eyes is winning more friends every day. When you see HALOLIGHT, you, too, will want it!