

HOME COMING IS SUCCESSFUL AT TOXAWAY CHURCH

Rev. Jesse Osteen Delivers Main Address, Wild Life Club Met

BY MRS. H. D. LEE

(Omitted Last Week)

TOXAWAY — There was a large attendance at the Homecoming at the North Toxaway Baptist church, Sunday. Rev. Jesse Osteen, of Hendersonville, delivered a most inspirational message at the eleven o'clock service, on homes, home coming and our hope of an eternal home of peace and love. He spoke of the church as a "meeting house" where Christian people could meet together and worship God.

Short talks were made by the following ministers: Rev. Ed Moody, pastor of the church, Rev. S. B. McCall, founder of the church, Rev. Julius Owen, former pastor, Rev. Clyde McCall, who was pastor for many years at the Lake Toxaway Baptist church and principal of the Lake Toxaway school for many years, and Rev. Cadez Wilds of Cedar Mountain, a former Lake Toxaway resident.

Special music by the Textilers of Greenville, S. C., Mrs. Hazel Crooks and daughter, Miss Hazel Lee Ballenger, of Greenville, S. C., the Moody family, and old time songs by the congregation were enjoyed.

A bountiful dinner was spread on tables on the lawn at noon; then followed a social hour when we had the pleasure of meeting many old friends and talking to our friends and neighbors.

This is an annual affair and we are looking forward to another Homecoming next year when it will probably be held earlier, so that more summer residents can attend and also young people who go away to colleges.

Club Met

The Lake Toxaway hunting club met at the Lake Toxaway school Saturday night and were delighted to have with them Howard L. Wooten, of Clyde, wild Life Supervisor of District 9, comprising twelve counties, and James Renegar, of Brevard, county game protector. Mr. Wooten gave a most interesting talk in which he encouraged the members of the club and both he and Mr. Renegar assured them of their hearty cooperation.

Deaths Reported

This community was saddened by the news of the death of William Henry Arwood, at the Banner Elk Hospital on last Wednesday and the death of Mrs. Frank (Carrie Davis) Wilbanks, of Ware Shoals, S. C., which occurred several days ago. Both Mr. Arwood and Mrs. Wilbanks were our good friends and neighbors who made their homes here for many years. We extend to their families our very deepest sympathy.

Family Reunion

Members of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davis, of Avawam, Ky., formerly of Rosman, met at Johnson City, Tenn., on Sept. 23rd and enjoyed a family gathering and picnic. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davis and daughter Sue, Avawam, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. Beulan Davis and children, Wooten, Ky., George London, Soldiers Home, Johnson City, Tenn., Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Jones and family, Rosman, and Mr. and Mrs. J.
