

THE TRANSYLVANIA TIMES

A State And National Prize-Winning A.B.C. Newspaper

Vol. 69 — No. 40

Second Class Mail Privileges Authorized at Brevard, N. C.

BREVARD, N. C., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1958

20 PAGES TODAY

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

LOCAL PERSONS taking part in the ceremony last Sunday afternoon at the unveiling of the marker at the "Witness Tree" on the Boylston highway are pictured above. This large, 200-year old white oak is still thriving and was known for many years as the beginning marker of the James Hughey land grant. At the left is Eugene Ramsey, who assisted Martha Lyday, the young lady in front at the right, with the unveiling. Others from left to right are: Mrs. Howard Schmidt, Mrs. Robert N. Hill, Mrs. C. A. Richardson, Mrs. Mary Jane McCrary, who gave an interesting and informative history on the program; and, Mrs. Charles L. Newland, vice regent of the Waightstill Avery chapter of the DAR, who presided. (Another photo by Austin is carried on the society page.)

Politics "Warming Up" Registrars And Judges Announced, Books Open Oct. 11

HEALTH CENTER TO HOLD 'OPEN HOUSE' OCT. 26

Dedication Ceremony Also Planned. State Officials To Attend

"Open House" at the new and modern Transylvania Health center, located adjacent to radio station WPNF at the entrance of Brevard is being planned for October 26th.

The hours will be from 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon until 5:00 p. m., and a dedication ceremony will begin at 3:00 o'clock.

According to Mrs. Jessie Lollis, county health nurse, a number of state officials will be here to participate on the program.

The public will be cordially invited to attend the "open house" on the 26th, and to inspect the beautiful new building, which is well equipped with modern facilities.

The building has been in use since the middle of August, but just recently the X-Ray equipment —Turn to Page Seven

National Newspaper Week

National Newspaper Week Is Being Observed, Contest To Be Conducted In High Schools

COLOR NOTED ON HIGHEST SLOPES

Parkway Is Open Each Sunday. Mt. Pisgah Road Said To Be Scenic Now

Fall colors are reported to be showing on the higher slopes of Transylvania county, with sourwood, black gum, some oak and maple leaves already showing vivid colors along the Blue Ridge Parkway and in the southwest section of Transylvania.

The Blue Ridge Parkway is open on Sunday. During the week the scenic road is closed while contractors complete the repaving and overlook parking areas.

Effort is being made to have the drive open continually by Oct. 15, but this will depend on weather conditions which will determine actual opening date during week days. The Pisgah Motor Road via Mt. Pisgah from Wagon Road Gap to Candler has recently been repaired and is open each day. Much color is to be noted along this 15-mile stretch.

The Weather

Last week end's coastal disturbance failed to add much change to Brevard's weather. Cloudy conditions prevailed, but precipitation was very light. Temperatures have been unsettled, as the following daily readings indicate.

	High	Low	Pre.
Wednesday	80	56	.02
Thursday	84	54	T
Friday	83	57	T
Saturday	84	59	.01
Sunday	70	45	0
Monday	68	39	0
Tuesday	70	45	.03

World Series Now Being Heard Over WPNF, Football Broadcasts Are Set

WPNF, Brevard's independent radio station, is carrying the World Series from the National Broadcasting Company. Thursday's broadcast will begin at 1:45 p. m. No game will be played on Friday, as the teams take a day off for traveling.

Station manager Bobby Hoyle said yesterday that broadcasting of the World Series over WPNF was in line with the station's policy of providing the best in entertainment for its listeners.

Friday night, WPNF will bring a play-by-play description of the Brevard-Erwin game, beginning at 7:55. Also, that same evening the

BOTH PARTIES BUSY, RALLIES BEING PLANNED

Local Races And Candidates Reviewed. Election On November 4th

LIST IS GIVEN

With the General Election just more than 30 days away, interest in politics in Brevard and Transylvania county is mounting.

George Shuford, chairman of the board of elections, today announces the judges and the registrars for registration and the election.

Actually, registration begins on Saturday, October 11th, and will continue for the next two Saturdays, October 18th and 25th.

November 1st is challenge day, and the General Election will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 4th.

Already both the Democratic and the Republican parties have held meetings in the community, and October might be termed "rally month" here and across the state and nation.

Transylvania voters will ballot in the following local races: Solicitor, State Senate, House of Representatives; sheriff; clerk of court; board of education, one post; and county coroner.

In the solicitor's race, Leonard Lowe, Democrat, is unopposed. Running against each other for state senate are B. W. Thomason, Democrat, and Eugene King, Sr., Republican.

The Democratic incumbent, James C. Caither, has as his opposition, Lewis P. Hamlin, in the house race.

E. V. "Scott" Dillingham, incumbent, is being opposed by Riley A. Merrill, Republican.

F. M. McCall, the Democratic incumbent, has as his opposition in the race for clerk of superior —Turn to Page Seven

DICK BREESE, 58, DIES IN FLORIDA

Prominent Newspaperman Was A Native Of Brevard. Career Noted

William Edmond (Dick) Breese, 58, news editor of Pan American World Airways public relations department and a veteran well-known Southern newsman, died early Monday after a courageous two-year fight against cancer at Miami, Fla.

His news career had spanned the world from the banks of the Mississippi to Belgrade, Yugoslavia. He was born here in Brevard.

During his 15-year association with the Memphis Commercial Appeal, from 1929 to 1944, Mr. Breese rose from reporter to city editor and news editor of that influential mid-south daily.

He left the staff of the Tennessee daily during World War II to join the Office of War Information, handling assignments in Washington and Rome, Italy.

From Rome, Breese went to Belgrade, serving there during 1946 as director of the United States Information Service and —Turn to Page Six

Quebec Scout Troop Being Re-Organized

A large group of interested parents met at the T. C. Henderson school Tuesday evening and laid plans for reorganizing the scout troop and setting up a Cub Pack for boys age eight to 11.

An "area" set-up is planned, with units at Quebec, Silverstein and Lake Toxaway communities, and headquarters to be at the consolidated school. Meetings are planned by patrol for the Scouters in each of the communities and dens for the cubbers in the three communities, with a combined monthly meeting at the school for advancements and court of honor.

Representing the Transylvania district at the meeting were C. F. Moore and C. M. Douglas, with Hugh McPherson, representing the Daniel Boone council.

Plans Being Made For Brevard College Homecoming, Lyceum Series Opens, 22

National Grass Roots Opera Will Give First Performance. Review Is Made

Homecoming week end has been set for October 11th-12th, and special activities are being planned for the returning alumni.

Registration will be held in the Campus Center building on Saturday morning and afternoon.

A general business session has been planned for 2:00 o'clock on October 11th, with Dr. Gordon Graham, of Easley, S. C., president of the Alumni association, presiding. Other new officers for the year will be presented, and plans for the year's work will be discussed. An amendment to the constitution concerning annual dues will be discussed and a vote will be taken.

Class meetings for the classes of '58, '54, '50, '48, '46, '42 and '38 have been planned, and newly appointed class representatives will preside at these meetings. Former students of Weaver college, Rutherford college, and Brevard Institute are urged to attend and to assist with planning for the alumni rooms.

Open house will be held in the dormitories, and alumni will have opportunity to visit the buildings on campus. Exhibits to welcome the alumni are being planned by the various clubs and organizations. An art exhibit is also being —Turn to Page Seven

CALENDAR OF COMING EVENTS

Thursday, Oct. 2 — ASC Election slated. Episcopal guilds and also the Methodist circles meet. See stories on society page. Lions and Kiwanis clubs have joint meeting at Gaither's at 7:00 p. m. Brevard Jayvees play Waynesville on BHS field. Kick-off at 7:00 p. m.

Friday, Oct. 3 — High schools to hold "Career Day" at First Baptist church.

Sunday, Oct. 5 — Attend the church of your choice. B & PW club members to begin National observance. Will dedicate sign at 4:30 p. m., at city limits.

Monday, Oct. 6 — Commissioner meet at 10:00 a. m. Rotary club meets at 7:00 at Gaither's. Town board meeting at 7:30 o'clock. Legion post has supper at 6:30. Meeting at 8:00 p. m.

Tuesday, Oct. 7 — Ace of clubs meets at 7:45 o'clock. Little Theatre to select cast at 7:30 o'clock at the court house. OES meets at Masonic temple at 8:0 p. m.

Wednesday, Oct. 8 — Jaycee meet at Gaither's at 7:00 p. m.

Sign Dedication

Brevard B & PW Club Joins Observance, Events Planned

Brevard Business and Professional women will be celebrating the National B & PW club week with various activities from October 5th through the 11th, Mrs. Opal King, the president, announces.

Highlighting the observance will be the dedication of the local club's new sign at the entrance of Brevard on the Asheville highway.

The time of the dedication is set for 4:30 o'clock, with the following participating on the program: Mrs. Dorothy Case, Mrs. Anna Holliday and Mrs. Lucy Deavor.

Immediately following the ceremony, the president will entertain with a coffee at her home on Franklin avenue.

The local B & PW club will begin the observance on Sunday by attending the Brevard Methodist church in a body.

A special program will be heard over WPNF on the "Civic Hour" on Monday, when members will

Will Mail Out Tax Statements Monday

Over 7,000 tax statements will be mailed from the office of tax collector on Monday for Transylvania county, town of Brevard, and town of Rosman.

Combined statements are used for the county and towns, thus cutting down by more than 2,000 the pieces of mail to be handled. Payment for each of the units are made in the county office.

HD Achievement Day A Success, Contest Winners Are Announced

The annual Home Demonstration Achievement Day last Thursday in Transylvania county, which was held at the Masonic temple, was said to have been highly successful.

According to Miss Anne Benson Priest, home agent, the exhibits were outstanding, especially those with the United Nations theme.

More than 225 persons were in attendance at the big Achievement Day event, and Miss Priest expressed appreciation to all who help make the day the success that it was.

The various winners were as follow:

First blue ribbon — Little River Second — Homemakers Third — Dunn's Rock

Judges were Mrs. Arthur Whitmire, Rosman; Mrs. Harry Golder, Cathey's Creek; Mrs. O. L. McKelvin and Mrs. James Hawkins, of Brevard.

Scrapbook winners were: Pisgah Forest, first; Little River, second; and, Lamb's Creek, third.

The judge was Mrs. Herb G. Sargeant.

Hostesses were the food leaders.

Seniors of Brevard and Rosman high schools will hold "College Day" here on Friday.

The first such event was held last year and proved highly successful. Supt. Wayne Bradburn reports.

The principal speaker of the day will be W. L. Brinkley, of Duke university, and Supt. Bradburn will preside.

Again this year, "College Day" will be held at the First Baptist church, and the hours will be from 12:45 o'clock until 3:00 p. m.

Following the general meeting, representatives from 50 colleges, universities and hospitals will meet the seniors who are interested in specific institutions of higher learning.

Although the meeting is held primarily for the benefit of high school seniors, any interested parents or other individuals are cordially invited to attend.

The invocation on the program will be by Rev. Harold Killian, of the First Baptist church.

Smith Joins Staff At Fish Hatchery

James Paul Smith, a native of Russellville, Arkansas, has been employed as fishery aid at the new federal fish cultural station at Johns Rock in the Pisgah National forest.

According to Morris Bryant, Jr., hatchery manager, Mr. Smith has assumed his duties at the Davidson River trout rearing station, which is operated in conjunction with the Johns Rock hatchery.

Because of his extensive training in sciences related to fishery work, Mr. Smith will be a valuable asset to the staff here, Mr. Bryant states. He has attended Arkansas Tech, the University of Arkansas, and he received his bachelor of Science degree from Oklahoma State university at Stillwater, Oklahoma.

In addition to his college training, Mr. Smith has served for two years in the army, during which time he received training at the NCO school, Fort Bliss, Texas, the Nike 1 Guided Missile school, and the 10 Series, the Engineer school at Fort Belvoir, Va.

Mr. Smith has been licensed by the CAA as a private airplane pilot.

MARKER UNVEILED AT 'WITNESS TREE'

Officials Of DAR And Historical Commission Hold Impressive Ceremony

In an impressive ceremony, a marker at the "Witness Tree", located on the Boylston highway near the entrance of Pisgah National forest, was unveiled Sunday afternoon, with many celebrities attending.

Local and state officials of the Daughters of the American Revolution participated on the program, which was highlighted with an interesting and factual history of the "Witness Tree" and other related events by Mrs. Mary Jane McCrary, chairman of the Transylvania Historical commission.

Her talk in its entirety will be carried in next week's issue of The Transylvania Times.

The dedication of the marker was by Mrs. Charles L. Newland, vice regent of the Waightstill Avery chapter of the DAR, who presided —Turn to Page Six

High Schools To Hold "College Day" Friday