Rosman Home Ec Girls Present Dress Revue This Thursday At 12:30, P-TA Held Open House

Seniors Hear Talk By Wayne Blanton. Wedding Vows Are Announced

"Open House" and an installation service for the newly elected officers of the Rosman Parent-Teacher association were the principal features of the meeting of the P-TA Tuesday night at the school.

Approximately 100 people attended "Open House" in both the elementary and high school with the teachers discussing the work of their various classes. Exhibits of the students' work were shown in each room.

Mrs. Roy Fisher was installed for a second term as president. Other officers are Mrs. Ralph Waldrop, vice president; Mrs. Geneva Farrior, secretary; and Mrs. Harry Morgan, treasurer. Mrs. Thelma Patterson of the Rosman elementary school conducted the installation ceremony.

Devotions were conducted by the Rev. R. E. Moody, sixth grade teacher in the Rosman school.

Mrs. Fisher, president, presided during the business session. Miss Mary Ward presented the secretary's report and Mrs. Harry Morgan gave the treasurer's report.

In the grade count of parents present, Mrs. Thelma Patterson's first grade won the attendance award.

Career Work

Wayne Blanton, business manager of Blanton's business college, Asheville, spoke on "Secretarial Work as a Career" at the chapel exercises of Rosman high school Thursday afternoon.

Pointing out that there are over two thousand occupations or professions which a person could go into, he stated that one out of every eight people entered into some type of business.

He stressed the importance of students using their time wisely in high school and continuing their education after graduation.

"Properly trained personnel can always get a position," he declared. The four principal subjects a student should take in preparing for a secretarial career are shorthand, typewriting, bookkeeping or accounting, and the use of office machines.

For young men who are planning a career in the business field, he discussed accounting and traffic management.

He concluded his talk by pointing out that a person must study in order to acquire technical knowledge, but he must also develop his personality in order to get along in business.

This was one of a series of programs on various careers which have been discussed by outside speakers during the past several

Mrs. Georgia Rykard Passes. Baptismal Service Set For Sunday

Seventy-seven ninth and tenth grade home economics students will present a dress revue on Thursday, May 20, at 12:30 p. m. at the Rosman high school chapel exercises.

The girls will model garments that have been made in the spring unit of clothing.

Church, school and afternoon dresses, play clothes, skirts, blouses, children's clothes and remodeled garments will be featured.

Pete Owen will be in charge of the music.

The dress revue is under the direction of Mrs. Ann Clapp, home economics instructor and by Margaret Orr, president of the F.H.A.

Baptismal Services

Baptismal services will be conducted at the Forks of the River near Rosman Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. by the Rev. Jesse Meece, pastor of the Middle Fork Baptist church.

Twelve persons will be baptized. The public is invited to attend the services.

Native Of Section

Funeral services for Mrs. Georgia Rykard, 56, of Winston-Salem, who died on May 12th at the home of a half-sister, Mrs. Ernest Boley in Rosman, were conducted last Thursday in Winston-Salem.

She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McCall, of the Gloucester section, but she had resided in Winston-Salem for the past 25 years.

Mrs. Rykard was a member of the Macedonia Baptist church.

Surviving are the husband, Zeb Rykard, of Middlesburg, Ky.; three daughters, one sister, Mrs. Lem Jones, of Travelers Rest, S. C.; two half sisters, Mrs. Bessie Ashe, of Brevard, and Mrs. Boley, of Rosman; three half-brothers, Ernest McCall, of Rosman, Ingomar McCall, of Balsam Grove, and Clarence McCall, of Lake Toxaway, Route 1; and eight grandchildren.

Reeves funeral home was in charge of the arrangements.

Ingomar McCall, Mrs. Sadie Bentley, Mrs. Bessie Ashe, Mrs. Ernest Boley and Mrs. Loonie McCall attended the funeral services in Winston-Salem.

weeks.

Mrs. Warren's eighth grade girls were in charge of the program.

Crowe-Passmore

Rosman Seniors Hold Annual Picnic, Students Named To Attend Boys' And Girls' State

Sixth Annual Edition Of "The Oriole" Is Published Last Week

The Rosman high school senior class enjoyed a picnic supper Wednesday night at White Pines camp in the Pisgah National Forest.

Pat Bruner, Shirley Galloway and Edith Galloway were in charge of the arrangements.

High school faculty members and their husbands or wives, and Principal and Mrs. E. F. Tilson were invited guests.

Approximately 40 people were present for the occasion.

Fine Issue

The sixth annual edition of "The Oriole," annual publication of the senior class at Rosman high school, was distributed Friday.

The dedication is made this year to Mrs. J. M. Winget, public school music teacher in the Rosman school.

The padded covers are in the school colors, orange and black, with the oriole on the front cover.

The senior history, will and prophecy are included. Other features are: class pictures, senior superlatives, junior superlatives, club activities, sports, snapshots and senior mascots.

Bill Pangle Elected To Head Student Council. Other Officers Named

Two Rosman high school students have been selected to attend Girls' State and Boys' State in June.

Both students, who were selected by the faculty, are members of the junior class.

Frances Pope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Pope, of the Cherryfield section, will attend Girls' State at WCUNC, Greensboro, during the week of June 6. She will represent the American Legion auxiliary of Brevard.

Johnny Whitmire, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Whitmire, of the Quebec section, will attend Boys' State during the week of June 13 at Chapel Hill. He will represent the Monroe Wilson post No. 88, American Legion, of Brevard.

Election Held

Bill Pangle has been elected president of the Rosman high school student council. Other newly elected officers include: Nancy Whitmire, vice president; Louetta Hooper, secretary; Johnnie Whitmire, chief justice of the student court; and Roy Galloway, chairman of the traffic committee. Other council members elected were: Alice Moses, Raymond Galloway, Evelyn Lee, Lawrence Chapman and Marie Orr.

Mrs. Cornena Lawrence is faculty sponsor of the student council. Clara Bert Callahan, advertising managers. Miss Edna Wiggins was faculty advisor.
