

Brevard Little Theatre Now Making Plans For New Year

Committee Chairmen Announce History Of Organization Reviewed

The Brevard Little Theatre is now making plans for the first play of the 1958-'59 season. The play will be selected by the theatre board of directors at the monthly meeting to be held Thursday evening. It is expected that the first play will be in a humorous vein, and the play selection committee is headed by Cleaves Johnson.

After the play has been selected, the playbooks will be ordered and a casting date will be set. The casting committee chairman this year is Marian Sargeant. Soon after casting is complete, rehearsals will be called and production work started. The first play will be presented in the Brevard College auditorium the latter part of November.

The committee chairmen that will supervise staging this year are Bob Bolt, Staging; Alex McFadden, lighting and sound; Eva Burgin, stage decoration; Jim Hicklin, hand properties; and Pat Fuleihan, make-up.

There are several other necessary committees that work behind the scenes to make a successful show season. The chairman of these committees are: Don Stoneback, house; Ray Burgin, transportation; Herb Sargeant, publicity; Gloria Sanders, social; Bill Norris, program; and Rae Stoneback, scrapbook.

The Brevard Little Theatre is a non-profit organization run strictly for the pleasure of those Brevardites on both sides of the footlights. The expenditures estimated in this year's budget total about $1,900. This includes the director's salary, rent paid for the auditorium and rehearsal hall, the costs of decorating the stage, printing tickets and programs, purchasing playbooks and paying royalties. There are many other minor expenses associated with a production. The admissions paid make up the total income of the Little Theatre.

This year, as in the past, season tickets for all three plays may be purchased in advance, or single admission tickets may be bought at the door. Single admission prices are $1.25 for adults, and 75 cents for students; Brevard College students are included in the student category.

Season tickets, which are considerably less expensive than the total of three single admissions, are $2.50 each for adults, and $1.25 each for students. These season tickets not only include the three Little Theatre plays, but also are good for a single admission to the Flat Rock Playhouse next summer. A small service fee is charged with the Little Theatre ticket at Flat Rock.

One other type of ticket combination is also available; this includes two season tickets with the Flat Rock punches. This is the Little Theatre sponsorship. The sponsorship ticket combination is for families, shops and stores in the Brevard area who are friends of the Little Theatre and want to insure that Brevard continues to have a financially sound amateur theatre group in years to come. These sponsorships are $10.00 each.

Those who purchase season tickets and sponsorships become members of the Little Theatre group, and are entitled to all the advantages of the organization. These advantages include membership on the production committees, eligibility for the board of directors, and participation in the membership picnics and parties.

This year's membership committee chairman is Don Wilson, and with other members of the Little Theatre board, he will be contacting Brevardites soon to give them the opportunity to buy season tickets to the "three greatest little shows that will be given in Brevard this next winter."

It is hoped that many persons in Brevard will not only buy season tickets to the shows and come to see them, but that also they will come down and help with a show or two this season.

"Remember that everyone is strictly an amateur, but with the help of many people on the stage, and behind the stage, a show can be made that is fun for those who work in the show and for those friends and neighbors in the audience," the president states.

REV. W. G. DAVIDSON is the new minister of the Wesleyan Methodist church, succeeding Rev. E. L. Henderson, retired. Mr. Davidson came to Brevard from Tabor City, where he pastored the Wesleyan church there for four years. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson and their three sons, Timothy, Mark and Philip, are now living in the church parsonage, located at 335 Whimtire street.

Safer Driving Urged On Highways

Brevard, N. C. Sept. 16, 1958
Mr. John I. Anderson, Editor, The Transylvania Times, Brevard, N. C.

Dear "John":
Due to the fact that many of us, not intentionally, but for lack of serious thinking, get careless when driving our automobile, and since so many of our fine boys and girls are exposed to the danger introduced by such carelessness during the school term, I thought that the following, "A Driver's Prayer" carried in your paper might help all of us to be careful, and make the boys and girls' lives safer.

A Driver's Prayer
Dear Lord, before I take my place today behind the wheel please let me come with humble heart before Thy throne to kneel; And pray, that I am fit to drive each busy thoroughfare, and that I keep a watchful eye, Lest some child be there. And keep me thinking constantly about the Golden Rule when driving past the playground zone, or by some busy school; Then when I stop to give someone his right to cross the street, Let me, my brother's keeper be and spare a life that's sweet. Please make me feel this car I drive you gave me to enjoy, And that its purpose is to serve mankind, but not to destroy.

Sincerely,
F. Brown Carr

Plan Homecoming At Carson's Creek

The annual Homecoming at Carson's Creek Baptist church is planned for Sunday, Sept. 21st, with Rev. Arthur Trotter delivering the Homecoming sermon.

The event will get underway at 10:30 o'clock that morning, and among the special singing groups expected to participate on the program are: Goodwill quartet, of Brevard; Bishop family, of Brevard; Rample quartet, of Easley, S. C.; and many others.

Persons attending are invited and urged to bring well-filled baskets.

Pastors In News At Lake Toxaway

BY MRS. H. D. LEE
LAKE TOXAWAY — The congregation at the North Toxaway Baptist church Sunday morning, was delighted to have present Rev. and Mrs. Curtis E. Baker, of Travelers Rest, S. C., also Rev. and Mrs. Owen Ganey and little daughter, of Rosman.

Rev. Baker delivered a most inspirational sermon at the 11:00 a. m. service. The adult Sunday school class was taught by Rev. Ganey, whose thorough explanation of the lesson was enjoyed by all.

Rev. Ganey is expected to preach at the 11 a. m. service at this church, next Sunday, Sept. 21st.

The Home Demonstration club will meet at the community center here Thursday morning, Sept. 18, at 10 a. m.

Our youngsters are learning the ABC's of peace for the future: How to get along with each other. How to give and take. How to respect each other's rights as individuals.

But right now it's our job to keep the peace in a troubled world. And peace costs money. Money for strength to keep the peace. Money for science and education to help make peace lasting. Money saved by individuals.

Your Savings Bonds, as a direct investment in your country, make you a Partner in strengthening America's Peace Power.

The chart at right shows how the Bonds you buy will earn money for you. But the most important thing they earn is peace.

Think it over. Are you buying as many Bonds as you might?
