Dr. Stevens To Talk On Needs Of Schools

A talk by Dr. B. A. Stevens, Transylvania county school supervisor, will be presented Thursday evening, April 15, at 8:00 o'clock in the court house here.

Dr. Stevens will speak on conditions and problems confronting the county schools, and the need for improved facilities in the curriculum.

A panel discussion will follow the talk and appearing on the panel with Dr. Stevens will be Mrs. R. E. Matthews and F. S. Best, members of the board of education.

The public is invited to attend and to participate in the discussion. P-TA members are especially urged to attend.

Prior to the talk, there will be a dinner and short business meeting for members of the Young Republican club and their guests in the Coffee Shop at 7 o'clock.

TEACHERS GROUPS

by the pastor, the Rev. James Morton.

Special music will be furnished at the services by the Shelton Trio, Mrs. Mabel Shipman, Church of God Trio, and Thelma Shelton, with Mrs. Marcus Shelton as pianist.

The services, which are held each night at 7:30 p. m., will continue for two weeks.

"Working" At Zion
Another in a series of "workings" will be held at Zion Baptist church Saturday, beginning at 8 a. m.

Church officials hope to get up the rest of the sheet rock in the upstairs of the church. Ladies of the church will serve dinner at noon.

Council To Meet
Members of the Agricultural Workers Council of Transylvania county will meet Wednesday afternoon, April 14 at 3:30 p. m. in the home economics department of Rosman high school.

Miss Louise Swann of Asheville, district home economics supervisor, will speak on the "N. C. Challenge Program of Agriculture as It Concerns Homemaking and Family Life."

Miss York Kiker of the Marketing department of the N. C. Dept. of Agriculture, will discuss "Nutrition." Julian A. Glazener, Transylvania county farm agent, president of the council, will preside.

A coffee hour, with Rosman high school home economics girls serving, will be held prior to the meeting.

Tri-County Rally Set Tuesday, FHA
