

TRANSYLVANIA—
An Industrial, Tourist, Educational, Agricultural and Music Center. Population, 1950 Census, 15,321.
Brevard Community 7,394.

THE TRANSYLVANIA TIMES

A State And National Prize-Winning A.B.C. Newspaper

TRANSYLVANIA—
The Land of Waterfalls,
Mecca for Summer Camps,
Entrance to Pisgah National Forest and Home of Brevard Music Festival.

Vol. 69 — No. 37

Second Class Mail Privileges
Authorized at Brevard, N. C.

BREVARD, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1958

★ 16 PAGES TODAY ★

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

THE MODERN X-RAY EQUIPMENT in the new Transylvania Health center is being inspected by the group above, following installation last week. Costing more than $2,500 this equipment was purchased with funds raised through the sale of Christmas seals here. At the left is Mrs. Jessie Lollis, Transylvania county health nurse; and in the center is Mr. Richard Arnold, X-ray engineer who installed the equipment for the S. and H. X-ray Company. On the right is Miss Jeanette Austin, chairman of the Transylvania county tuberculosis committee. (Times Staff Photo)

Brevard College To Share In Three Million Dollar Drive, Opens Friday

Mobilization Conference To Be Held In Charlotte, Local Group To Attend

Milburn P. Akers, of Chicago, and Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, of Jackson, Miss., will be guest speakers in Charlotte on Friday when the Western North Carolina Methodist conference holds a mobilization meeting to launch a $3,000,000 campaign for Christian Higher Education.

Dr. Emmett K. McLarty, president of Brevard college, will speak first on the program on Friday morning, and accompanying him to Charlotte will be Glenn Hardesty, public relations director.

Rev. Courtney Ross, pastor of the Brevard Methodist church, will also attend the meeting. Others from Brevard who are expected to be in attendance include Henry McDonald, Dr. Frank McGuire, Mr. and Mrs. Gil Coan, Frank Yarbrough, P. A. Rahn, Mrs. Courtney Ross and John Anderson.

The conference commission on Higher Education, which has headquarters in Morganton, said the meeting in Owens Auditorium will bring together ministers, laymen, and women from 1,000 churches in the western half of the State.

Mr. Akers is the executive editor of the Chicago Sun-Times and one of the outstanding laymen of the Methodist Church in the United States. He is also chairman of the National Committee of Church Men for Church Colleges, a member of the Methodist Quadrennial Commission on Higher Education, and a trustee of both MacMurray —Turn to Page Five

CALENDAR OF COMING EVENTS

Thursday, Sept. 11—Local NCEA picnic at Lake Sega, 6:00. Fortnightly club with Mrs. J. S. Nicholson 3:30 p. m. Hospital auxiliary in nurses dining room 3 p. m. Masons meet at 8 p. m.

Friday, Sept. 12 — Masonic fish supper at Temple 4:30-8 p. m. Football, Brevard vs. Hendersonville, 8 p. m. Ace of Clubs at 7:45 p. m.

Saturday, Sept. 13 — Little River fair.

Sunday, Sept. 14 — Attend the church of your choice. Freshmen arrive at Brevard college. Promotion day at St. Phillips Episcopal church.

Monday, Sept. 15 — Rotary Club meets at Gaither's, 7 p. m. Legion Auxiliary at Legion building, 7:30 p. m. Brevard high school P.T.A. at 8 p. m.

Tuesday, Sept. 16 — Ace of clubs meets at 7:45 p. m.

Wednesday, Sept. 17 — Registration at Brevard College.

Largest Number Ever

Many Transylvania Youths Are Entering Colleges, Universities

More Transylvania county boys and girls are entering colleges and universities for the 1958-'59 school term than ever before, according to a survey conducted this week by The Transylvania Times.

Brevard college is expected to draw a larger group than any other institution; however, the exact number will not be known until registration is completed next week.

The Times staff points out that some names may have been omitted because it is impossible to find out all of the young people and the college of their choice. Parents are invited to inform The Times of any who were overlooked, and their names will also be published.

The colleges and the names of the boys and girls from here who will enroll, or have already, is as follows:

Agnes Scott college — Florence Gaines.

Brevard college — Edna Faye McGaha, Rosemary Thompson, Patricia Ann Pruitt, Joe Ann Newsome, Nancy Lee Fluke, Bette Louise Vaughn, Robert William Cauble, Johnny Mack Brown, Luther Louis Cochran, Aaron Masters, Georgia Ellen Massey, Carolyn Christine Owen, John Herbert Hawkins, Charles K. Westall, Jack Carl Wyatt, David Vernon Hamilton, Glenn Gilbert Stegge, Gail Bonnell, Lois Gibbs, Agnes Hamilton, Mildred Miller, John Paxton, Mary Allyn Reynolds, Ruth Souther and Wayne —Turn to Page Five

The Weather

Cool fall nights are now common in Brevard, as the past week's low readings indicate. The lowest to date this season is 42 degrees, which was recorded Monday night. Day time highs are still in the 80's. Only a fraction of precipitation was recorded this week. Daily readings are as follows:

	High	Low	Pre.
Wednesday	81	49	0
Thursday	80	52	T
Friday	82	51	0
Saturday	83	49	0
Sunday	86	50	T
Monday	80	45	.01
Tuesday	76	42	T

Office Of Chamber Of Commerce Is Now Open In Mornings, Action Taken

Beginning Monday, the chamber of commerce office will observe a winter schedule and will remain open from 9:30 o'clock until noon only each day.

Mrs. Lucy Ford, executive secretary, reported to the directors in meeting Tuesday night that most people came to the office during the morning hours, and that while registration in the office by visitors had been heaviest of any season yet, the calls were falling off since Labor day week end.

Total of 661 people registered in the office during the three-month period of June, July and August, Mrs. Ford reported, with 32 states, England and Canal Zone designated as home by the visitors.

Advertising committee reported that 10,000 new folders had been ordered from the printers, with appropriate changes made to bring the advertising piece up to date.

Membership committee reported 23 new members during the year, with a total of 140 paid members. Statements have been mailed to other members as of the first —Turn to Page Four

Brevard College Welcomes Freshmen On Sunday, Good Enrollment Expected

MANY AT PICNIC FOR SPONSORS OF RURAL CONTEST

Over 100 At Cathey's Creek Community Center On Tuesday Night

More than 100 persons attended the picnic for the sponsors of the Transylvania Rural Development program Tuesday night at the Cathey's Creek community center. The event was sponsored by the officials of the organized community development clubs, and Ross Wilson, president of the Cathey's Creek group, welcomed the group and expressed appreciation for what the sponsors are doing in providing financial assistance for the program.

County Agent James Davis opened the brief program before the elaborate picnic supper, and the benediction was by Rev. Dan Wallin.

Making the Rural Development program possible in Transylvania are the following sponsors:

Abercrombie's, A&P Tea company, Austin art shop, Ayers, Barnett's Machine shop, Belk's department store, Brevard auto parts, Brevard college, Brevard chamber of commerce, Brevard Kiwanis club, Brevard Lions club, Brevard Rotary Club, Brevard Jaycees, Brevard Business & Professional Women's Club, Brevard Lumber company, Brevard Insurance agency, B & B Feed & Seed com —Turn to Page Four

THE DEMOLISHED VEHICLE, above, is one of the two involved in racing on Broad street last Friday night. Driven by Ed D. Brown, the car hit a parked station wagon just beyond the high school. Damages to it were estimated at $300. Patrolman Jack D. Cabe reports that Brown was racing with Harold Frank Ball, and both youths are being charged with speeding, reckless driving and racing 70 miles an hour in a 35-mile an hour speed zone. (Times Staff Photo)

Private Lessons In Music Offered At Brevard College

The department of music at Brevard college is expanding this fall, and private lessons in voice and instruments will be offered. Plans are being made to develop a variety of music ensembles, and musicians in the community are invited to contact Prof. Nelson Adams, head of the department.

Members of the music department staff include: Mr. Adams, M.S.M., Union Theological Seminary; Mrs. Louise Miller, Diploma, Fontainebleau, Conservatoire Americaine; Ralph V. Reed, M. A. in Mus. Ed., George Peabody College; and, M. Thomas Cousins, Juilliard School of Music and National Symphony Orchestra.

Open House At Du Pont's Silicon Plant Successful

"Open House" at Du Pont's new silicon plant in Buck Forest last Wednesday afternoon and evening was highly successful, Leslie S. Grogan, plant manager, reports today.

Approximately 1,800 persons attended the event and toured the modern plant, which manufactures hyper-pure silicon.

A good crowd also saw "The DuPont" story, which was shown that afternoon at the Clemson theatre.

Persons attending the "open house" visited various departments of the plant. Exhibits were explained by the guides, and refreshments climaxed the tours. An impressive layout of pictures made during the tour is carried on page six, first section, of this week's issue of The Transylvania Times.

R. T., Meade Fisher Bound Over To Court

Two men, R. T. Fisher and Meade Fisher, of the Quebec section, were bound over to federal court on charges of owning and operating a "Moonshine" still by U. S. Commissioner Alex Kizer here in the Brevard court house Wednesday morning.

No probable cause was found against Paul M. Fisher, also of the Quebec section, by Commissioner Kizer.

The three men were arrested by ATU officers at their homes at Quebec last Sunday night. Both R. T. and Meade Fisher were placed under a $300 bond each by the commissioner.

Local NCEA Picnic Slated On Thursday

The annual local NCEA picnic will be held Thursday night, September 11, at 6:00 o'clock p. m., with Mrs. Cornelia Lawrence at Lake Sega. Everyone will bring a covered dish.

Two Brevard Youths Charged With Racing In Front Of The High School Last Friday Night

TWO NAMED TO COLLEGE STAFF

Butterworth Is New Business Manager, Mrs. Monteith Is The Bursar

Two appointments to the staff of Brevard College are announced today by President Emmett K. McLarty.

C. A. Butterworth, Jr., has been appointed business manager, succeeding Rev. Robert H. Stamey, who resigned to accept a pastorate in the Methodist church at High Point.

Mrs. Arnold Monteith succeeds Kenneth O. Beard as bursar.

Mr. Butterworth, a native of Massachusetts, attended Washington and Lee University, and is a Certified public accountant. For five years he was associated with a firm of CPAs in Philadelphia.

Following this, he was senior auditor with DuPont company in Aiken, S. C., for six years. At the time of his appointment to Brevard College, he was comptroller for three North Carolina companies with offices in Bessemer City.

Mrs. Monteith, a native of Guyton, Georgia, attended the Brevard schools. For the past 14 years she has been bookkeeper and teller with the First Union National —Turn to Page Eight

Car Demolished In Wreck With Parked Station Wagon, Other Accidents

Two Brevard youths, Ed D. Brown and Harold Frank Ball, are being charged with speeding, reckless driving and racing on Broad street in connection with an accident about 11:25 o'clock Friday night in front of Brevard high school, Patrolman Jack Cabe reports.

The '49 Studebaker, which was driven by Brown, struck a parked station wagon, registered in the name of Clarence E. Goldsmith, of Flat Rock, just beyond the school. According to Patrolman Cabe, Brown was racing with Ball, who was driving a '52 Ford. Both youths admitted to be driving at 70 miles an hour, the patrolman reports.

In the Studebaker-station wagon accident, the former was completely demolished and damages to the wagon were reported to be around $300. A wheel from it was knocked across the sidewalk and over a wall in the accident. Brown was taken to the hospital, from which he was released on Sunday. Both drivers are out on bond, Patrolman Cabe states.

"The two men are fortunate that they are not being charged with manslaughter since both the Brevard high school football team and the band were returning to the school from Reynolds at that par- —Turn to Page Five

WORKSHOP WILL OPEN FRIDAY FOR COLLEGE FACULTY

Orientation And Testing Period Slated Monday, Tuesday At School

SCHEDULE VARIED

Brevard college will begin the 1958-'59 term on Sunday, when freshmen will report, Dr. Emmett K. McLarty, the president, announces.

This will be the institution's 105th year of service in the fields of education and religion.

Some 325 fulltime students are expected to enroll next week, along with around 100 special students, giving the institution an enrollment of approximately 425.

All new students, both day and boarding, will have their first meal served in the college cafeteria, beginning at 5:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

At 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening the orientation program will get underway with assembly in the college auditorium. Charles Garner, president of the student government, will preside. President McLarty will be in charge of the workshop service.

Monday and Tuesday will be devoted to a program of orientation and tests under the direction of Dean John B. Bennett and Dr. Burt W. Loomis, director of guidance.

English and mathematics placement exams will be given Monday while Tuesday will be devoted to testing students' ability in vocabulary, reading and spelling. Results of these tests are used to place students in classes according to their ability.

Registration will get underway next Wednesday morning for freshmen; returning students will start their registration at 3:00 o'clock that afternoon.

A varied schedule of social activities —Turn to Page Eight

LOCAL VFW POST CONDUCTS DRIVE

All Old Members Are To Renew, Big Rally Planned Sept. 18th

The annual membership drive of the Lewis Earl Jackson post of Veterans of Foreign Wars is now underway, Commander Claude Melton announces.

It is the hope of the membership committee that all members of the VFW here will renew their membership by Sept. 18th.

A big membership rally is planned next Thursday, and all old and new members are cordially invited to attend.

Commander Melton reports that renewal memberships are $4.50 and dues for new members are $5.50.

Commander Melton says the VFW needs a continued strong membership, because there are forces trying to kill all veteran bene- —Turn to Page Eight

Fish Supper Tickets Will Be On Sale At Door Friday Evening

Everything is in readiness for the big fish supper, with all the trimmings, to be given in the Masonic Temple dining room on Friday of this week from 4:30 o'clock to 8:00 p. m., according to announcement by Clyde C. Summey the worshipful master.

W. C. Bangs, senior warden and chairman of the Oxford Orphanage committee for the local Masonic lodge, states that tickets will be on sale at the door, and anyone who has not been contacted to buy tickets may get them there. All money made on the fish supper will go to the Oxford Orphanage. Tickets are $1.25 each and children under 12 can eat for 75c.

The public is extended an invitation to buy tickets and bring the family out and afterwards attend the Brevard-Hendersonville football game on the local high school field.

Program Highlights

Three New Programs Added To Log At WPNF, Several Prizes Offered

Three new programs have been added to the WPNF program log, according to Al Martin, program director. "Player of the Week", sponsored by Bikas restaurant, is heard each Tuesday afternoon at 5:45 o'clock. On this program, one of the outstanding Blue Devil players is interviewed, and the previous Friday night's game is reviewed.

Each Friday afternoon at 5:45 o'clock, the "Musical Mystery" show is sponsored by the Triangle drive-in. This program features the best in music, along with a mystery tune, giving some listener a chance to win two free steaks.

"Stork Time", heard daily at 8:55 a. m. is now being presented by the new Morris Pharmacy in Brevard. Mr. Martin invites everyone to tune in this program, where Transylvania's new babies are welcomed daily over WPNF.

Other Programs
The schedule for the Farm and Home hour for the coming week is as follows: Thursday, Rosman home ec department, Mrs. Martha Hip- —Turn to Page Eight