SOCIETY DEADLINE, NOON TUESDAY

BREVARD HIGH SCHOOL'S comely cheerleaders, who will be on hand for all of the Blue Devil's football games this season are pictured above. Reading clockwise from the top, they are Donna Bryson, Carol Ann Bolick, Pat Galloway, Kathryn Sweat, Dot Osteen, Shirley Ellis, Betty Jean Hensley and Carolyn Osborne. Inserted in the center is the chief cheerleader, Becky Compton. The girls were elected cheerleaders last spring before the end of school and have been practicing their cheers during vacation. Fans will get their first chance to see them in action here Friday night, September 2.

Elizabeth A. Holden, Calvin Tinsley Are Married

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Holden, of Pisgah Forest, announce the marriage of his daughter, Elizabeth Ann Holden, to Calvin Tinsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Tinsley, of Route 2, Brevard.

The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents on Saturday afternoon, August 13, at 4 p. m. The Rev. Harvey Souther officiated.

The bride wore a navy blue suit with white accessories.

Afterward an informal reception was held for the families and guests present.

The home was decorated with yellow and white gladioli, carrying out the yellow and green color scheme. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered decorated wedding cake. The cake was served by Mrs. Holden with Mrs. Walter Ledbetter serving punch.

Special guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hooper, of Asheville. Mrs. Hooper is the mother of the bride.

Miss Thompson Is Bride Of Pfc. Galloway

Miss Helen Thompson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Chester Thompson, of Cincinnati, Ohio, became the bride of Pfc. William F. Galloway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Galloway, of Eldred, Pa.

The double ring ceremony was performed on July 9th at 6 p. m., in the First Church of the Nazarene in New Port, Ky., by the Rev. Sparks. The bride's parents entertained afterward at a reception.

Following the wedding trip the bridegroom returned to his army post at Fort Lewis, Wash.

Pfc. Galloway is the grandson of L. E. Powell, Sr., of Brevard. He was a student at Brevard high school and also Western Carolina college at Cullowhee.

Carolina. A reception follows in the Cloister Garden of the church.

The Johnsons formerly lived in Brevard on Main street and the bride-elect is a graduate of Brevard high school. She has been attending the University of North Carolina.

Don Jenkins Discusses Roses At Club Meeting

Don Jenkins, who specializes in the growing of beautiful roses as a hobby, was guest speaker at the August meeting of the Brevard Garden club. The meeting was held at the country home of Mrs. W. M. Melton with Mrs. W. C. Bangs as co-hostess on Friday afternoon.

Mr. Jenkins' subject was "Rose Culture." He was heard with great interest by the members as he told of the different species of roses and how to select and buy the best plants. He then told step by step how to grow roses successfully, discussing the preparation of beds, how to plant, to food, and to prune.

Mr. Jenkins said the beds should be mulched for winter protection. He also told of effective sprays to be used for protection against diseases.

The speaker stated that roses are universal plants, possibly millions of years old, and are the most satisfactory plants to be grown with continuous bloom. A large number of roses from Mr. Jenkins' garden were on display. He urged all garden club members to try to grow roses as a very satisfactory and rewarding hobby.

Mrs. Hugh Sigmon, president, presided and conducted routine business. Mrs. J. J. Stevenson won first award for an arrangement. Mrs. L. P. Hamlin, Mrs. Lester Martin and Mrs. W. P. Tindall won specimen awards.

Executive Board Of WMU Meets On Saturday

The executive committee of the Transylvania Baptist Women's Missionary Union will hold a meeting in the parlor of the First Baptist church Saturday afternoon, August 27th, at 3 p. m. Mrs. Kenneth McDarris, president, will preside.

All officers and committee chairmen are asked to be present for this important meeting.

Mrs. Bidy Has Circle Meet

Circle No. 2 of the First Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. O. D. Bidy last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. J. B. Jones conducted a routine business session.

Mrs. W. P. Tindall presented a program from the mission study book called "The Larger Steward ship."

A social period was enjoyed at which time the hostess served punch and cookies.
