Talent Show Is Huge Success, Youth Group Enjoys Outing

Women Have Surprise Luncheon. Memorial Services Are Planned

By MRS. JOHN T. NEAL

LITTLE RIVER — The talent show presented at the Little River Community club house Saturday night proved to be one of the best programs of its kind to be held in the club house. In spite of the weather the picnic was a real treat after which the regular business meeting was presided over by the president, Otis Merrill. The highlight of the business meeting was reached as the club voted to remodel and paint the club house.

After a report of the various committees the talent show began. Young and old entered into the singing and many forms of entertainments. There were readings, choir numbers, quartets, duets, solos, double quartets, a family skit, group singing, and a black face comedy in one act, "Across the Backyard Fence." After the talent show, colored slides were shown by Mr. Glazener of scenes of the development going on in Little River.

Conduct Prayer Service
As a special feature during their Focus week the GA's gave a program on Prayer and Faith at the mid-week prayer service. The program was written and presented by Nancy Pickelsimer, who is program chairman of the auxiliary. Those taking part on the program were: Jo Ann Shipman, Sybil Miller, Martha George, Jean Pickelsimer, Elaine Frady, and Lois Sitton.

Also at the associational GA rally held Friday night at Gladly Branch, the Janet Wilson GA's helped present a skit of camp life at Fruit land. Those taking part from Little River were Arlene Mull, presiding as president, Elaine Frady, Jo Ann Shipman, Nancy Pickelsimer, Mrs. Glanna Shipman and Mrs. Overton Mull. The rally was planned by Miss Wilhelmina Simmons, young people's director for the association. It was very inspirational and well attended. Delicious refreshments were served by the Gladly Branch church.

Youth Go Picnicking
The Youth Forum of Little River selected White Pine camp ground in the Pisgah National Forest to have a surprise picnic for Tommy Merrill and Margaret George last Tuesday night. The picnic was planned by Jo Ann Shipman, the president, and enjoyed by 21 young people, including the pastor and his wife.

The Youth Forum will meet Saturday night at the home of Margaret George at 8:00.
Surprise Birthday Dinner
Those women again — this time Mrs. Glanna Shipman was the victim or the honored guest. The Mission Quartet was rehearsing at the home of Mrs. Elmer Kilstrom and Mrs. Shipman happens to be a member of this musical group. At 1:00 o'clock the invasion began with half the women population of Little River walking into the Kilstrom home with covered dishes. Mrs. Shipman was surprised because her birthday wasn't until Wednesday, the next day.

Memorial Service
The Little River Baptist church will observe May 30th as Memorial day. Special services are being planned and all men and women who have served at any time in the armed forces are invited to attend. All families, relatives or friends who have folks buried in the cemetery at Little River are invited to attend. If you have a son or daughter serving in the armed forces be present to stand for him as the Roll of Honor is called.

Red Cross Nursing School
The Red Cross school for home nursing started last week with 10 ladies enrolled. The class is being taught by Mrs. Baxter Morris and is one of the most interesting and informative experiences we have had at Little River.

Choir Rehearsals
The adult choir under the leadership of Mrs. Elmer Kilstrom will meet for rehearsal Thursday night at 7:30 in the Little River Baptist church. The youth choir will meet at the parsonage Saturday night at 7 o'clock, one hour before the forum meeting, for rehearsal. All choir members are urged to attend these meetings.

Party For The Twins
A birthday party honoring the eighth birthday of Julie and Jane Shuford was enjoyed by 30 children and nine mammas last Thursday at the Shuford home. Julie and Jane are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Merrimon Shuford of Little River.

Games were played with the help of Louise Orr and Peggy Sitton, of Pisgah Forest, and a good time was enjoyed by all. Many gifts were brought and the party ended with the serving of delicious refreshments.

Personal Items
