

Transylvania Schools Open Monday, Increase In Enrollment Is Predicted

ALL TEACHERS AND PRINCIPALS MEET ON FRIDAY

All Vacancies Have Been Filled. Bus Drivers Met Wednesday

BRADBURN QUOTED

Contrary to the situation in the state and nation, all teacher vacancies in Transylvania county have been filled. Supt. Wayne Bradburn announces today.

Transylvania has a total of 130 teachers, and the last vacancy was filled by Paul Shepherd, of Bethel. Mr. Shepherd, who holds a master's degree, will teach English and French at Rosman.

Supt. Bradburn announces a county-wide meeting of principals and teachers for Friday morning at 10 o'clock in the Brevard high school auditorium.

Plans for the year will be outlined at that time, and the new teachers will be introduced. Special guests will include the members of the board of education and presidents of the various P-T-A organizations in the county.

Supt. Bradburn cordially invites the public to attend the meeting, and the program will also include group singing under the direction

—Turn To Page Six

SAFETY EVER - FIRES NEVER

DUPONT CONTRACTORS

SAFE EXP HOURS DAYS

N. D. LITCHFIELD, the new field project manager for the construction of the multi-million dollar silicon plant at Buck Forest, is pictured at the left being welcomed to the plant site by Harold F. Redmile, his predecessor. Mr. Redmile was transferred Monday to Nashville, Tennessee, where he will have charge of the construction of a large addition to Du Pont's Old Hickory plant that makes rayon. A native of Birmingham, Alabama, Mr. Litchfield came to Brevard from Martinsville, Virginia. He has been with the Du Pont company for the past 17 years. (Times Staff Photo)

ALL PLANTS NOW FIRST-CLASS IN TOWN, COUNTY

Half-Day Sessions Are Planned. Students Assignments Are Made

REGULATION CITED

School bells will ring Monday morning, August 26th, in Transylvania county.

Classes will begin promptly at 8:40 o'clock, and they will be recessed at noon on the first day.

Activities on Monday will include class assignments, issuing of books and materials, etc. Cafeterias in the town and county will open on Wednesday.

An increase in enrollment is expected. Last year the daily attendance was 4,006, and over 4,100 students are expected to be on hand when the schools open Monday.

The colored high school students in Transylvania will not begin school until Sept. 1st, when the Henderson county schools open.

With the opening of the new T. C. Henderson school at Quebec, all students in Transylvania county now go to first-class school buildings, Supt. Wayne Bradburn announces.

The old school houses at Silverstein and Lake Toxaway have been converted into community club houses, and students in these areas will go to the modern school at Quebec. Pupils at Balsam Grove will go to Rosman.

Students from the Selica area who went to Straus school last year will continue to do so, while new students in that community will be transported to Brevard, Supt. Bradburn states.

Considerable repair and repaint work has been completed in the schools of the county, and Supt. Bradburn says that everything is in readiness for the opening of the 1957-58 term on Monday.

Boys and girls enrolled in the first grade should present their certificates of immunization and parents are reminded to see that they have them.

MANY ATTENDED BOOSTER BANQUET

Coach Tatum Is Heard. Jackson Is New President Of Club

Approximately 250 persons attended the annual "kick-off" banquet of the Brevard Booster club Tuesday night in the Masonic temple and heard Jim Tatum, head coach of the football team at the University of North Carolina, make an inspiring talk on the favorite American sport.

Coach Tatum compared football to the game of life, and he urged his hearers to be "good sports".

"The greatest reason for failures today is the lack of concentration, and anything that is worth doing is worth giving it all you have," Coach Tatum declared.

On a whirlwind campaign around Western North Carolina, Coach Tatum admitted that he was looking over several prospects in this area.

He also stated that he doesn't

—Turn to Page Twelve

Four Transylvanians Inducted In Service

Four Transylvania young men were inducted into the armed service during the past week, Mrs. Tom Galloway, clerk to the local draft board, announces today.

The men reported to Charlotte for induction, and they are: Robert Wayne Burgess, Arnold Calvin Ray, Harry Eugene Nicholson and Tommy Walker Chapman.

Mrs. Galloway announces that Transylvania does not have a draft call for the month of September.

The board needs the latest address of Melton Elijah Mooney, Mrs. Galloway says, and anyone having any information regarding his present whereabouts is asked to notify the draft office.

NO CASES HERE OF ASIATIC FLU

Health Department Has Received No Word When Vaccine Available

No definite cases of the new Asiatic flu have been diagnosed in Transylvania county, according to information received by the Transylvania Health department.

Mrs. Jessie Lollis says they have received no definite information about when the vaccine will be made available locally.

The latest bulletin from Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney, of the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, states that first supplies of a vaccine against Asian influenza are expected to become available to the public during September.

Dr. Burney said the six manufac-

—Turn to Page Twelve

12-YEAR OLD GIRL DROWNS IN PISGAH

Firemen Tried For Two Hours To Revive Victim Last Thursday P. M.

A 12-year old Candler girl was drowned about noon last Thursday while swimming in the Davidson River swimming pool in the Pisgah National forest.

She was Hope Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Morgan, who live on the Mt. Pisgah road near Candler.

The girl was swimming with her sister, Mary Morgan, and a cousin, Wanda Roberts.

Efforts of members of the Brevard fire department to revive the girl were in vain. Assisted by Chase Ambler and Pete Payne, of

—Turn to Page Six

The Weather

During the past week, more than three inches of rain fell in Transylvania county. The all-night drizzle Sunday night totaled some 2.4 inches. The temperatures during the week were most mild, with cool readings at night-time.

The daily readings were as follows:

	High	Low	Pre.
Wednesday	86	64	.02
Thursday	89	66	0
Friday	90	59	.08
Saturday	85	58	.03
Sunday	75	64	1.06
Monday	77	61	2.14
Tuesday	78	58	.06

CONSTRUCTION on Du Pont's multi-million dollar silicon plant at Buck Forest is proceeding on schedule, and an overall picture of the work to date can be noted in the top photo. The water tank at the right and the smokestack at the left have been completed. Workmen putting up the structural steel for the main building are shown in the bottom photo. The plant is expected to be completed in early '58; some 235 persons are now engaged in building it.

(Times Staff Photo)

Final Week End Of Gala Festival Opens With Biltmore House Concert

Change Is Made From Asheville's City Auditorium For "Carmen" Program

The Brevard Music center's production of Bizet's "Carmen," originally scheduled for the Asheville City auditorium, will be moved to fabulous Biltmore Estate. The concert will be Friday evening, Aug. 23, at 8:30 p. m., and will open the final week end of festival programs.

Four distinguished soloists will appear with the Gala Festival orchestra, conducted by James Christian Pfoh, and the 150-voice chorus, under the direction of Gordon Page, against the world's most beautiful concert backdrop.

Clara Mae Turner, contralto, will sing the title role. Don Jose will be interpreted by tenor Walter Fredericks, who is making his second festival appearance. Laura Castellano, soprano, will sing Micela, and Escamillo will be portrayed by baritone Philip Maero.

Lighting effects for the French

—Turn to Page Six

Three Poachers Draw Sentences For Deer Hunting

Three men who were arrested Sunday on charges of illegal hunting in the Pisgah National Forest have drawn prison sentences from U. S. Commissioner Lawrence C. Stoker, of Asheville.

They are Dealux Dexter Duncan of Selica, who got a five-month sentence, Leonard Barton, of Brevard, and Ernest Orr, of Cherryville.

The three were charged with hunting deer out of season in the national forest, a violation of federal law. The arrest was made by Jack Owens, Ralph Swicegood, Jim Regener and Bill Phipps, refuge protectors.

The protectors were attracted by a shotgun blast in the woods behind Owens' home. Upon investigation they discovered the three men in a car with loaded guns.

Outstanding Pianist To Be Heard On Saturday. Famed Violinist On Sunday

The two final concerts of the 1957 Gala Festival of music will feature two internationally-known soloists at the Brevard Music Center this week end.

On Saturday evening, pianist Ruth Slenczynska will appear with the Gala Festival orchestra, James Christian Pfohl conducting. Called the "most phenomenal keyboard prodigy since Mozart," she was world famous by the time she was eight years old. Fresh from successes in over a hundred capitals of Europe and America, this celebrated pianist is now on a nationwide tour.

Miss Slenczynska, whose life story recently appeared in McCall's magazine and Reader's Digest, is today an acclaimed virtuosa, and has to her credit a long career of distinguished achievement. She has appeared in movies, played on the

—Turn to Page Seven

CALENDAR OF COMING EVENTS

Thursday, August 22 — Children's Story Hour, Library, 9:30 a. m. B & PW club meets, 7 p. m., Camp Straus. Masonic meeting in temple, 8 p. m.

Friday, Aug. 23 — Principals and teachers meet, Brevard high school, 10 a. m.

Saturday, Aug. 24 — Little League Double Header, college field, 2 p. m. Baseball at Camp Straus, 3 p. m. Concert of Gala Festival, Brevard Music Center, 8:15 p. m.

Sunday, Aug. 25 — Attend the church of your choice, 11 a. m. Final concert of Gala Festival, 4 p. m.

Monday, Aug. 26 — Schools open at 8:40 a. m. Rotary club meets at 7 p. m., Gaither's.

Tuesday, Aug. 27 — Gold Star mothers chapter meets at 7 p. m., with Mrs. J. A. McCrary. Boosters club meets at Brevard high school at 7:30 p. m.

1957	AUGUST							1957
				1	2	3
4	5	6	7	8	9	10
11	12	13	14	15	16	17
18	19	20	21	22	23	24
25	26	27	28	29	30	31
	SEPTEMBER
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
	8	9	10	11	12	13	14
	15	16	17	18	19	20	21
	22	23	24	25	26	27	28
	29	30

REFERENDUM FRIDAY — Farmers and other users of feed and fertilizer go to the polls Friday to decide the fate of North Carolina's unique "Nickels for Know-How" program. If two-thirds vote to continue the program another three years many highly important agricultural research projects supported by the program will continue to function. If not, research in general will suffer.