COUNTY NOW HAS 123 TEACHERS IN THE 13 SCHOOLS

Brevard Elementary Has Largest Staff. Slight Increase Seen

Faculty members of the 13 schools in Transylvania for the school year 1953-54 include 123 teachers and principals.

This is an increase of six over last year's total, and while it is doubtful that new teachers will be named now, additional ones can be secured during the first two weeks of school this fall if attendance warrants it, Supt. J. B. Jones, states.

There are 26 teachers in the two high schools of Transylvania and 94 in the elementary schools.

The largest teaching staff is at Brevard elementary, where there are 34 teachers, including a full-time music teacher, Mrs. Eva Gillespie. Rosman also has a full time music teacher, Mrs. Maye Winget and Mrs. Ruth E. Hunter teaches music at Straus, Pisgah Forest and Penrose schools. John D. Eversman and Charles B. Glass teach band at Brevard high school.

As of January 8, 1954, the Commodity Credit Corporation had outstanding loans on 5,739,512 bales of 1953-crop cotton.
