Political Excitement Echoing Up And Down Halls Of Hotel Sir Walter

BY KIDD BREWER AT IT AGAIN... All up and down one of the back halls of the Hotel Sir Walter here echo the sounds of another political campaign. Typewriters are clacking; telephones are ringing; and generally, activity fills the air.

county residence of Alonzo Edwards, Duke University alumni president, member of the State Advisory Budget Commission, and a not quite-good-enough candidate for Lieutenant Governor this year.

born in Yugoslavia, son of an outstanding physician, and is now studying medicine in Washington, D. C.

THRESHERS... Remember how in the old days the wheat threshers would ramble over a three-county area — and how as a kid you looked forward to the big meals, the general hustle-and-bustle that accompanied their coming?

PEOPLE... It is only natural that folks should have some curiosity about what type of people their ancestors were.

NOTES... Well, now that all of our Big Four teams have tasted defeat, maybe we can settle down to some steady football.

The following won awards: Smallest dog, "Missy", Carol Coleman; Best dressed dog, "Pooch", Kathy Boyer; biggest dog, "Beau", Betsy Carr; most tricks, "Count", Stanley Bahnsen; resembles owner, "Honeybug", Becky Mann.

In the doll contest the winners were biggest doll, Barbara Roland; smallest doll, Paul Ann Morrow;

Fullbright Tells Of Importance Of National Letter Writing Week

Acting Postmaster Here Says Uncensored Mail Is A Basic Freedom

National Letter Writing week is again being celebrated in Brevard this week, Acting Postmaster Vernon Fullbright announces today.

Commenting on the significance of National Letter Writing week, Mr. Fullbright pointed out that each year since 1938 this event has been observed as a reminder of the real meaning of a personal letter. Emphasizing the traditional sanctity of the letter mail, Mr. Fullbright reminded Brevard residents that one of the basic American freedoms is the uncensored transmission of their first class mail.

real meaning of a personal letter.

Emphasizing the traditional sanctity of the letter mail, Mr. Fullbright reminded Brevard residents that one of the basic American freedoms is the uncensored transmission of their first class mail.

"We all know the human importance of letter writing," Mr. Fullbright stated, "the way in which it holds scattered families together, of giving comfort and love and news to all the people of the land. But its value is immeasurably greater than that. Its implications are almost infinite."

High School Is Holding P-TA Meet

The Brevard High School P-TA will hold its regular meeting on Monday, October 15th, at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

Devotional by Mrs. Ben Ormand; special music by the Copy Cats; and a talk on safety by Henry Newbury, of Ecusta Paper corp.

"We in America have the privilege of uncensored and unlimited means of communication. With this in mind, I urge all citizens of Brevard to join me in this national celebration. Let's make National Letter Writing Week for 1956 the greatest ever," he concluded.

You can afford WARM FLOOR HEATING in every room!" and "SIEGLER has TWO heatmakers working together on ONE fire to heat every room in your home!"

They aren't saying much about it, but Eastern Democrats are amazed at the ease with which money is coming in to the cause this fall... They see it as a good omen — with possible national implications...

People trying to size up Gov. Hodges' personality say he is a good mixture of Clyde R. Hoey and J. M. Broughton — with an ease with words (that's both Broughton and Hoey), a prodigious mind (that's a Broughton trait), and he's keen on his appearance (Hoey), has a great deal of determination (Broughton), has a knack for sizing up quickly the political wind (Broughton), and makes friends easily (very much Hoey)...

Don't know whether you get an opportunity to see the Charlotte Observer... but in our opinion it is now one of the most readable dailies published in the South... is supposed to be Republican — but if so is going about it in an easy manner so far... May be when the chips are down, it will be different.

At least one 50,000 - watt radio station is quietly trying to avoid playing up Democratic candidates for office — speeches by Senator Ervin, for instance — for fear they will be asked for equal time by the Republicans. Seems a little far-fetched on first glance — but the situation is acute... and that's the trend.

STAYING BEHIND? Speaking of people, some of the finest folks in Wake county are the Holding's of Wake Forest. They run the second largest bank in the state. They are druggists, cotton brokers, athletes, politicians, and business men and women.

It is only fair, then, that one of them should share one of the fine Tribble daughters, offspring of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Tribble, now of the Wake Forest College community of Winston-Salem.

Come Saturday, November 24, in the new Wait Chapel, Miss Barbara Ann Tribble will become the wife of Harvey Royall Holding, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Holding of Wake Forest.

Winston-Salem is great—but one and all will have a time of it keeping a Holding out of Wake County.

MRS. BERNHAUT... One thing that disturbs us a little is that, recently, Mildred Rodgers married Andrea Bernhaut. He was born in Yugoslavia, son of an outstanding physician, and is now studying medicine in Washington, D. C.

What worries us is that Mildred is the daughter of Great Democrat Eric Rodgers of Scotland Neck. Eric was busy all last week—as he will be for some little while now—helping the Democrats with their campaign. But in all the writeups of the big Washington wedding, nothing was said about whether young Bernhaut was Democratic or Republican.

Set you the first question papa asked daughter when she told him she was going to wed Bernhaut was "Is he a Democrat of a Republican?"

The son-in-law will leave next week with his bride to continue his study of medicine at the University of Vienna. That's a fur piece from Halifax County.

Straus P-TA To Meet On Tuesday

The Straus School P-TA will hold its regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening, 7:30 p. m., in the school cafeteria.

A program on "Visual Education" will be presented by H. R. Jacobson. Parents are asked to bring along their children who will be entertained by a story hour.

A social hour will conclude the meeting and refreshments will be served.

T-Sgt. L. B. Raines An Honor Graduate

Technical Sergeant Louie B. Raines, of Brevard, was among the recent honor students graduating from the Aircraft Propeller Technician Course in August at Chanute AFB, Ill.

The son of Mrs. Mack N. Raines, of Brevard, and the husband of the former Miss Sue Hudgins, of Pisgah Forest, Sergeant Raines was graduated from the Rosman high school in Rosman, before entering the Air Force in July, 1946.

The Aircraft Propeller Technician course is designed to qualify graduates for duties involving the installation, repair, overhaul, trouble-shooting and modification of aircraft propellers and associated equipment, and in the supervision of aircraft propeller repair activities.
