

PRINCIPAL FIGURES at the presentation ceremony of the deed to the new site for the Brevard Methodist church opposite Brevard college this past Sunday morning are shown above. Holding the deed at the left is P. A. Rahn, chairman of the board of stewards of the church, and H. B. Shiflet chairman of the board of trustees is at the right. In the background, left to right, are: Rev. Douglas Corriher, pastor of the church; Ed M. Anderson, of the college board of trustees, who made the principal address; and Rev. Robert H. Stamey, president of Brevard college, who also spoke on the program. See story on page four, first section. (Times Staff Photo)

WNC Lawmakers, Press Briefed On Proposed New School Laws For State

HEALTH OFFICE HAS SUPPLY OF POLIO VACCINE

Third Shots Are Available. New Series Can Now Be Started

The county health office announces that the supply of polio vaccine is now sufficiently large to permit giving the third polio shot in the health office to those who have not been able to get the third shot at their private physician's office.

Persons under twenty years of age who have not received any immunizations against polio, are again urged to begin the series immediately. These may be obtained from a private physician, or at the health office on Tuesday afternoon, between 1:00 o'clock and 3:00 p. m., or all day on Fridays.

In North Carolina close to a million cc's of poliomyelitis vaccine have been given through the auspices of the state health department without a single reaction or case of polio attributed to the

—Turn to Page Four

PEARLMAN'S TO REMODEL SOON

Plan Extensive Project On Newly Acquired Mill On West Main

Remodeling of the Wheeler Hoisery mill building for a modern furniture store will be started by Pearlman's within the next week or 10 days, Fred Pearlman, the vice president and general manager, announces today.

Pearlman's will continue operations at their present location, corner Main and Gaston, until their new quarters on the corner of West Main and Caldwell are completed.

Mr. Pearlman says no expense is being spared in remodeling the former Wheeler building, which he describes as ideal for a furniture store. A modernistic front with windows on both Main and Cald-

—Turn to Page Ten

SPECIAL SESSION TO OPEN JULY 23, ELECTION IN SEPT.

Times Staff Gets First-Hand Information From Chairman Advisory Committee

SURVEY IS MADE

Lawmakers of Western North Carolina and the press of this section last week end attended briefing sessions on the coming public school legislation.

Gov. Luther Hodges and members of the state advisory committee held a meeting at Waynesville last Friday afternoon, and at 11:00 o'clock Saturday morning Tom Pearsall, Chairman, and other members of the committee gave each member of the press a copy of the legislative acts to be presented to a special session of the General Assembly in Raleigh on July 23rd.

This session concluded the annual Institute of the North Carolina Press association, and attending from Brevard were Publisher Ed M. Anderson, Editor and Mrs. John Anderson and associate editor, Frances Walker.

The meeting was held at the Grove Park, and following Mr. Pearsall's presentation, the newspapermen were permitted to ask questions on the measures.

The gist of the school preservation plan would provide attendance expense grants, formerly referred to as tuition grants, to citizens who do not want their children to go to school with a member of the opposite race, and allow a local school unit to suspend operations of its schools, upon a majority public vote, if the situation is considered intolerable.

A state-wide vote on the legislation, should it pass in the special session, will be held in September if the State Supreme Court finds it legal.

Session Called

A special legislative session has been called by Governor Hodges at noon Monday, July 23. The session will be held in Raleigh.

—Turn to Page Ten

INDUSTRIAL GROUP TO MEET MONDAY

All Interested Persons Are Invited To Attend, President Jenkins Says

There will be a meeting of stockholders of the newly organized Transylvania Industrial Development corporation Monday night at 8:00 o'clock in Gaither's Rhododendron room, Don Jenkins, the president, announces.

All persons interested in industrial development in the county are cordially invited to attend, and the stockholders will make plans to sell stock in this organization in the immediate future.

The local group will work closely with the State Department of Conservation and Development in its program to promote and locate new and diversified industry in North Carolina.

It is explained that there is a surplus of labor in Transylvania, especially in the upper section, and the local development corporation is seeking to remedy this situation.

CHARLES L. RUSSELL'S picture of his daughter, Carolyn, entitled "All Dolled Up for the Easter Parade" was awarded first prize in its class in the seventh week of the Atlanta Journal-Atlanta Constitution photography contest. Mr. Russell received a cash prize and the picture was printed in the magazine section of the Atlanta Ga., newspaper last Sunday. This photograph will be entered in the Newspaper National Snapshot contest in which a total of $15,000 will be given away in prizes.

Crowd Of 1,700 Attends Annual Farmers Federation Picnic Here

JOHN I. ANDERSON, Jr., editor of The Transylvania Times, was elected president of the newly organized Associated Non-Dailies of North Carolina at the annual Institute of the North Carolina Press association last week end in Asheville. Mr. Anderson was named temporary chairman of the group last January at Chapel Hill, and he presented a constitution and by-laws which were adopted last Friday. Serving with him are Tom Lassiter, publisher of the Smithfield Herald, vice president; and, Martin Harmon, publisher of the Kings Mountain Herald, secretary and treasurer.

Many Speakers And Entertainers Included On Varied Program. Reports

A capacity crowd of more than 1,700 persons filled the Brevard high school auditorium for the annual Farmers Federation picnic Tuesday night. James McC. Clarke, federation president, acted as master of ceremonies and introduced the speakers and entertainers.

The Carolina Mountain Boys, route 1, Pisgah Forest, won the best local entertainment prize.

President Clarke introduced Charles W. Davis, newly elected federation vice president, who welcomed the crowd.

Mr. Davis also reported on the federation poultry program and announced that the hatchery would be moved from its present location on Roberts street in Asheville to the former ABS bull barn on the Charlotte highway in Asheville.

Other speakers included: Marvin Lorenz, freezer locker supervisor; Floyd Owen, president of Balsam Grove community club; Phil Burch, hospital care insurance representative; Rev. DuMont Clarke, religious department director; Max Roberts, educational director; and, Bob Beard, federation news editor.

James Davis, county agent, urged Transylvania farmers to grow

—Turn to Page Four

Program Highlights

WPNF Joins Civil Defense System This Friday For Conelrad Drill

Friday, July 20, is the date of an important test Conelrad drill and WPNF will co-operate with the nation's radio and TV stations in conducting the drill, which begins at 3:10 p. m., President Ed M. Anderson reports.

The local station will sign off the air and will remain silent for a 15-minute period. During the test drill, only key radio stations, authorized by the United States government will be on the air broadcasting instructions to the public.

All key stations will switch to either 640 or 1240 on the dial. Reception in some areas will be weak, due to the distance of some of the key stations.

Conelrad is a safety precaution against enemy air attack and the system is designed to prevent en-

—Turn to Page Four

National Federation Of Music Clubs Meeting Here, Special Concerts Set

Talented Pianist To Be Heard Thursday Night. Band Friday Evening

The Brevard Music center presents this Thursday evening at 8:15 o'clock a special program honoring the National Federation of Music clubs. Southeastern Region members from 14 states, plus national officers of the federation, will be here for the annual Mid-week activities.

Ivan Davis, talented pianist and winner of the Young Artists Audition in 1955, will be featured Thursday evening in Rachmaninoff's Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini with the Transylvania Symphony Orchestra under the baton of James Christian Pfohl.

Robert Harrison, concertmaster of the Atlanta Symphony and for the past seven years concertmaster of the orchestra of the faculty and staff of the Transylvania Music Camp, will be soloist in Bloch's "Baal Shem". Tickets may be purchased at the auditorium for Thursday evening's performance at 8:15.

On Friday, July 20, at 8:15 the Transylvania concert band will perform under the direction of Paul Bryan. Joseph Wagner's Concerto Grosso, Julian Work's "Portraits from the Bible", and Sullivan's "Pineapple Poll" will be included on the program. The Wagner selection will feature student soloists Larry Campbell, baritone, from Asheboro; Horace Sher from Durham, Billy Pippin from Jacksonville, Fla., and James Opie Wells from Brevard, trumpets. The Transylvania chorus, conducted by Gordon Page, will also be featured on this program, singing a group of sacred selections.

On Saturday, July 21, "America's most popular speaker and writer on music" comes to Brevard. Listed in WHO'S WHO as a "writer, lecturer, and broadcaster", Dr. Sigmund Spaeth's versatility includes books such as FUN WITH MUSIC, magazine articles, radio,

—Turn to Page Ten

Agencies Meet

Seeking Survey Of Proposed "Balsam" Lake Atop Pisgah

Effort will be made by the several agencies interested to secure survey by engineers of the proposed "Balsam" or Yellowstone Lake in Pisgah National forest immediately, it was announced at a meeting of the North Carolina Park commission held Monday at Doughton Park near the Virginia state line Monday.

Survey of the proposed lake and estimate of the cost incurred for a dam will be next step in projection of the 119-acre body of water which will be the highest lake of its size in Eastern America, it was stated following the meeting Monday.

"Go ahead" signal has been given by the Pisgah National Forest group, Blue Ridge parkway and the N. C. Department of Conservation and Development, all of which agencies have been in consultation within the month.

Definite plans for building of the dam and operation of the project will be worked on after the survey is made, it was stated at the Park commission meeting.

At close of the annual Park com-

—Turn to Page Ten

Bingo Party Set Friday Evening, Teen Age Center

A free bingo party will be given for all members of the Teen Age center Friday night, beginning at 8:00 o'clock at the center of Jordan street.

Fritz Merrell, the director, cordially invites all members to attend, and he says that many fine prizes will be awarded.

With Coach Wayne Bradburn promoting special summer time activities, the center is a popular place with the teen-agers. Mr. Merrell states, and street dances, swimming parties and other events will be held later.

Distinguished Visitors Are Here For Mid-Week

Mrs. Ronald Arthur Dougan, of Belloit, Wisconsin, president of the National Federation of Music clubs, heads the list of honor guests who will be here for the ninth annual Mid-Week being held Thursday and Friday at Brevard college and the music camp.

Presidents from throughout the entire Southeastern states are also expected here for the two-day event which begins Thursday at 4 p. m., with a tea and recital at Brevard college.

The state presidents are Mrs. Harry J. Shonts, of Winston-Salem; who will greet the other state heads at a recognition luncheon Friday at the college; Mrs. George E. Jackson, Alabama; James Reiscrup, District of Columbia; Mrs. Glenn Morrison, Florida; Mrs. M. J. Bowers, Ga.; Mrs. Rutherford Hoppe, Kentucky; Mrs. Frank Vought, Louisiana; Mrs. Harold H. Nesbitt,

—Turn to Page Four

SUNDAY WAS A joyous occasion for the congregation of the Brevard-Davidson River Presbyterian church, which celebrated the building of the new edifice with a cornerstone laying ceremony. A large number of members and friends attended the ceremony at 5:30 p. m., held out-of-doors in front of the building under construction. Principal speaker at the special service was the Rev. E. Ashby

Johnson, at right, former pastor and now professor at Austin college, Austin, Texas. Shown in the center next to the corner stone is the foreman, R. T. Cook, of Limer Construction company. The pastor, Rev. Ben F. Ormand, is at the left. Mr. Ormand announced at the ceremony that the new church was expected to be completed and used for the first time on Sunday, December 9th. (Photo by Russell)

CALENDAR OF COMING EVENTS

Thursday, July 19 — Lions club meets at Gaither's, 7 p. m. Masonic meeting in Temple, 7:30 p. m. Women of the Presbyterian church meet at Mrs. Frank Carr's, 8 p. m. Concert at Brevard Music Center, 8:15 p. m.

Friday, July 20 — Groundbreaking ceremonies for new library at Transylvania Music camp, 11 a. m. Garden club meets in Gaither's, 3:30 p. m. Kiwanis club meets at Gaither's, 7 p. m. Bingo party at the Teen Age Center, 8 p. m. Square dance in the American Le-

—Turn to Page Four

Cosby Choir Camp Concerts Continued, To Sing Sunday

Recitals by faculty members at the Cosby Choir camp, Lake Toxaway, will be continued this Friday evening, when James S. Boles, tenor, will be heard, with his wife, Carolyn Boles, accompanying.

David H. Cosby, owner of the unique camp, cordially invites the public to attend the concert.

Mr. Boles will sing selections by Durante, Handel, Verdi, Thiman and others.

A graduate of the Westminster Choir college, Princeton, Mr. Boles

—Turn to Page Ten