Rosman Teachers Attended District Meet, Teen Agers Have Party, Other Reports

Program Is Presented At A Meet Of Girls Auxiliary Of Calvert Church

A number of teachers of the Rosman Elementary school attended the western district social studies meeting, Friday at David Millard School in Asheville.

The meeting was attended by principals, seventh grade teachers, and special teachers.

Teachers from Rosman included: Miss Geneva Paxton, elementary school principal, Mrs. J. M. Winget, Paul Price, R. E. Moody, and Mrs. B. E. Keisler.

On New Year's Eve

The teen agers of the MYF of the Rosman Methodist church held a New Year's Eve watch party at the Rosman club center.

Games were played under the direction of Paul Price and Miss Elizabeth White.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Joe Osborne and Miss White. A short program was also presented at the church at 11:30 p. m.

White Speaks

Deloris Winchester presented a program on "Stewardship" at the meeting of the Girls Auxiliary of Mt. Moriah Calvert Baptist church Sunday afternoon at the church.

Mrs. William White, counselor, spoke on "Goals for the coming year." Others participating on the program were: Janice Whitmire, Dorothy Hooper, Joyce and Rosemary Parker, Paulette Hooper, Elwyn Galloway, and Margaret Winchester.

A special coronation service will be held for a maiden, two ladies-in-waiting, and four princesses next Sunday following the regular church service.

Meet Jan. 14

The January meeting of the Middle Fork Home Demonstration club will be held January 17 at 1:30 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Norris Berkshire.

Officers will be elected and Miss Anne Benson Priest, county home agent, will present a program on "Attitudes Are Important." Mrs. William Sagar, Jr., secretary, urges all members to be present. Any ladies desiring to become members will also be most welcome to attend the meeting.
