FOUR LOCAL MEN MAKE FINE KILLS EARLY WED'DAY

Hunts Will Continue This Week And Next, Except On Sunday

DOE EVENT SET

Deer and bear hunters in Transylvania and throughout Western North Carolina are expecting to have "better luck" with the advent of cold weather, the current forecast.

Short hunting hours as ordered by the North Carolina Wildlife Resources commission in an effort to cut down confusion on the first two days and the warm weather hampered the hunters on the first two days of this week.

However, on Wednesday morning, some 311 hunters checked in here on Davidson River, and during the early hours, four local hunters brought in fine kills.

Mack King, age 16, of the East Fork section, bagged an eight-point buck on lower Davidson river at 7:00 o'clock.

Ranger Ted Seely reported that 426 hunters checked in at North Mills river by 7:30 o'clock Wednesday morning and he expected them to have a "good day".

Jones L. Adams, of Brevard, bagged a "beauty" that weighed 144 pounds and had eight points on the Davidson Wednesday morning, and W. H. Tritt, of Pisgah Forest, killed a five-pointer about the same time.

Another local hunter bringing back a buck was James Williams of Brevard.

The organized hunts will continue the rest of this week and all next week through Nov. 27th, with the exception of Sunday.

Doe hunts, by application, are slated for December 1st and 2nd. They will be half-day hunts.

Only 37 hunters checked in on the Davidson on Monday and 21 on Tuesday.

Fire Season Has Arrived. Rangers Tell Of Constant Threat Of Blazes

The fall fire season is here and state and federal forest rangers urge all Transylvanians to guard against forest fires.

A permit is required for the burning of brush within 500 feet of woodlands, except between the hours of 4:00 in the afternoon and midnight.

In spite of the light showers, there is always the threat of forest fires the rangers state.

Permits may be secured from the following: Ranger Ted Seely or at the Pisgah National forest office; Buddy Burton, Transylvania ranger for the state or his fire warden; the sheriff's office; the county agent's office; the welfare office; Patton's store at Pisgah Forest; Merrill's store at Little River. —Turn to Page Four

POLICE SET UP TOY WORK SHOP

Plea Made For Tricycles, Wagons, Dolls, Etc. Project Underway

Members of the Brevard police department are setting up a toy workshop at the city hall.

They would appreciate receiving all types of toys, including tricycles, wagons, dolls, etc. They will accept them in any condition, and according to Police Chief Paul Fisher,

"The more, the better!" The policemen will repair, repaint and do whatever work is necessary to make the toys like new. Prior to Christmas, they will distribute them to many families in the town and county.

Persons having used, new or broken toys they'd like to contribute to the worthy project are asked to leave them at the city hall.

Patrolmen Begin All-Out Effort To Reduce Accidents

On the highways, on the state roads, on rural lanes, in industrial areas, near the farms—they began cold war tactics Tuesday to give throttle-happy drivers a little cause for reason.

Speed clocks went up throughout the region and will rapidly follow in all 22 counties patrolled by Troop E. Some were manned. Others weren't. Drivers' complaint: You can't tell the difference. Patrol's answer: That's the idea.

The Brevard Little theatre will present the hilarious military farce, "At War With the Army" on Friday and Saturday nights in the Brevard College Campus center building.

Curtain time each night is 8:00 o'clock.

In addition to the play, persons attending each night will hear the Brevard Civic orchestra playing the "Merry Wives of Windsor". The doublebarrel treat of a play by the Little Theatre and musical scores by the civic orchestra proved so popular last year that the two organizations decided to give a repeat performance this fall.

The stage setting, which is a unique one, was constructed last week end under the supervision of Rob Bolt. The stage is divided into two parts — a typical military company day room and an orderly room.

The fast pace of the play begins as the curtain opens with a separate dialogue under way in each room. From then on the action swings from room to room as the —Turn to Page Five
