THE BREVARD CIVIC COUNCIL is going "all-out" to welcome summer visitors to Brevard and to inform them of the many attractions of this beautiful section of the Carolinas. One of the recent projects included the erecting of the information sign on the court house lawn, surrounded by flower boxes. Comfortable benches were also placed in the shade for the comfort of the many visitors who come here annually. (Times Staff Photo)

Fifth Annual State Music Workshop Is Set All Next Week At Brevard College

Many Events Are Slated. Tours And Talent Shows Included On Agenda

The fifth annual State Music Workshop, sponsored by the State Home Demonstration music committee, will be held June 22 through 27 at Brevard college.

Dr. Arnold E. Hoffman, director of music in North Carolina schools, will be directing the school that will draw women from all parts of the state.

Assisting him will be Miss Ruth Jewel, supervisor of music in N. C. schools; Miss Doris Kimmel, supervisor of music in N. C. schools; Miss Bobbie L. Pritchard, supervisor of music in N. C. schools and Miss Adele Justice, teacher from Fallston.

The workshop begins with registration at 2 p. m., and greetings and a reception will be given by the Transylvania county club women from 3 until 6 p. m. Sunday. Persons attending will be invited to attend the concert at the music camp.

On Tuesday evening there will be a talent show. A tour of Transylvania Music camp and Oteen hospital will be on the agenda for Wednesday. One of the concluding events will be a concert the evening of Thursday, July 26th.

This five day intensified school provides training for the beginner, is a refresher course and this year will give advanced work in some subjects. While basic skills and techniques will be taught, the big wide world of music appreciation will be fully explored.

In addition to the women who will be attending the workshop will be a number of Extension staff members representing both 4-H and HD work.

New Methodist Minister Arrives Thursday, Tribute Paid Corriher

Rev. Courtney B. Ross, the newly appointed pastor of the Brevard Methodist church, will arrive in Brevard on Thursday with his family and will preach his first sermon on Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock.

Mr. Ross, who comes to Brevard from Salisbury, succeeds Rev. Douglas Corriher, who is being transferred to the Providence Methodist church at Charlotte.

More than 300 Brevard Methodists honored Mr. and Mrs. Corriher at a covered dish supper last Thursday night, and on behalf of the congregation, Jack Trantham paid tribute to the outstanding work of Mr. Corriher during the past five years. Under his leadership, a beautiful new church, val-

The commission is busy doing research and is collecting data prior to the writing of the history of the county. Mrs. McCrary recently released a brief history of the county, which she is adding to from time to time as new material is discovered.

She also has in her files a copy of the act creating Transylvania county. This act was ratified on February 15th, 1861, by the General Assembly of North Carolina.

Mrs. McCrary points out that there is a great need for a Transylvania Historical association. To-

R. L. Bishop Reminisces About First Electricity, Water Works In Brevard

BY STAFF WRITER

R. L. Bishop, 79, of West Asheville, who saw two significant steps take place in Brevard, paused in The Times office to reminisce Monday as he visited his sister, Mrs. Cora Dean, next door.

Mr. Bishop helped install the first electrical wiring in Brevard and also saw the first waterworks built here.

He recalls that on September 12th, 1904, the first switch was

PLANS FOR HUNTS THIS FALL MADE AT TUESDAY MEET

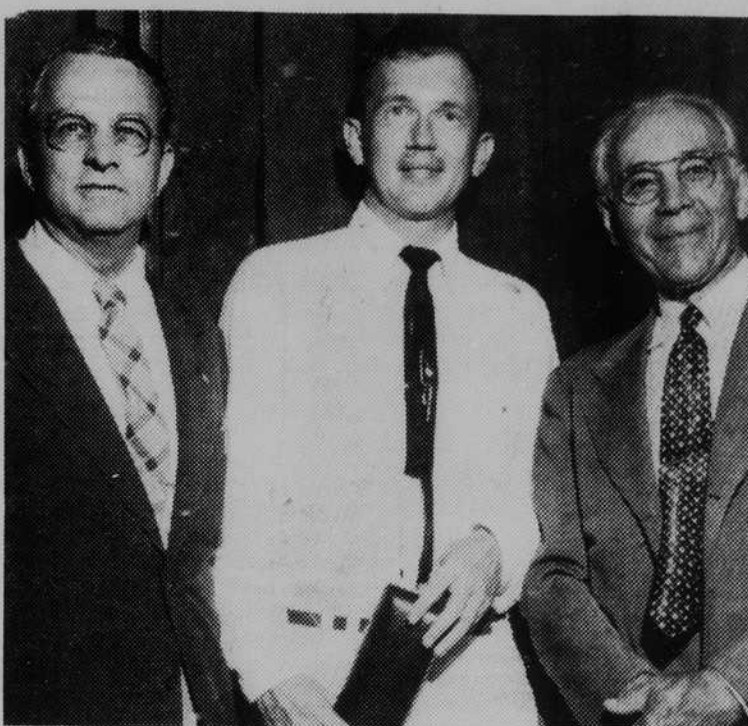

Ranger Seely Releases Details On Annual Event. Also Opening Dates

A meeting of officials of the U. S. Forest Service and the North Carolina Wildlife Resources commission was held in Asheville Tuesday and plans were approved for hunts that will be held in the wildlife management areas in the fall of 1958.

The schedule for rifle still hunts for antlered deer and bear will be November 17-22 and 24 through 29, according to Pisgah Ranger Ted S. Seely.

Applications in advance will be required for wilderness hunts and the first two days of the Pisgah big game hunts.

Archery hunts have been increased to two weeks, which includes hunting of deer of either sex. This is pending a public hearing. —Turn to Page Ten

CAPACITY GROUPS ARE REPORTED AT THE 17 FINE CAMPS

Town, County Officials And Civic Leaders Send Greeting Messages

ROUND-UP MADE

With practically all of the 17 organized summer camps in Transylvania reporting capacity enrollment, officials of the town and county and heads of civic organizations join hands in issuing a most cordial welcome to the campers, summer visitors and others here for a vacation this season.

It is with glad hand of friendship that they roll out the welcoming mat to this beautiful land of lakes and waterfalls, which is also recognized as a "mecca for summer camps."

Through the columns of the Transylvania Times this week many merchants and others are welcoming the campers and other visitors to town. Publisher Ed M. Anderson urges all readers to especially note the write-ups on the various camps.

Best Year

From all indications, this summer will be a peak year in tourist business, and already thousands of cars are seen in the great Pisgah National Forest, as people from the lowlands come up to the mountains in an effort to escape the heat and to see this famed wonderland of nature.

Drug stores, eating establishments, hotels, motels, inns, etc., in the county, report a sharp increase in the tourist business.
