

TRANSYLVANIA—
The Land of Waterfalls.
Mecca for Summer Camps.
Entrance to Pisgah National Forest and Home of Brevard Music Festival.

THE TRANSYLVANIA TIMES

A State And National Prize-Winning A.B.C. Newspaper

TRANSYLVANIA—
An Industrial, Tourist, Educational, Agricultural and Music Center. Population, 1950 Census, 15,321. Brevard Community 7,394.

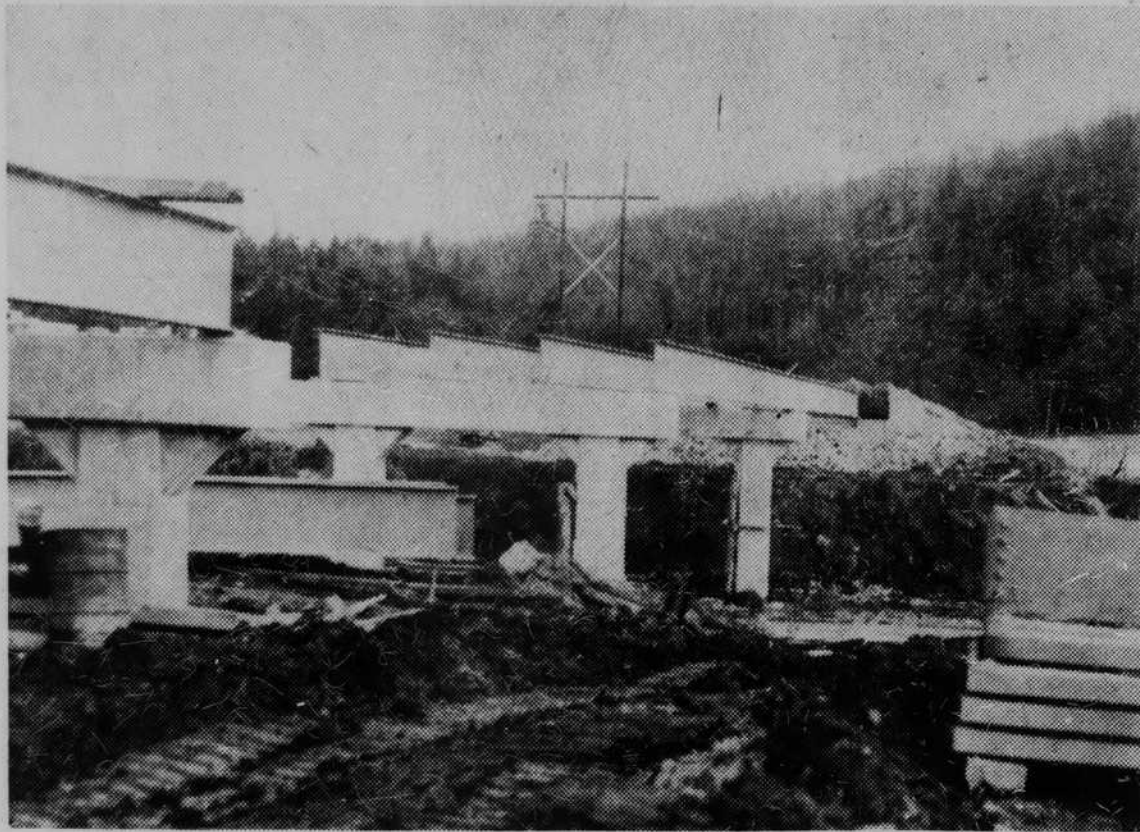

Vol. 70 — No. 4

Second Class Mail Privileges Authorized at Brevard, N. C.

BREVARD, N. C., THURSDAY, JANUARY 22, 1959

★ 16 PAGES TODAY ★

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

CONSTRUCTION IS PROCEEDING RAPIDLY on the new bridge and long, built-up approaches below the Davidson River substation at Pisgah Forest. The Blue Ridge Construction company, of Asheville, is building the bridge at a cost of $60,019.83, and contract for the roadway construction work went to the Dickerson company, Inc., of Monroe. The bid for this phase was $34,786.00. (Times Staff Photo)

Meeting Called To Discuss Location Of Dam Sites In Flood Control Program

Planning Group At Raleigh Has Completed Fact-Finding Study Here

An important meeting to discuss locations of sites for the proposed dam to be a part of the flood protection and watershed program in Transylvania has been scheduled for Thursday, January 29th.

Edward Mackey, chairman of the soil supervisors of the Transylvania Conservation district, has called the meeting at Gaither's at 2:30 p. m.

Mr. Mackey has received word from the planning group of the Soil Conservation service, Raleigh, that information is ready concerning the various sites that have been selected.

Several alternate sites were also selected and so it is not known at this time where the final sites will be located.

All persons interested in the flood prevention work of the French Broad watershed are invited to attend the meeting on the 29th.

Annual Red Cross Meeting Is Slated Sunday Afternoon

The annual meeting of the Transylvania chapter of the American Red Cross will be held at Gaither's on Sunday, January 25th, at 3:00 o'clock.

C. Few Lyda, chairman of the local chapter will preside, with the invocation to be given by the Rev. F. F. Valentine.

Reports for the year will be given and service stripes presented to volunteers for the year 1958. Election of officers will also be held. All members and interested persons are urged to attend.

CALENDAR OF COMING EVENTS

Thursday, Jan. 22—Masons meet at temple, 8 p. m. B & PW club meets at Gaither's, 7 p. m.

Friday, Jan. 23 — World Mission conference family night supper at Brevard Davidson River Presbyterian church, 6:30 p. m.

Saturday, Jan. 24 — Annual Jaycee awards banquet at Gaither's, 7 p. m.

Sunday, Jan. 25 — Attend the church of your choice. Annual Red Cross meeting at Gaither's, 3 p. m.

Monday, Jan. 26 — Rotary meets at Gaither's, 7 p. m. Civil term of Superior Court convenes 10 a. m. Spring semester at Brevard College begins.

Tuesday, Jan. 27 — Ace of Clubs meets, 7:45 p. m.

Civil Term Of Superior Court To Open Monday, Criminal Docket February 2nd

SEVERAL EVENTS WILL HIGHLIGHT '59 JAYCEE WEEK

Awards Will Be Given At Annual Banquet Meeting This Saturday Night

In keeping with National Jaycee week, which is being celebrated this week all over the nation, the Brevard Jaycees will have their annual awards banquet on Saturday night, January 24, at Gaither's at 7:00 o'clock.

The banquet will honor Transylvania county's outstanding "Young Farmer", outstanding "Teen-Ager", and the outstanding "Young Man of the Year."

Each of the winners has been selected by a secret panel of judges, known only to the chairman of each event. The judges are all over Jaycee age and have no connection at all with the local Jaycee organization.

For the first time, the Jaycees will honor the outstanding "Teen-Ager" this year. The winner must be outstanding in all fields of endeavor, not just one particular field. The local winner, either a boy or a girl, will be entered in the state "Outstanding Teen-Ager" contest. —Turn to Page Five

CARL HART, office manager of the Citizens Telephone company, is shown above inspecting the demolished telephone pay station at the Pisgah Trading post, which was robbed last week. A reward of $100 is being offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of person or persons involved in the robbery. (Times Staff Photo)

JUDGE CRAVEN WILL PRESIDE FIRST SESSION

Judge Patton Will Be Here For Second Week. Jurors Are Reminded

SLATE IS REVIEWED

The January term of Superior court in Transylvania will open on Monday, January 26th, Clerk of Court Marvin McCall announces today.

Judge J. B. Craven, of Mooresville, will preside over the first week, which will be a civil session. The second week, a criminal term, will be presided over by Judge George V. Patton, of Franklin.

Some 12 cases and two divorces will be heard, and the Clerk reminds all jurors called to serve during the first week to be in the court room by 10 o'clock Monday morning.

The divorce actions to be heard next week are those of Julia Clayton Smith vs. Wm. E. Smith and Sally McCall vs. Crate McCall.

Other motions and actions on the civil docket are as follows:

R. W. Drake & T. M. Drake, T. A. Drake Plumbing Co., vs. J. N. Bradshaw, et ux.

Sophia McCall vs. T. J. McCall. Victor Betsel vs. Jack Frady et al.

Ruth McCrary Farmer vs. Floyd L. Farmer.

Sapphire Valley Golf Club, Inc., vs. W. S. Alexander.

R. R. Burgin vs. Clarence L. Rogers, et al.

Mrs. Mariah Gillespie vs. Reserve Life Insurance Company.

Cascade Power Company vs. Robert McCall and Joe Groom.

J. R. Watkins, Co., vs. Wallace Reece, et al.

Cascade Power Company vs. Robert McCall.

Louis McCall vs. James C. McCall.

E. Whitson vs. Dock Hubbard.

SCHOOL OFFICIALS ATTEND MEETING

Transylvania school executives attended the regional meeting in Asheville on Monday at which time plans were discussed for utilizing federal funds under the National Defense Education Act of 1958.

Comprising the local delegation were Supt. Wayne Bradburn, Mrs. Juanita Lavender, the county school supervisor, and district principals, Robert T. Kimzey and E. F. Tilson.

Dr. Charles F. Carroll, state superintendent of public instruction, told 23 WNC school superintendents, plus a number of supervisors, that the state department is now preparing a plan for application of the federal funds.

The completed plan will be submitted to the U. S. Commissioner of Education for approval. Funds Available

Funds available to North Carolina for strengthening science, mathematics and modern foreign instruction total $2,459,388 annually on a matching basis, Dr. Carroll said, with $667,548 already approved. —Turn to Page Four

Baptists To Have Sunday School Mass Meeting Next Mon.

There will be an associational Sunday school mass meeting on Monday night, January 26th, at 7:30 o'clock at the Gladly Branch Baptist church.

All pastors, Sunday school superintendents, officers and teachers are urged to attend. Department officers and leaders are also asked to encourage their members to be present for this important meeting.

"Let's make this a successful and effective meeting in the work of our Sunday schools," the chairman urges. —Turn to Page Five

Background Given

Executive Appointments Are Announced By Olin Mathieson

M. L. Herzog, corporate vice president, has been transferred to the headquarters staff in the office of the vice president for production and engineering, it is announced by Stanley De J. Osborne, president of Olin Mathieson Chemical corporation.

Mr. Herzog was formerly in charge of the film activities of the packaging division of the corporation.

At the same time the following appointments were announced in the packaging division.

P. C. Brownell, corporate vice president formerly in charge of Ecusta paper has been appointed vice president and manager for Ecusta paper and film. Mr. Brownell will continue to make his headquarters at Pisgah Forest.

A. J. Loeb has been named division vice president for Ecusta Paper. He was formerly assistant manager for Ecusta Paper.

E. L. Lynn, formerly assistant divisional vice president, responsible for film.

A. T. Safford has been named marketing manager for the packaging division. He was formerly assistant manager for film.

Olin Mathieson's packaging division, headed by R. H. Evans, corporate vice president and general manager, manufactures and sells a wide range of packaging materials including, Olin cellophane and Olin Polyethylene film, Frostkraft paper, board, corrugated shipping.

—Turn to Page Five

Anderson Will Preside Over Press Institute

Editor and Mrs. John I. Anderson are attending the 34th annual institute of the North Carolina Press association this week end at Chapel Hill and Duke university.

As president of the press association, Mr. Anderson will preside over several of the convention programs.

Among the featured speakers will be Roscoe Drummond, noted Washington columnist, Senator Everett B. Jordan, William Friday, president of the university, and Dr. Hollis Edens, president of Duke.

This is Mr. Gaither's second term in the house, and he predicts a busy session.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaither will reside at 934 1/2 Vance street in Raleigh, and he invites his Transylvania friends to visit them when they are in the Capitol city.

Mr. Gaither has conferred with town and county officials, regarding legislative matters. He will be happy to hear from citizens of the Brevard and Transylvania when they have questions concerning the legislature and its actions.

—Turn to Page Five

FARM LANDS OF PISGAH HEIGHTS SOLD TO THOMAS

Some 142 Acres Included In Sale. Background Of Subdevelopment Given

The sale of 142 acres of land in Pisgah Heights to Alexander P. Thomas and wife Edith Lowe Thomas was announced today by W. M. Melton, president of Pisgah Heights corp.

Pisgah Heights was incorporated in 1950 by 14 local people as a subdevelopment. The original tract was the Allison farm and it contained 250 acres. This land fronts on the Asheville highway, old US 67 going to Hendersonville and the Ecusta road. Straus school is situated on a portion of the original tract, as well as Calvary Baptist church, Allison road and Haw-

—Turn to Page Four

More Births Than Deaths In County During 1958

By almost three to one, births outnumbered deaths in Transylvania county during 1958.

A check at the register of deeds office reveals 326 births during the past year and 125 deaths.

October was the biggest month for new babies, with 42 entering the world.

A tabulation of the other months is as follows: January 28, February 23, March 20, April 20, May 29, June 20, July 25, August 38, September 33, November 30, and December 18.

More persons died during May and July than during any other months. The total was 15 each month.

Deaths during the other months were as follows: January 12, February 13, March 3, April 10, June 6, August 13, September 3, October 12, November 10, December eight.

The register of deeds office also handled 64 marriage licenses during '58. Contrary to established tradition, December was the month for brides in Transylvania, with 14 marriage licenses being issued. June and July were next with eight each.

College Spring Semester Begins On Next Monday

The spring semester at Brevard College will begin next week with registration being held on Monday, January 26th, Dr. J. B. Bennett, Dean of the College, announces. New classes will begin on Tuesday, January 27th.

A number of new students are expected, and they are scheduled to arrive on Friday, January 23rd, for a period of testing and orientation.

Students are taking examinations on the first semester's work this week.

Gil Coan Is Elected To Head Brevard Chamber Of Commerce

GIL COAN

Himes Is The New Vice President. Several Meetings Are Slated

Gil Coan, partner in the Brevard Insurance agency, and former big league baseball player, was elected president of the Brevard chamber of commerce at the annual meeting held here Tuesday night.

President Coan has served the past year as vice-president. He succeeds Cecil J. Hill, attorney. The new president has served five years as a director.

Charles F. Himes, partner in the Pisgah Candy company here, was named vice-president. C. M. Douglas, county-city tax collector, was re-elected recording secretary; Alex H. Kizer, treasurer; and Mrs. Lucy Ford re-elected as executive secretary.

Committee chairmen will be named by the new president after a meeting with the other newly selected officials.

Oconee county Chamber of Commerce officers have asked for a joint meeting with the local officials on February 4 to make plans for dedication of the South Carolina end of the Whitewater road, it was announced by Mr. Hill.

Announcement was made by Chairman Thomas Eller, of the Transylvania flood control committee, that a meeting to go over plans for this county would be held here on January 29th.

A vote of thanks was given to retiring President Hill for the work he has done during the past year as head of the civic group. The new president, in taking over the

—Turn to Page Four

The Weather

A cold wave moved into Brevard last week, bringing one inch of snow Thursday night. Temperatures dropped to zero Saturday morning. Precipitation for the week totaled 1.25 inches. Daily readings are as follows.

	High	Low	Pre.
Wednesday	60	30	.01
Thursday	55	41	.60
Friday	48	13	.39
Saturday	28	0	.11
Sunday	32	3	.09
Monday	45	11	.04
Tuesday	49	36	.01

Program Highlights

WPNF To Broadcast Jaycee Awards Program, State Prexy To Be Heard

WPNF will broadcast the Jaycee annual awards program on Sunday at 2:00 o'clock, at which time the "Distinguished Service" award, the "Outstanding Young Farmer" award and the "Outstanding Teen-Ager" award will be presented by Marvin Koonce, Jr., president of the North Carolina Junior chamber of commerce.

The awards program and the address by Mr. Koonce will be recorded Saturday night for broadcast at this more convenient time, Al Martin, program director an-

—Turn to Page Five

JAMES C. GAITHER

—Turn to Page Five