Chamber Of Commerce Having Busy Season, Secretary Reports At Meet

President Frank Bridges Makes Plea For Membership To Pay Up Dues

The Brevard chamber of commerce, located in its beautiful office in the new and modern Transylvania library next to the court house, is having one of its busiest seasons, Mrs. John A. Ford, the executive secretary, reported to the board of directors Tuesday night.

The meeting was held in the court room over the city hall, and president Frank Bridges presided.

Mrs. Ford said that a record number of inquiries has been handled, and she further explained that the office was being of considerable service to new persons coming here to make their homes.

The number of summer visitors seems to be increasing, and she reports that the office is delighted to be of service to tourists and permanent residents wherever possible.

At the present time the chamber of commerce has a paid-up membership of 104 members, of which 26 are new members. President Bridges made a plea for all persons who have not paid their dues for this year to please do so as soon as possible.

The directors discussed the possibility of having a pay telephone station erected on the square, and a committee composed of Gil Coan, Vernon Fullbright and John Anderson was named to consult with officials of the telephone company.

It was also decided that every effort would be made to improve the attractiveness of the front yard of the library.

Many To Attend

Farmers Federation Planning Annual Picnic On Tuesday

The Farmers Federation's annual Transylvania county picnic will be held on Tuesday, July 16th, at Brevard high school beginning at 7:30 p. m. It has been announced by James McClure Clarke, president of the 37-year old farm competitive.

Once again an outstanding entertainment program has been scheduled including the peppy Mimosa Boys, "Panhandle Pete" Nash and the Farmers Federation string band along with Linda and Patsy Neal, talented acrobats, Gaither Robinson and Steve Ledford.

Mr. Clarke has urged all local musicians, singers, choirs, quartets and other entertainers to attend the picnic and compete for prizes.

A $10 prize will be awarded for the best local act and other prizes will be given to winning quartets and choirs.

Work Started On Pisgah Mountain Route This Week

State Highway forces have started work preparatory to paving the Pisgah Motor Road from Wagon Road Gap to Cut-Throat or Elks Pasture gap south of Candler.

The seven-mile link will be used as part of the Blue Ridge Parkway until 1964, when it is planned to complete the section by Mt. Pisgah with the line of the scenic highway.

Heavy machinery is on the job, with huge water wagons and rollers, getting the roadbed ready for "shooting" the black top.

Thomas R. Eller Sworn In On New Prisons Commission For The State

Thomas R. Eller, Brevard attorney, has been sworn in as a member of the new North Carolina Prisons Commission.

Mr. Eller received his appointment from Governor Luther H. Hodges, and after being sworn in the commission met the remainder of the day with the Governor getting orientated and organized.

Members of the commission will meet quarterly in Raleigh, with perhaps more meetings needed at first while they are getting organized.

The New Prisons Commission replaced the old Prisons Advisory Council under legislation effective July 1st. The new commission is now the policy making and governing authority for the entire prisons system. The prisons system is now completely divorced —Turn to Page Six Short talks on farming, federal activities and other subjects will be given by Extension personnel, Federation department heads and others throughout the program.

Frank Boyd, Brevard store manager, promises plenty of ice cream and lemonade for all attending the picnic.

Max Roberts, educational director, is in charge of all the Federation picnics being held this summer.

Smathers Will Join US Archery Team Saturday

Brevard's O. K. Smathers is representing the southern part of the United States in the Eastern Archery tournament this week at Springfield, Ohio, and next week he will be shooting on the American team in Prague, Czechoslovakia, in the International tourney.

Other men representing America in Prague will be Joe Fries, of California, and Sylvester Chessman, of Springfield. On the ladies team are Ann Clark, of California, Betty Schmidt and Carol Meinhardt.

Smathers won his position on the American team at the recent National Archery tournament in Minneapolis, Minn., and he has been champion of the southeast for the past nine years.

Mr. Smathers flew to Springfield on Monday from Greenville, S. C., and he will join the American team in New York on Saturday.

Douglas Named To Historical Group

C. M. Douglas, of Brevard, has been named to the board of trustees of Cherokee Historical association for the fourth year and also was made a member of the executive committee.

The historical association produces the Indian pageant each year, "Unto These Hills," one of the greatest outdoor dramas in the world.

LIGHTNING HITS HERE

Brevard was hit by one terrific bolt of lightning Tuesday afternoon and it struck a power pole some 50 feet from Bridges Coal and Oil company.

"Besides splitting the pole and knocking out our telephone, the only other damage was nearly scaring us to death," Frank Bridges reported to The Times.

THOMAS R. ELLER

Representative Gaither Given Praise At Music Camp Banquet, Civic Clubs Meet On Saturday

Famed Harmonicist Will Be Heard In Special Concert With Orchestra

Paul Bryan will conduct the Transylvania concert band in their second appearance of the 1957 season on Friday evening, July 12, at the Brevard Music center. The band will play "Pines of the Apian Way" from "Pines of Rome" by Respighi; "Perpetual Motion" by Strauss; Mendelssohn's "Trumpet Overture"; pantomime from "Il Cid" by Sacchini; and Rossini's "Overture to the Journey to Rheims." William Walsh, faculty clarinetist, will play the Mendelssohn selection.

Civic club night will be observed on the evening of July 13. Clubs from Brevard and the surrounding area will attend dinner and a concert at the music center. The program will feature John Sebastian, world famous harmonica virtuoso.

Mr. Sebastian has appeared as soloist with the leading symphony orchestras of this country and Canada, and is a veteran of eight consecutive coast-to-coast concert tours. His unique talent has been enthusiastically acclaimed in Europe. He will play "Concerto in D. Major for Flute and Strings" by Boccherini, first performed by Sebastian in New York; and "Street Corner Concerto", especially composed for the harmonica by George Kleinsinger in 1947.

The orchestra of the faculty and staff, James Christian Pfohl conducting, will play Bach's "Brandenburg Concerto No. 3"; Riegger's "Dance Rhythms"; and selections from "My Fair Lady."

John Bitter will be guest conductor of the Transylvania symphony orchestra on Sunday afternoon, July 14, at 4 o'clock. Mr. Bitter, dean of the University of Miami school of music and conductor of its symphony orchestra, has toured the country as guest conductor of the nation's outstanding symphonies. "Appreciation Dinner" Is Held By Board Of Trustees. Letter Is Quoted

State Representative Jimmy Gaither was highly praised for his successful efforts in securing an appropriation of $15,000.00 from the state for the Brevard Music Foundation at a dinner meeting of trustees and friends of the institution held at the camp last Saturday night.

Approximately 200 persons from this section of the Carolinas attended the "appreciation dinner" and heard reports from members of the trustees and from Director James Christian Pfohl.

John Eversman, business manager of the Foundation and music camp, applauded Mr. Gaither for his work in the General Assembly and read a letter the trustees had received from a veteran representative in Sylva.

Marcellus Buchanan, III, wrote the trustees that "I would feel remiss in my obligation if I did not call to your attention the magnificent work Hon. James C. Gaither did for your organization and for the state during the recent Assembly.

"With like appropriations being killed methodically, Jimmy Gaither fought for and secured your appropriation of $15,000. This success is due wholly and solely to the personal efforts of your Representative. I know of no first-term member of the Assembly who made as many strong and lasting friends. I know of no member of the General Assembly who is more deserving of a vote of thanks from his people."

Ed Campbell, chairman of the board, presided at the dinner meeting and Director Pfohl gave a full and optimistic report on activities at the Transylvania Music Camp this season. Three other members of the board spoke briefly.

The trustees met Saturday afternoon and decided to hold the annual meeting in Brevard on Saturday, October 12.

FISH HATCHERY WORK IS BEGUN

Construction Of Residences And Office Building Started At John's Rock

Construction of the Federal Fish Hatchery at the John's Rock site in Pisgah National forest was commenced on Monday with a crew of workmen building three residences and a supply and office building.

Hollifield Contracting company, of Asheville, has the contract, and plans call for having the buildings completed by cold weather.

They will be of brick and cement blocks.

Contract for the pools and dams will not get started until later in the year, it is understood from the supervisor.

Mrs. Rich On Staff At Georgia Academy

Mrs. Ruth W. Rich, of Brevard and Marietta, Georgia, has accepted a position on the staff of Georgia Military academy, at College Park, Georgia, it was learned this week.

Mrs. Rich has been teaching at Oglethorpe college in Georgia, and she will assume her new position in the immediate future. Her son is an outstanding senior at the academy.

Prior to going to Cobb county, Georgia, a few years ago, Mrs. Rich operated a private school here on Park avenue.

In 1955 she was elected the "favorite teacher" in Cobb county.
