

Music Camp And Festival Soloists For Entire 10-Week Season Are Announced

NEW FARM AGENT ASSUMES DUTIES IN TRANSYLVANIA

Davis Says He Is Looking Forward To Work Here. Glazener In Raleigh

Transylvania county's new farm agent, James E. Davis, started work Tuesday morning.

"I am happy to be in this fine county and I know I am going to enjoy working with the farmers and other citizens of Transylvania," Mr. Davis said.

"I realize that I am following in the footsteps of an outstanding farm agent who has done a wonderful job during the past 21 years and I earnestly solicit the co-operation of every one in my new position."

Former agent Julian Glazener also went to work in Raleigh this week as program planning specialist of State College.

Mr. Davis said he and his wife plan to move into Sapphire Manor apartments soon.

The county's new agent is a native of Haywood county. He finished high school in Raleigh.

—Turn to Page Twelve

MISS MARGARET RICE, a music major at Brevard college from Canton, will reign as Queen of May at May Day activities at the college this week end. She will be crowned during a special pageant Saturday afternoon, beginning at 4:00 o'clock on the lower quadrangle of the campus. President Robert H. Stamey cordially invites the public to attend the event. Miss Rice is pictured above polishing up the college sign for the big week end. (Times Staff Photo)

PFOHL, DIRECTOR, RELEASES NAMES OF 21 ARTISTS

Total Of 37 Concerts To Be Presented At Center Here This Summer

LIST-GLENN RETURN

A summer musical menu featuring 21 outstanding soloists for Transylvania Music Camp and the Brevard Music Festival during the 10 concert week ends of the 1956 season was announced this week.

James Christian Pfohl, musical director for both the camp and festival, announces that a total of 37 concerts are planned this summer, with 28 of them scheduled during the 6½ weeks of camp and nine during the three Festival week ends in August.

The first concert will be given Sunday afternoon, June 24th, and featured soloist will be Beverly Sills, soprano. The concert schedule for the remainder of the camp season will be Friday and Saturday evening, Sunday afternoon, and an occasional chamber music program on Tuesday evening.

In addition to these concerts at the Transylvania Music Center, four candlelight concerts are also scheduled for Asheville.

Appearing in the summer festival of music will be the Transylvania Symphony orchestra, concert band, chorus, faculty and staff orchestra, the Gala Festival orchestra, Little Symphony and the Hilltoppers band. They will be conducted by Dr. Pfohl, Gordon Page, Paul Bryan, Erno Daniel, Joe Winacek and Frank West. Guest conductors who will appear during the summer musical series are Thor Johnson, conductor of the Cincinnati Symphony, and John Bitter, conductor of the University of Michigan.

—Turn to Page Six

RECORD SEASON FOR MUSIC CAMP

Capacity Enrollment Already Secured, As Well As Complete Staff

Although the Transylvania Music Camp will not open until June 21, a capacity enrollment of 200 students has already been reached, Director James Christian Pfohl announces.

The administrative staff, faculty and counselors, numbering around 100, have also been secured for the 1956 season.

The camp will operate for six and a half weeks and will close August 5. The graduate school and Gala Festival will run through August 26.

During the campaign season, concerts will be given on Friday and Saturday nights and on Sunday afternoons. Others will also be held on Tuesday evenings.

A minimum of 37 concerts will be given during the 10 weeks of camp and festival and 21 guest artists have been secured.

Director Pfohl said the outlook is bright for the best season ever enjoyed by the Brevard Music Foundation.

Civic Clubs Will Hold Joint Meet At Gaithers Fri.

Future expansion plans of the Brevard Music Foundation will be discussed at a joint meeting of the Brevard Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions clubs to be held at Gaithers' Friday night at 7 o'clock.

John Eversman, secretary of the Foundation and business manager of the Transylvania Music Camp and Festival, will be the principal speaker.

Two other persons connected with the Foundation will speak briefly.

This will be a regular meeting night for all of the three local civic clubs and a good attendance is anticipated.

DEMOCRATS WILL HOLD MEETINGS

Precincts Gatherings Slated For Saturday And Convention May 12

Democratic precinct meetings will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the voting places in each of the county's 18 precincts for the purpose of electing officers and selecting delegates to the county convention set for Saturday, May 12.

At the precinct meetings at least five officers are to be chosen, including a chairman, vice chairman, secretary, treasurer, and delegates. In calling the meetings and county convention, Thomas Eller stated that he would not be a candidate for re-election as chairman of the Democratic executive committee.

The state Democratic convention will be held in Raleigh on Thursday, May 17.

The county is entitled to a number of delegates and they will be elected at the convention on May 12.

HD Women Journey To Greenville On Wednesday

Highlighting the Transylvania county observance of National Home Demonstration week will be a tour of Greenville, S. C., by chartered bus on Wednesday, May 9th.

Mrs. Bob Williams of Cedar Mountain, is the chairman of the HD week observance.

Among the places that the HD women will tour are the gardens of Mrs. Harrell Wilson and the May-fields' rug and drapery plant. A portion of the day will be spent downtown and women will have ample time to eat at a restaurant of their choice.

All Transylvania Home Demonstration club members who desire are invited to go on this trip. Reservations must be made with the home agent's office not later than Monday, May 7. The bus leaves the bus station at 8:30 a. m., Wednesday.

Another event which is being held in observance of National HD week will be a "Dried Arrangement" workshop at Gaithers', 2 p. m., Thursday, May 3rd. It will be conducted by Miss Pauline Gordon, State college Extension specialist. She will show the women how to

—Turn to Page Six

Davidson River Trout Fishery Bill Approved

WASHINGTON, Tuesday — A House Fisheries subcommittee Tuesday approved a bill to establish a second trout hatchery on the Davidson River in the Pisgah National Forest, North Carolina.

Rep. Shuford (D-NC), author of the bill, testified that more trout are needed to meet the demand of a constantly increasing tourist business.

Shuford said the present hatch-

—Turn to Page Six

A SOLID FOUNDATION for the new men's dormitory at Brevard college has been laid by the Dilliard Construction company, of Sylva, for the J. A. Jones Construction company. This new dorm will house an additional 104 men, and will cost approximately $150,000. It will be ready for occupancy this fall, when Brevard college is expecting an enrollment of more than 400 students. See the second front page of this week's Times for more building pictures and story. (Times Staff Photo)

"Jaycee Jollies" To Be Presented On Friday And Saturday At High School

Big Minstrel Show Has Western Theme. Benefits Brevard Teen Age Center

With a cast of over 50 persons, the "Jaycee Jollies", a big minstrel show with a western theme, will be presented here Friday and Saturday nights of this week in the Brevard High school auditorium.

Curtain time each evening will be at 8:15 o'clock, and tickets are on sale by the Jaycees, and they will also be offered at the door both nights.

The gigantic minstrel will benefit the Teen Age Center, and rehearsals have been underway for the past several weeks.

Jack Richards is directing, and Mrs. John Dellinger is the accompanist. Soloists include Miss Carolyn Osborne and Lloyd Burhans, and there will be specialty acts by "The Copy Cats", Bobby and Robin Hoyle and Mrs. Edith Alexander.

Jaycee President Bill Norris cordially invites the public to attend the minstrel.

"We feel that many persons who come Friday night will come again on Saturday," Mr. Norris declared.

The cast has worked long and hard and everything is in readiness for the opening curtain on Friday, he continued.

Reserved seats are $1.00, with general admission being 75c, and student tickets at 50c.

CALENDAR OF COMING EVENTS

Thursday, May 3 — Presbyterian Women's circles meet. Guilds of St. Philip's church meet in parish house. Methodist circles to have supper at church, 7 p. m.

Friday, May 4 — Lions club business session, 6:30 p. m., Gaithers'. Joint meet of three service clubs at 7 p. m., Gaithers'. Jaycee Minstrel, 8:15 p. m., Brevard High School.

Saturday, May 5 — Democratic precinct meetings, 2 p. m., Ecusta v. Beacon, Camp Straus, 3 p. m. May Day at the college, 4 p. m. Jaycee Minstrel, 8:15 p. m., Brevard High School.

Sunday, May 6 — Attend the church of your choice.

Monday, May 7 — American Legion meets at 7 p. m. Rotary club will not meet.

Tuesday, May 8 — Fidelis class of First Baptist church, home of Mrs. Mary Kilpatrick, 8 p. m.

Wednesday, May 9 — HD Women leave on tour, 8:30 a. m. Episcopal convention begins here at St. Philip's church, 10 a. m.

To Plan Action

Local Industrial Development Corporation Receives Charter

A certificate of incorporation has been granted to the Transylvania Industrial Development Corporation, with an authorized capital stock of $100,000.00, and with 18 incorporators.

The new company, which is being formed by the Brevard and Rosman chambers of commerce, has a major objective of attracting small industries to the county.

With the securing of a charter, everything is now in readiness to organize the corporation and to

Local Draft Board Office To Be Open Only A Half Day

Starting next Monday, the Transylvania county Selective Service board office, located here in the basement floor of the post office, will be open only a half of a day, Chairman P. A. Rahn announces.

The new hours will be from 9 to 1 o'clock Monday through Friday. This reduction is said to be in line with similar action that is being taken in other counties.

Mrs. Tom Galloway is clerk of the local office.

Bishop Of Kentucky Is Speaker For Episcopal Meeting Here Next Week

The Rt. Rev. C. Gresham Marmion, bishop of the diocese of Kentucky, will be the principal speaker at the 34th annual convention of the Diocese of Western North Carolina here at St. Philip's church on May 9th and 10th.

The Rev. Frank McKenzie, rector of the Brevard church, says that he is expecting approximately 125 delegates at the convention from all the participating parishes in the diocese. C. B. Carter is the general chairman of convention arrangements and the opening session is slated for 10 a. m. Wednesday morning when Holy Communion will be held.

A luncheon will follow in the parish house here. Also, a banquet is slated for Wednesday evening in

—Turn to Page Twelve

RT. REV. C. GRESHAM MARMION