LITTLE RIVER — Colored slides of our recent trip through the west will be shown at the next meeting of the Little River Community club Thursday night, September 1st at the community center. You are invited to take this trip with us and be a guest of the community club at this time. There will be special music, a period of business and refreshments.

Missionary To Teach
Miss Dorothy Edwards, a missionary and field worker in Western North Carolina and a native of the Little River community, will teach a study course to the mission circle that has been named for her at the Edwards home, Thursday afternoon, Sept. 1st. All members of the WMS of the Little River Baptist church are invited to attend this study. The book "World Within a World" by Elwyn Lee Means will be taught.

Have Study Course
Mrs. Overton Mull will teach the book "Mission Doctor" by J. T. McRae at a study course to be held Friday afternoon, August 26th, at the community center. Beginning at 4 o'clock the study will have a break at 6 o'clock by a picnic lunch served by the Lou Osborne circle. This study course will be primarily for the intermediate GAs and RAs of the Little River church.

tist church. The first meeting of its kind ever to be held in the Transylvania association proved to be very successful with more than 65 present.

Mrs. Fannie McKennie, of the Pisgah Forest church, is Sunbeam leader for the association under the sponsorship of the WMU. Mrs. McKennie is bringing honor to her church and Lord with her fine work both in this field and Bible school work throughout the county.

HD Club Picnic
The Little River Home Demonstration club will have its annual picnic Friday night at 7 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Breneman at Holmes Nursery. All members of the club are invited to bring their families and a picnic lunch and attend this picnic.

4-H Club Tour
Among those attending the Biltmore House tour last week were four from the 4-H club of Little River. Mrs. Fred Hamilton, leader, Joann Shipman, Ada Shipman and Edward Frady, were the ones to attend, and truly enjoyed the beauty of the Biltmore Estate.

Farm Tour
Tuesday, August 16th, was the day Little River community was visited by folks from other communities in the county on a farm tour. Many farms through the valley were inspected and admired by these neighbors and friends. A luncheon was served and enjoyed at the community center. We are always glad to have visitors in our valley. The tour was under the direction of Mr. Julian Glazener and members of the county agent's office.

Personal Items
Recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Merrill were sisters and brother of Mrs. Merrill: Mrs. Julie Patterson and Mrs. Ida Breedlove of Pendleton, Ore.; Mrs. Fannie McCoy, of Asheville, and Rev. John Hall of Belleville, Mich.

There were 23 little people at the Sunbeam party so thoroughly enjoyed at the home of Miss Joan McGee last Thursday afternoon. This was part of Focus Week for the Sunbeams.

Anders Serves In 7th Army In Korean Station

Specialist Second Class Richard J. Anders, whose wife lives at 1221 El Prodo, Torrance, Calif., is a member of the 7th Infantry division in Korea.

Continuing its training, the "Bayonet" division is the only U. S. Army division that has remained in Korea since the cease-fire.

Specialist Anders, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Anders, Route 2, Brevard, is a squad leader in company A of the division's 32nd regiment.

A veteran of eight years of army service, Anders arrived in Korea in April of this year.

NATIONAL FOREST TIMBER SALE OPERATION

Last year, cash receipts to the U. S. Treasury from sales of national forest timber exceeded $65,000,000. This is quite an increase when compared with the $85,000 collected from the sale of timber in 1905, the year the Forest Service was organized in the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Twenty-five percent of all money taken in by the Forest Service—not only for timber but for any use—goes back to the States in which the national forests are located. That money is turned over to the counties for public schools and public roads.

The national forests, which contain 76 million acres of land classed as commercial forest, are the largest single supplier of raw material for the Nation's forest products industries. Last year the Forest Service made 24,000 separate timber sales to individuals and companies for a total cut of 5.3 billion board feet, about 10 percent of all the timber used in the United States.

National forest timber lands are managed so as to produce perpetual crops of wood. Timber is marked or designated for cutting to encourage reproduction, maintain and improve the growing stock and still safeguard watershed and recreational values.

As the Forest Service marks its Golden Anniversary, it pays tribute to the many states, individuals and companies who also are managing their timber lands to produce perpetual supplies of wood for generations to come.
