

"A TRAVEL HOST SCHOOL" for persons directly serving visitors in Brevard and Transylvania county is being planned here for the first week in June. Sponsored by the Travel Council of North Carolina in cooperation with the health departments and the North Carolina Association of Quality Restaurants, the schools are now being conducted in many towns and cities of the state. Making plans for the school here, left to right, are: Bill Broadway, district sanitarian; James C. Gaither, vice president of the state restaurant association; Carl Whitehurst, area supervisor of distributive education for the state; and, Walter F. Hart, director of sanitation for the local health department.

(Times Staff Photo)

To Open Bids On Heating System For New Brevard High School On Thursday

Should Amount Fall Within Money Allocated, Work To Begin Immediately

Bids on the heating system for the new Brevard high school will be opened Thursday morning at 10 o'clock by the board of education in the superintendent's office.

If the low bid falls within the budgeted amount construction of the new high school can be started in early June. Supt. Wayne Bradburn points out.

If the low bid is accepted by the board, Mr. Bradburn will take it to Raleigh for final approval by the state board on Friday.

When the board opened the bids for the new high school on April 24th, the lowest heating bid offered was in the amount of $139,581 from the Sanitary Plumbing and Heating Co., of Greenville, S. C.

This was the only bid that was not accepted by the board, and Architects McDonald and Daniels were authorized to revise the heating plans in order that the heating project be reduced in cost.

The new system will be of a hot water circulating type with separate pumps for certain areas as shown on the drawings.

The bids for the new high school plus much of the equipment, totaled $864,741, and the low bid for the general contract work went to W. E. Dale Construction Co., of Morganton, in the amount of $544,000.

CALENDAR OF COMING EVENTS

Thursday, May 22 — B & PW club meets at Gaither's, 7 p. m. Court of honor at the Presbyterian church, 7:30 p. m. Masonic meeting in the temple at 8 p. m.

Friday, May 23 — Brevard Garden club meets with Mrs. Lewis Hamlin at 3:30 p. m. Cub Scout Packs to meet at 7 p. m.

Saturday, May 24 — Poppy Day, Challenge Day at the polls from 9 a. m. till 3 p. m. Olin Mathieson Indians vs. Hazelwood at Camp Straus, 3 p. m. Brevard Little Theatre annual dinner, 7 p. m. Ace of Clubs meets at 7:45 p. m.

Sunday, May 25 — Attend the church of your choice. Choir Festival at First Baptist church, 4 p. m.

Monday, May 26 — Rotary club meets at Gaither's, 7 p. m. Brevard Music Lovers club meets at 8 p. m., with Mrs. J. M. Allison. Town zoning board meets at city hall, 8 p. m.

Tuesday, May 27 — Gold Star —Turn to Page Six

Effective May 31st

Brevard Post Office Is Adding New Routes Of Delivery Service

Due to the vast amount of expansion and building just outside the city limits of Brevard, the Post Office department has authorized a new alignment of the city and rural delivery service, Vernon P. Fullbright, the acting postmaster, announces today.

The town of Brevard has been divided, deliverywise, north and south of Main street.

Also, some territory from route two has been added to the mounted delivery service, and the postmaster is listing the new changes in order that patrons may have some idea of the new territory.

1. Due to the large volume of mail on RFD No. 2 it becomes necessary to transfer to the mounted delivery service. The following named streets have been transferred from RFD No. 2 to mounted delivery: Silverstein, Carolina avenue, Forest Hill road and Glazener road. Patrons on the streets will be assigned a house number, and it would be greatly appreciated if people would cooperate in —Turn to Page Seven

Bobby Hoyle Given Plaque At Jaycee State Convention

Bobby Hoyle, the outgoing president of the Brevard Jaycees, was presented with a plaque for outstanding service in the district at the State Convention last week end in Raleigh.

Ten plaques were awarded in the state for this honor, and clubs included in the same district with Brevard are: Black Mountain, Asheville, Hendersonville, Canton, Waynesville, Jackson county, Franklin and Bryson City.

State vice president Bill Norris also attended the convention from Brevard.

Garibaldi To Address Local League On Changes In State Penal System

Brevard's League of Women Voters has invited Linn D. Garibaldi, chairman of the North Carolina State Prison commission, to bring an up-to-date message to the organization on the changes in the administration of the state penal system, since its separation from the State Highway department in 1957.

The meeting at which Mr. Garibaldi will be the principal speaker will be held on Tuesday night, May 27th, at 8:00 o'clock in Gaither's Rhododendron room. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Garibaldi will be introduced by Thomas R. Eller, town attorney, who is a member of the State Prison commission.

The North Carolina League of —Turn to Page Seven

LINN D. GARIBALDI

Interest In May 31st Primary Said Increasing, Light Vote Is Expected

MORE BUILDINGS BEING ADDED AT TROUT HATCHERY

Much Construction Progress Noted With Fair Weather. Report Is Made

Invitations to bid on two additional houses for the new Trout Hatchery in Pisgah National forest will be let within the week, it is announced by Maurice Bryant, the hatchery superintendent.

Mr. Bryant states that construction must start before July 1st.

This will bring the total number of new residences at the hatchery site to five, since three other homes are now nearing completion.

Mr. Bryant reports that much progress has been made in the past week on the contract which is held by the W. G. Hollifield Co., of Asheville.

Included in this contract are the three residences, with garages, public rest rooms, the equipment building which has workshops and five truck stalls, and the oil and paint house.

Construction is also underway on spillways and dams as well as roaring pools. The bridge across the river is in use but it is not yet completed. Contracts for these are held by the Terry Construction company, of Greenville, S. C.

The Allan Construction company —Turn to Page Seven

REV. BEN F. ORMAND, left, local Presbyterian minister, will exchange his pastorate with Rev. David MacIntyre Bell Armour Smith, right, Scottish minister from Edinburgh, for the next three months. The entire Ormand family will leave next week for Scotland. The Rev. Smith will preach his first sermon at the Brevard-Davidson River Presbyterian church on Sunday, June 8th.

CANDIDATES FOR SHERIFF HOLDING LOCAL SPOTLIGHT

Party Chairmen Urge Qualified Voters To Ballot For Man Of Their Choice

LIGHT REGISTRATION

Interest in the Primary election here on May 31st is increasing, however, political observers are predicting a light vote of around 2500 votes.

Interest locally is centered in two races, for sheriff and for congress.

According to George Shuford, chairman of the Transylvania board of elections, registration was slow in all the precincts during the last three Saturdays.

This Saturday, May 24th, is challenge day, and the registrars will be at the various polling places in the county from 9:00 Saturday morning until 3:00 o'clock that afternoon.

The four candidates for sheriff are busy contacting voters throughout the county. The incumbent, E. V. "Scott" Dillingham, is being opposed by Claude Melton, Eugene S. Wilson and Lloyd L. Wood.

Three of the candidates in the congressional race have been visiting recently in Transylvania. They are George Shuford, the incumbent, Beverly Middleton and Heinz Rollman. The other two candidates in the race are Sanford Brown and Arch Nicholson Wallace.

James C. Gaither, chairman of —Turn to Page Six

Rev. Ben Ormand, Scotsman To Exchange Churches For Summer

Rev. David Smith To Preach First Sermon June 8th. Ormands Sail 29th

Rev. Ben F. Ormand, pastor of the Brevard-Davidson River Presbyterian church, and a Scottish minister, Rev. David MacIntyre Bell Armour Smith, of Edinburgh, will exchange pastorates for the summer months.

The Rev. Ormand will leave Brevard on Thursday, May 29th, and sail on June 2nd from Montreal, Canada. The Rev. Smith arrives on June 6th and preaches his first sermon here on Sunday, June 8th. He will remain through August 31st.

The two ministers are exchanging not only pastorates, but also homes, cars and salaries. The Rev. Ormand will take his wife and two sons with him to Scotland, but the Scottish minister is coming alone since his two sons are quite young.

A going away party will be given by the local Presbyterian congregation for the Ormands at the church on Tuesday night, May 27th.

Mr. Smith studied for a year at Edinburgh University before entering the Royal air force in 1942. He was a pilot and officer in the RAF. He graduated in 1947 from St. Andrews University with a masters degree. In 1950 he received his bachelor of divinity degree, taking the bronze medal in divinity.

From 1950-1952 Mr. Smith served as assistant minister in the great St. George's West church of Edinburgh. Since 1952 he has been pastor of the Notable Warrander church which has over 600 members. Mr. Smith is chaplain to the army cadet battalion and to the Bruntsfield hospital.

Dr. James S. Stewart, the outstanding professor of New Testament at Edinburgh University writes this about Mr. Smith: "He is an excellent preacher, forceful and evangelical in the best sense. He has taken a leading part in many evangelistic efforts in Scotland, and is well known and beloved by honor." —Turn to Page Six

TRAVEL SCHOOL PLANNED HERE

Persons Coming In Direct Contact With Visitors Invited To Attend

Plans for Travel Host school in Brevard were formulated at a meeting of operators of restaurants, motels, service stations, etc., in the area with local and district health officials in Gaither's Rhododendron room last Thursday afternoon.

The purpose of the school is to train key personnel in businesses which deal with the traveling public.

The principal speakers at the organizational meeting were Walter F. Hart, senior sanitarian of the local health department; Bill Broadway, district sanitarian with the State Board of Health serving —Turn to Page Six

Jaycees Will Operate A Safety-Check-Lane Here

A safety-check-lane, sponsored by the Brevard Jaycees, will be set up in Brevard next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 29th - 31st.

The check-lane is being held in cooperation with the State Highway patrol, and is a free service to all motorists.

Local garages will supply qualified mechanics to give motorists a surprisingly quick 10-point check-up on their vehicles.

A certified sticker will be awarded each vehicle passing all the inspection points.

The lone check-lane will not necessitate blocking off Main street, and safety material will be given out to all passing motorists.

Cub Scouts Will Meet Friday At Various Churches

The four Cub Packs for Brevard will meet simultaneously this Friday night, at 7 o'clock.

Pack 703, sponsored by the Presbyterian church, will meet at this church. The pack includes the area of Asheville highway, Camp Straus, Pisgah Heights and Pisgah Forest.

The Lions club Pack 705 will meet at the Methodist church. Their area is Country club road section.

Pack 706, sponsored by the Lutheran church, will meet at the Lutheran church. Their area includes the streets East of Broad street.

Pack 711, sponsored by the Methodist church, will also meet at the Methodist church. The area includes all streets west of Broad street.

All Cubs and their parents are urged to attend the pack meeting for their area, and also any boys wishing to join are invited.

Court Of Honor Slated Thursday

The regular quarterly Boy Scout court of honor for the Transylvania district will be held this Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock in the Brevard-Davidson River Presbyterian church in Brevard.

A most interesting program is planned, with D. C. Dills giving a demonstration on the topic "Rocks and Minerals". The film "Banners over Valley Forge", showing actual scenes at the annual scout jamboree, will be projected.

A number of awards and advancements in rank will be presented, including tenderfoot and all ranks through Eagle Scout.

All Scouts, parents and scouters in Transylvania county are urged to attend this quarterly court of honor.

Program Highlights

WPNF Catering To Motoring Public On Sunday Afternoons, Log Reviewed

With the opening of the spring season and as hundreds and hundreds of motorists travel the scenic highways of Transylvania each week end, WPNF is adding to their riding pleasure by playing tops in music for easy listening. Al Martin, the program director, announces.

Immediately following the baseball game each Sunday afternoon the local station carries the best in modern day music along with all-time favorites. Also, traveling tips, weather conditions, the time and temperature punctuate the "Say It With Music" program until 6:00 p. m.

Mr. Martin also announces that the "Valentines" of Brevard college will be heard on "Coffee Time", on Saturday morning. Composing this outstanding quartet are: Edith Houck, Shirley Moses, Ben Edwards and Bennie Martin.

Other Programs

The schedule for the Farm and Home hour for the coming week is as follows: Thursday, soil conserva- —Turn to Page Seven

SATURDAY WILL BE POPPY DAY

Mrs. Shirley Clark In Charge For Legion Auxiliary. Vets Make Flowers

Saturday, May 24th will be Poppy Day in Brevard and throughout much of the nation. The day will see millions of Americans wearing bright red poppies in tribute to those who have given their lives in defense of the nation.

The little flowers of remembrance will be distributed on the streets throughout the day by volunteer "flower girls" from the American Legion Auxiliary.

Poppy Day activities here will start early Saturday morning when the corps of volunteers organized by Mrs. Shirley Clark, the Auxiliary's Poppy chairman, will be out with their baskets of poppies to greet citizens on their way to work. They will continue to work throughout the day, covering outlying business centers as well as the downtown district.

Contributions for the auxiliary's work for disabled veterans and needy children of veterans will be received by the Poppy Day volunteers. These contributions form the major source of support for the

—Turn to Page Six

Choir Festival At First Baptist Church On Sunday

A Choir Festival, featuring junior and youth choirs and the Brevard civic chorus, will be held this Sunday afternoon, May 25, at 4 p. m., in the First Baptist church.

"Jesus Our Saviour" will be the theme of the festival that is being directed by Mrs. Duncan Hunter.

The participating choirs and their directors are Brevard Methodist church, Nelson Adams; Presbyterian church, Ralph Reed; St. Philip's Episcopal church, Brevard, Mrs. Harry Newland; St. James Episcopal church, Hendersonville, Charles Jolliff; and the civic chorus directed by Mr. Adams.

Each choir will sing several selections alone and the combined choirs will also join in several songs.

The selections are based on different events in the life of Christ. The public is invited to attend this program.