Homecoming Sunday Marks The 86th Anniversary At English Chapel In Pisgah National Forest

Services Will Be Held During The Morning And Afternoon, Dinner, Also

In celebration of its 86th anniversary, English chapel Methodist church in the Pisgah National forest will hold its annual Homecoming on Sunday, Oct. 14th.

All members, former members and friends of the congregation are cordially invited to attend. Among the speakers at the morning service, which will get underway at 10:30 o'clock, will be Dr. J. D. Hurt, well-known Methodist minister from Florida; Rev. Robert H. Stamey, president of Brevard college; and Rev. Hamilton Witter, who has just been assigned to the charge by the Methodist conference. Among the former pastors who will be asked to make brief talks are Rev. W. C. Clark, the Rev. H. W. Hall and Rev. W. H. Pless, who is the oldest living former pastor of English chapel. Mr. Pless was minister at the church during the years 1911, '12 and '13.

The afternoon session will begin at 2:00 o'clock and will feature other speakers, group singing and a number of quartets. There will also be a special singing on the morning program.

Among the singers who are expected to appear on the program are the Bishop quartet of Cedar Mountain, the English chapel quartet, the Ecusta quartet, and the Watson family quartet of English chapel Sunday school. There

High School 4-H Name New Officers

The senior 4-H girls at Brevard high school met on October 2nd in the home economics department and elected officers to serve for this year.

They are Sara Hunter, president; Barbara Lyda, vice president; Barbara Cantrell, secretary - treasurer; and Linda Tinsley, reporter.

Miss Priest met with the girls and explained the importance of keeping proper records and the means of doing this.

The November meeting will also be held in the home ec department at the high school.

will be solos by Janie Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Watson.

A picnic dinner will be held on the grounds at noon. Hot coffee will be served by members of the church.

The original English chapel church was founded in 1870 by the Rev. A. F. English, and the present stone building was erected in 1940.

Balsam Grove Sets Important Club Meet Tues.

BY MRS. WARD McCALL
BALSAM GROVE — The Community Development club will have their regular meeting Tuesday night, October 16th, at the school beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Plans for the fall survey will be made and also for the parade in November. All club members are urged to attend this important meeting. We enjoyed the films shown at the last meeting by Ranger Ted Seely.

Revivals Planned
There is a revival in progress at the little Pisgah Baptist church in upper end of the Gloucester section near Dillard Owen's — The Rev. Hobert Broom, of Travelers Rest, S. C., is the visiting speaker. Services each night are at 7:30 o'clock. The public is invited to attend these services.

The revival at the Shoal Creek Baptist church was still in progress the first of this week and will probably run through the remainder of this week (Speakers are Rev. Blye Owen and Rev. Bunion Kilpatrick, pastor). Everyone has a cordial invitation to attend these services.

Boy Scouts Meet
The Boy Scout troop No. 16 will have their regular meeting Thursday night, Oct. 11, at the school, beginning about 7:30 o'clock. All Scouts are urged to attend.

Speakers Heard
The Rev. James Raines of Pickens and Rev. Hobert Broom of Travelers Rest were the visiting speakers at the Woods Memorial Baptist church last Sunday.

Birthdays Celebrated
Rev. J. T. Hall, Howard Hall, Verdrey McCall and Curtis Hall were honored with a birthday dinner Sunday with around 75 guests present for the occasion at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Hall, Rt. 1, Lake Toxaway.

Many farmers can cut expenses and save money by raising their home food supply, say Extension specialists at North Carolina State College.

Rev. Keith Beam Elected To Head Ministers Of County

REV. KEITH J. BEAM

Rev. Keith J. Beam, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd, was elected president of the Transylvania Ministerial association at the October meeting, which was held in the Brevard Methodist church.

Other officers elected include the following:

Rev. L. B. Vaughn, pastor of the Kings Street Baptist church, vice president; Rev. Frank McKenzie, pastor of the St. Philip's Episcopal church, secretary; and Rev. W. R. Cox, pastor of the Brevard Church of God, representative on the hospital board.

Rev. Nelson Adams, professor of music at Brevard college, announced the organization of the Community chorus, and said that tentative plans call for four concerts: the Reformation service, the Messiah, the spring concert and the Palm Sunday concert.

The Ministerial association voted its endorsement and support of the chorus.

The regular meeting date of the association was changed from the fourth Monday to the first Monday at 10:30 o'clock.

All ministers who participate in Morning devotions program over WPNF are invited to attend, and the next meeting is slated for Nov. 5th in the Lutheran church at 10:30 a. m.

"ing Dog" were in front of the headquarters adding gaiety to the occasion.

The headquarters will be open part-time during the week and on all week ends until after the election with Mrs. Macfie and Mrs. Marrs in charge.

On Saturday the Democratic Women's club honored Mrs. Moore with a luncheon held at noon in Gaither's. The luncheon table was decorated with fall flowers and guests were officers and members of the women's club.

DEMOCRATIC HQTS. HOLD BIG OPENING

Mrs. Dan Moore Is Special Guest. Donkey On Hand Lending Gaiety

The Transylvania County Democratic campaign headquarters, located on East Main street across from the court house, held its formal opening on Saturday.

A constant flow of visitors stopped in at the headquarters and the guest of honor was Mrs. Dan K. Moore, of Sylva, a member of the state advisory committee.

The headquarters have been attractively decorated by Mrs. Ashe Macfie and Mrs. Ann Marrs. Coffee and cookies were served the visitors.
