SCORES HIT . . . From time to time, the Transylvania chapter of the American Red Cross sends entertainment to the veterans at Moore General hospital, Swannanoa. Recently, Brevard's Gil Coan was a tremendous hit with the patients. For some 30 minutes Gil told of his experiences in 10 years of professional baseball, and then for another 30 minutes he conducted a question and answer program, during which many prizes were awarded. Red Cross officials here are to be highly commended for the services they render to the disabled veterans. This is another example of some of the fine work of the Red Cross during peacetime.

TURNING PRO? . . . Several local golfers, and especially those with whom he was playing, suggested to Al Perkins that he should turn professional last week end. It seems that one of his opponents, Wayne Braddurn, was on the No. 5 green, which is a par five hole, in two shots, and Perkins was off to the left in the trap. With deadly accuracy, he slammed the ball in the hole for an eagle, and, you guessed it: Brad missed the easy one. But we understand that the school superintendent got "back in the ball game", as he usually does, on the next hole. Incidentally, Braddurn is hoping to be able to vacation at the same time the National Lefthanders' tournament is held.

PLANNING LEAGUE . . . Marshall Gillespie and Charles Link are planning a bowling league for both men and women at the bowling center this summer. If you're interested, contact them.

OPENING . . . Saturday will be a big day at Camp Straus. And Manager George Tesnow will be the happiest man of the day, if the Indians can come through with a win over Hazelwood. By the way, Joe Rhinehart, an ex Hazelwood batting star, will wear an Indian uniform this summer and will be on hand to aid in catching and outfield duties. Baseball fans here will remember Joe as a good hustler and a ball player with a lot of determination. Joe and Wayne Young, ace hurler for the University of North Carolina, will be a big help to the Indians this summer.

Harry Blake's Riding Stables Will Open Saturday, Four Miles Out

Instructors And Guides Are Available. Trails Said Free Of Traffic

Blake's Riding stables will open for the '58 summer season on June 7th. Harry Blake, the owner and manager, announces today. The stables are located four miles from Brevard on the Rosman highway, and they are open daily and Sundays. Mr. Blake says he has gentle three and five gaited horses. There is a large ring adjacent to the stables, and Mr. Blake has cleared mountain trails and roadways, which are free of motor traffic. Guides and instructors are available on request.

ALBERT SANDERS, who lives in Sapphire Manor apartments, caught the beautiful brown trout that he is holding fishing last week at Balsam Grove. The beauty weighed five pounds and 14 ounces and was 24 inches long. Fishing with Mr. Sanders when he made the fine catch were Ben Plemmons, left, and Jerry Forrest, right. (Times Staff Photo)

Baseball Game To Highlight Opening Of Camp Straus Sat.

Indians Will Play Hazelwood. Will Be Seeking First Win Of Season

Highlighting the opening of Camp Harry H. Straus, the recreational area of the Olin Mathieson Chemical corporation at Pisgah Forest, will be the big baseball game, the Indians vs. Hazelwood, at 3:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The local nine will be seeking its first victory of the season in Western North Carolina Industrial league competition, and Manager George Tesnow cordially invites the public to witness the affray. Last Saturday afternoon the Indians suffered a 10-1 loss at Beacon.

Officially, Camp Straus will open for the '58 season on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Coach Andy Miller will again direct the summer activities, assisted by Coach Don McLeod. A competent staff of lifeguards and playground attendants has been engaged and a busy season is in store for all who desire to participate. Classes in swimming and life-saving instruction will begin Monday, June 23, as well as a program of playground and sports instruction. Other activities and special events will be announced from time to time on the camp bulletin board.

Work on the practice golf course is nearing completion and many of the neophyte golfers are already at work sharpening their game. Some alterations have been completed in the picnic areas and these have already seen heavy use for several weeks.

The camp maintenance crew has been busy repairing buildings, painting, and preparing playgrounds and equipment. They report a good crop of fish and the lake will be open for bream fishing this summer. Fishing permits will be issued at the camp office. A maximum of ten fishermen at a time, will be permitted. The daily limit will be 15 fish per permit. Swimming hours will be from 10:00 a. m. to 1:00 p. m., and 2:00

Gardner Leaving Brevard, Former Grid Star, Duke

BY SPORTS EDITOR
 "Golly, I hate leaving Brevard," Sam Gardner, who has been doing public relations work here with the new Du Pont silicon plant, told The Times this week.

Next Monday Gardner will assume his duties with another new Du Pont project in Florida. And there are many persons here who also regret his leaving.

Many of us remember when he was a football great at Duke university on the same team with Jack Alexander, editor of the Olin Mathieson news and employment supervisor at Pisgah Forest.

It was in the fall of 1935, when Gardner and Alexander wrecked Carolinas dreams of going to the Rose Bowl. Gardner's vicious tackles kept Carolina from gaining, and Alexander quarterbacked Duke to a 25-0 victory.

KIMZEY AWARDED BS DEGREE, UNC

Outstanding Record Is Noted. Position With Owens-Illinois Company

Jim Kimzey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Kimzey, of Brevard, received his BS degree in business administration at the University of North Carolina on Monday. Young Kimzey has accepted a position with the Owens-Illinois Glass company and will report for work on June 16th at the home office at Todeo, Ohio.

During his four years at Carolina, Young Kimzey made an outstanding record, holding both class offices and in student government.

In a communique to his father, Raymond L. Jefferies, assistant to the dean at Carolina, said:

"Jim has made valuable contributions to the campus through his membership in the various organizations. He has served well on all committees, and it is through the work of students like Jim Kimzey that Carolina is able to maintain a strong student government."

Young Kimzey studied at the university on a Morehead scholarship.

Smathers Competing For Spot On America's Archery Team

O. K. SMATHERS

Local Man Is The Champion of The World. Now Staging Exhibitions

Brevard's O. K. Smathers, the world's champion archer, will compete on Friday and Saturday at Forest Park, St. Louis, Missouri, for a spot on the U. S. Archery team, which will be sent to Brussels, Belgium, for the international tournament on July 19-23.

Thirty-three of the nation's bow and arrow champions are entered in the event this week end.

Smathers left Brevard last week end, and prior to the St. Louis meet, he is staging exhibitions in Chicago and other large cities.

In the St. Louis competition, contestants will shoot one round each on June 7 and 8. A round consists of 36 arrows shot at a target from four varying distances. The St. Louis tournament is a target archery meet, shot on open, level ground, with targets located at fixed distances.

During the mornings of each day, men will shoot at 90 and 70 meter targets. Women will aim at 70 and 60 meter targets. On afternoons, both men and women will shoot at 50 and 30 meters. Three archers will be assigned to each target, with scores tabulated after each has shot three consecutive arrows.

The public is invited to attend the meet, and admission is free to spectators. Shooting begins on both days at 9:00 a. m.

Chastain Drops Charlotte Fight

Carl Chastain, Brevard's Lightweight contender for the Carolinas title, lost a tough decision to Jimmy Carter, former world's champ, in Charlotte last week.

Chastain was down for the count of nine in the fourth round, but came back strong in the final half of the fight, which went 10 rounds.

A rematch is scheduled for June 24th.

Bloodshed Boxscore

RALEIGH — The Motor Vehicle Department's summary of traffic deaths through 10 a. m.—June 2, 1958:
 Killed this year—356.
 Killed to date last year—394.

The first few days in the field are among the most critical for tobacco plants.

Keep farm tractors in good shape. They last longer that way.

Poultry is one of the south's fastest growing farm enterprises.

Notice Of Appreciation

I wish to thank all Democrats who gave me their support and vote in my campaign for nomination for Sheriff in the Democratic Primary on May 31st.

I also congratulate Sheriff Dillingham and all other Democrats who were elected and assure them of my good-will and my vote in the General Election.

The campaign was, I am sure, one of the cleanest and most sportsmanlike ever conducted in our County — a credit to the defeated and elected alike.
