ORCHESTRA AND

The young concertmaster of the New Orleans Symphony was recalled to the stage for three curtain calls after his Brevard debut performance. The orchestra received enthusiastic response to Beethoven's "Overture to Prometheus" and Symphony No. 4.

Soprano Agnes Davis, tenor Walter Carringer, and baritone Andrew White shared the limelight with the Brevard Festival Chorus, trained by Donald Plott, in a performance of Haydn's oratorio, "The Seasons," before a capacity crowd Sunday afternoon.

The concert, conducted by James Christian Pfohl, was the third of the 10th anniversary festival.

Farm Workers Attend Club Meeting, Homecoming Is Declared Big Success

By MRS. JOHN T. NEAL

LITTLE RIVER — The Little River Community club met Thursday night, Aug. 11th, at the community center with Otis Merrill presiding. After a bountiful covered dish supper, a period of business was held by the club. An informal program followed the business, at which time recognition was given to the visitors and new field workers in Transylvania county.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Glazener were present and Mr. Glazener introduced H. E. Newland, soil conservationist; Professors Horace Rawls and Max Miller who are doing research on part-time farming in Transylvania for State college, and also making a study of community participation in organized communities; G. H. Farley and Mrs. Neal McGlamery, assistant field workers, were also present and the wives of Mr. Rawls and Newland.

The club listened with interest to the talks by these men who are in so many ways helping and encouraging the farmers and part-time farmers of our community and county.

Hold Homecoming, Hinkle Reunion At Whitewater Sunday

The annual homecoming and the Hinkle reunion will be held this coming Sunday at the Whitewater Baptist church.

Special singing will be by the Littleton quartet, of Salem, S. C., and the sermon will be preached by a visiting minister, the secretary, Mrs. Bessie Cash states.

Invitation is being extended to the general public to attend, especially all members, former pastors and singers.

The occasion is also being held in honor of Mrs. Alice Hinkle on her 85th birthday.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere and lasting gratitude to the host of people who during the long illness and at the death of our loved one showed their sympathy in any way. Especially do we appreciate the words of condolence, the prayers, the lovely floral tributes and the words of sympathy, which did so much to comfort and sustain us during our bereavement, the passing of Mrs. Edith Harrison.
