

PLANS FOR CLEAN-UP week in Brevard are being completed by the group above, with Mrs. Samuel Bullock, president of the newly organized Brevard Civic council, holding up a "V-For-Victory" sign. At the left is Mrs. C. J. Goodwin, president of the Brevard Garden club, and at the right is Mrs. J. A. Macfie, president of the Transylvania

Garden club. Standing is Cecil J. Hill, president of the Brevard chamber of commerce. Next week has been designated as "Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up" week here and the public is asked to give full cooperation to the movement in an effort to make Brevard more beautiful. (Times Staff Photo)

Contracts Being Let, Bonds Are Sold For The New High School Building

CLEAN-UP WEEK SCHEDULED HERE BY CIVIC GROUP

Mayor And Board Issue Proclamation, Public Cooperation Sought

In an effort to make Brevard more beautiful, a "Clean-Up" campaign will be conducted here all next week.

Sponsoring the event will be the newly organized Brevard Civic council, with the Transylvania Garden club and the Brevard Garden club assisting.

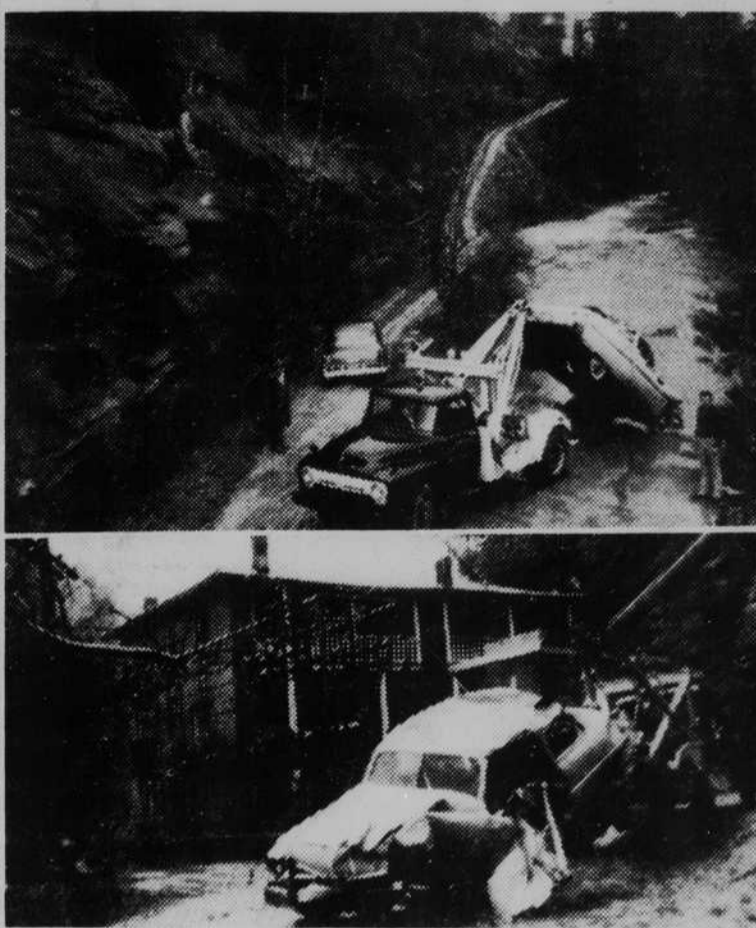

Mayor Bert H. Freeman and the town board of aldermen have issued a proclamation asking the complete cooperation of the public.

Citizens are being asked to clean their property, their sidewalks and driveways, repair and paint fences, as well as vacant lots. Elimination of fire hazards is also asked, and Brevard citizens are reminded that if they want to burn trash, they must secure permission of the fire department by calling 2-6101, which is the shortwave radio room.

A clean-up campaign will also be conducted in the business area.

The council has elaborate plans for beautification of Brevard. Reversible signs are planned at the various entrances, and it is hoped that enough interest in beautifying the town can be stimulated so that a general face-lifting will be given to the business area.

Sturdy benches are being placed —Turn to Page Six

THE OCCUPANTS OF THE CAR above escaped with their lives by jumping out just before it ran off the Cascade Lake road and into Little River, some 150-200 feet below. Actually, the car went over the steep embankment and bounced on the yard of the house at the power company right into the river. The driver, James Hoots, of Flat Rock, said the accident was due to faulty steering rod. A wrecker is shown pulling the car out of the river in the top photo, and the demolished condition of the car can be noted better in the lower picture.

SOME REVISIONS NECESSARY SINCE BIDS OVER FUNDS

Boards Hold Joint Meeting. Group Is Pleased With Sale

DELAY IS SLIGHT

This past week could well go down in history for the Brevard high school since the bids were opened, the bonds were sold, and it is expected that work will begin in approximately 30 days for the new high school building.

The bids for the new structure, plus much of the equipment, totaled $864,741, and the low bid for the general contract went to W. E. Dale Construction Co., of Morganton, in the amount of $544,000.

The board of education has been in the process of going over these bids before accepting all of them since the amount was in excess of what they had to spend.

The architects, McDonald and Daniels, are now in the process of revising the school plans in order to cut the costs. The heating bid of $139,581, by the Sanitary Plumbing and Heating Co., of Greenville, S. C., will not be accepted.

At a call meeting of the Board of Education Wednesday morning, with the county commissioners they passed a resolution asking the architect to revise heating plans and to call for new bids.

Also at this meeting the board passed a resolution to send an application to the State Board of Education to borrow $21,000 from the History fund.

The architect advised the board that the revision in plans would mean a lower figure from the general contractor and that they were already working closely with the Dale company.

County Attorney Ralph H. Ransley reported to the board on the sale of the bonds for the building in Raleigh Tuesday. The school —Turn to Page Six

Registration Books For Primary Open Saturday, Registrars And Judges Given

One Republican Race Noted. Independents Will Not Be Eligible To Vote

With the primary election only 30 days away, interest in politics locally increases, and George Shuford, chairman of the Transylvania county board of elections, today announces precinct registrars and judges.

The registration books will be open on Saturday, and they will remain open on the following two Saturdays, May 24th is challenge day, and the primary is set for May 31st.

Mr. Shuford emphasizes that only registered Democrats will be eligible to vote in the May 31st primary. However, there is one Republican race in which Republicans can vote, that being the congressional seat from the 12th district in which Ray H. Kimel opposes W. Harold Sams.

Independents will not be allowed to vote in the May 31st primary and Mr. Shuford says that anyone in doubt as to his registration should check with the registrar.

Persons who are already registered will not need to register again. The registration is for new persons, and persons who have moved from one precinct to another within 30 days prior to the primary, must secure a transfer slip.

There are 18 precincts in the county, and the list of registrars and judges is as follows:

Boyd — Mrs. Virginia Pitillo, registrar; Elmer McLean, Democratic Judge; Mrs. Wae Mann, Republican Judge.

Brevard No. 1 — Kenneth Moore, Registrar; H. W. Gregory. —Turn to Page Six

Several Events To Highlight Local Observance Of HD Week

Several events are being planned by the Transylvania Home Demonstration clubs in observance of National Home Demonstration week May 4th through 10th.

The first event will be a frozen food school on Monday at 2 p. m. in Gaither's. It will be conducted by Miss Nita Orr, Extension frozen food specialist from State college. All women who desire information on freezing will be welcomed at this program.

A fashion show will be held Thursday, May 8th, at 8 p. m., in the Fellowship Hall of the Presbyterian church.

Award Given To James C. Rickards By Chemical Group

James C. Rickards, of Brevard, was guest of honor and after dinner speaker at a convention of the National Congress of the Alpha Beta Gamma Chemistry society Saturday at the Grove Park Inn in Asheville.

The subject of his talk was "Education and the Scientific Method." The meeting was attended by faculty members and students from colleges affiliated with the society, and this includes Brevard college.

During Saturday's meeting, Mr. Rickards was elected an honorary member of the National Society. —Turn to Page Six terian church. Mrs. R. L. Cansler, the county clothing chairman, is in charge of arrangements. Only homemade clothes will be modeled and they will be divided in children's, teen ager's and adult's divisions.

This will not be competitive and no prizes will be awarded for the clothes.

Miss Anne Benson Priest, the home agent, announces that for the month of May two clubs are meeting together.

On Friday the Cathey's Creek club goes to meet with the Little River club at the community center at 8 p. m.

College Trustees Will Meet Friday

Trustees of Brevard college will meet here at the institution for the annual spring meeting on Friday. President Emmett K. McLarty announces.

Committee sessions are slated at 10:00 o'clock, followed by the general meeting at 11:00 a. m. A luncheon is planned in the faculty dining room of the new campus center building.

Wives of the trustees and special guests are being invited to a morning coffee from 10:00 o'clock until noon in the Annabel Jones hall.

International Festival For Girl Scouts Set Here

Plans are being formulated this week for a Summer Arts festival for senior Girl Scouts at Brevard college from July 9th to the 13th.

Mrs. Corinne M. Murphy, program specialist on the National executive staff of the U. S. A., has arrived here, and she is working out details with the local resource committee, headed by Mrs. Julius Sader.

Pointing out that the Arts festival is the first national event of its type ever offered by the Girl Scout organization, Mrs. Murphy noted that a total of 96 girls from all parts of the United States and from six foreign countries and territories are expected to attend.

"The festival will be an experimental project," Mrs. Murphy said. "Its purpose is to encourage girls talented in the arts by providing an opportunity for vocational exploration, for personal sat-

—Turn to Page Seven

Transylvania's 4-H Club Members Make Good Showing At District Meeting Saturday

NATIONAL MUSIC WEEK IS PLANNED

Many Events Are Set Locally. Mayor Issues Special Proclamation

Many special events are being planned locally in observance of National Music week, May 4th-10th.

The Brevard Music Lovers club, with Mrs. Julius Sader as chairman, is sponsoring the observance in Transylvania, and Brevard's mayor, B. H. Freeman, has issued a special proclamation, designating the week as "National Music week" here.

Among the special events are: an organ recital Sunday afternoon at the Brevard Methodist church; a musicale at Brevard college Tuesday night; auditions for music scholarships to the college and to the music camp at Brevard college on May 10th; and organ recital at the college next Friday evening. "Life Means More With Music" is the general theme of National Music week, and in his proclamation, Mayor Freeman points out: "Emphasis should be placed on —Turn to Page Six

Some 30 Boys And Girls Represented County At Clyde Erwin School

Transylvania county 4-H club members made an outstanding showing at the 4-H district demonstration day held last Saturday at the Clyde Erwin high school in Asheville.

Approximately 30 club members from this county attended and participated in the demonstration programs, talent and public speaking activities of the day.

There were more than 400 4-H club members from Western North Carolina counties taking part in the day's activities. All first place winners, except recreation leader, will represent Transylvania county in their respective field at state 4-H club week in Raleigh July 20-28.

Participants from Transylvania county are as follows: Beekeeping — Phil Leslie, Straus school, white ribbon; dairy foods (Ind.) Betty Lyda, Brevard, Sr., red ribbon; boys electric — Ed and John Matheson, Brevard senior and junior, respectively, white ribbon; girls electric — Linda Tinsley and Judy Mims, Brevard senior, red ribbon.

Entomology — Douglas Israel and Joe Farmer, Brevard seniors. —Turn to Page Seven

BTU CLINIC IS PLANNED HERE

All 32 Churches To Take Part. State Workers Conducting Classes

The Transylvania Baptist association, which consists of 32 churches, will hold a Training Union clinic at the First Baptist church in Brevard Monday through Thursday, May 5-8, from 7:15 to 9:15 each evening.

The faculty will be headed by William Spradlin, State Training Union secretary. Other state workers will teach classes. The workers and the classes they will teach are as follows: Mrs. Naomi Braswell, adults; Mrs. Weber Jordan, intermediates; Mrs. E. F. Baker, juniors; Mrs. Sarah Hull, beginners, primaries and nursery leaders.

Local persons will teach the other classes and all age groups will be included.

This clinic is expected to be widely attended and the largest of its kind ever held in this area. In addition to the 32 churches of the association, churches outside the county are expected to send representatives to the meeting.

Ruel Whitmire is the association training union director.

Will Advertise Delinquent Tax Lists Next Week

Delinquent tax list for towns of Brevard and Rosman and Transylvania county will be published in The Times next week (issue of May 8), according to C. M. Douglas, tax collector.

Taxes paid through Saturday noon of this week will not appear in the list. It is necessary that the list be closed on Saturday in order to take care of the large job of typesetting in The Times office, Mr. Douglas pointed out. There will be no advertising charge for any items paid through Wednesday, May 7.

CALENDAR OF COMING EVENTS

- Thursday, May 1 — Lions club meets at Gaither's, 7 p. m. Masonic meeting in the temple, 7:30 p. m.
- Friday, May 2 — Brevard college trustees meet, 10 a. m., Friday. Fish supper in the Masonic temple, 5 to 8 p. m. Kiwanis club meets at Gaither's, 7 p. m.
- Saturday, May 3 — Registration books open for primary election. May Day at Brevard college, 4 p. m.
- Sunday, May 4 — Attend the church of your choice. Open House at the Teen Age Center, 3 to 5 p. m. Organ recital at Brevard Methodist church, 4 p. m.
- Monday, May 5 — Clean-Up week begins. Rotary club meets at Gaither's, 7 p. m. BTU Clinic begins at First Baptist church, 7:15 p. m.
- Tuesday, May 6 — Book and Plate club dinner, 6:45 p. m., at Colonial Inn. Musicales at the college, 7:30 p. m. Lutheran Women to meet, 8 p. m. Eastern Star meets in Masonic temple, 8 p. m.

GIRL SCOUT EXECUTIVES, above, are shown as they make plans for an international Summer Arts festival at Brevard college in July for senior Girl Scouts. Left to right, are: Mrs. Corinne Murphy, of New York, who is a national executive; Mrs. Helen McElyea, executive director, Pisgah Girl Scout council;

Miss Elizabeth Figner, of Atlanta, Ga., who is also a member of the national council; Mrs. Heinz Rollman, of Waynesville, a member of the Pisgah board of directors; and, Mrs. Julius Sader, chairman of the local resource committee in charge of festival arrangements. (Times Staff Photo)

Program Highlights

Special Programs Will Be Heard On WPNF During National Music Week

In observance of National Music week, WPNF will broadcast a series of special programs all next week under the direction of the Brevard Music Lovers club.

These programs will be heard each evening at 7:00 o'clock and will feature members of the club, as well as the students receiving superior rating in the recent junior music festival at Brevard college.

As a forerunner of the local observance of National Music week, A. Martin will interview John D. Eversman, director of the Brevard high school band on "Coffee Time" Saturday morning. Selections by the band will also be heard.

On the first program of the special series next Monday night, compositions by Donald Lee Moore, well-known Brevard composer, will be heard.

Other Programs

The schedule for the Farm and Home hour for the coming week is as follows: Thursday, Brevard home ec. dept., Mrs. Glenn Burrill; Friday, U. S. Forestry, Ted Seely; Monday, county agent's of —Turn to Page Six