

TRANSYLVANIA—
The Land of Waterfalls.
Mecca for Summer Camps.
Entrance to Pisgah National Forest and Home of Brevard Music Festival.

THE TRANSYLVANIA TIMES

A State And National Prize-Winning A.B.C. Newspaper

TRANSYLVANIA—
An Industrial, Tourist, Educational, Agricultural and Music Center. Population, 1950 Census, 15,321.
Brevard Community 7,394.

Vol. 70 — No. 11

★

Second Class Mail Privileges
Authorized at Brevard, N. C.

BREVARD, N. C., THURSDAY, MARCH 12, 1959

★ 18 PAGES TODAY ★

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

PROGRAM PARTICIPANTS
at the annual 100-Bushel Corn club banquet last Friday night in the Brevard Elementary school cafeteria are pictured here. In the photo, left to right, are: R. C. "Bob" Francis, of Waynesville, the principal speaker; County Agent James Davis, who presided; Jonathan Woody, executive vice president of the First Union National banks who introduced the speaker; Randal Lyday, who presented certificates to the FFA winners; and, Ralph J. Duckworth, who assisted in the awarding of the trophies and prizes. At the left, Mr. Duckworth is shown presenting the handsome trophy to Hugh N. Lambert, top adult winner in the county. At the right is Charles Galloway, president of the Cathey's Creek community Development club, which received the plaque for having the highest yield produced in their section.

(Extension Staff Photos)

Many Baptist Churches To Conduct Simultaneous Revivals This Month

CLARK GRISSOM IS NAMED STATE RANGER, COUNTY

Will Assume Duties On March 23rd. Succeeds George Burton

Clark H. Grissom is the new county forest ranger for Transylvania. Charles C. Pettit, of Sylva, the state district ranger of the North Carolina Division of Forestry, announces today.

He succeeds George "Buddy" Burton, who is resigning, and Mr. Grissom will assume his duties on March 23rd.

For the past eight years, Mr. Grissom has been employed by Houston Furniture company here, and prior to that time he was connected with the Western Auto associate store. During World War II, he served in the navy.

Mr. Grissom is currently the first vice president of the Brevard Lions club, and he is the associate superintendent of the First Baptist church Sunday school.

Mr. Grissom is also a member of the traffic division of the Brevard Fire department, and he is the industrial representative of the Cathey's Creek Boy Scout troop.

He is married to the former Ruby Whitmire, and they reside on the Rosman highway.

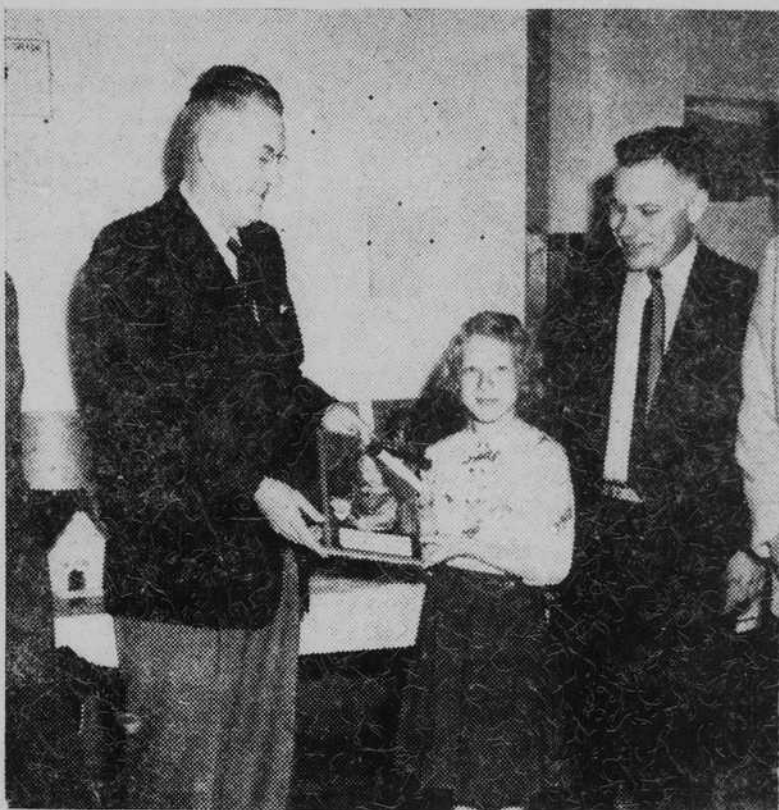

"Open House" At Savings And Loan Said Successful

"Open House" at the Brevard Federal Savings and Loan association last Saturday afternoon and evening was well attended.

This week President Jerry Jerome expressed appreciation to all persons who visited, and he reports that the directors were highly pleased with the many fine complimentary remarks made to them by the public about the new home.

Mr. Jerome continued: "You, the people of Transylvania county, have made possible the growth and expansion of the Brevard Federal Savings & Loan association and we want you to know that we are here to serve you in any way we can. Come by and see us at any time."

Prizes to the children making the largest deposit on savings last Saturday morning were won by the following: Marc Robert Crooks, first; and A. W. Williams and C. R. Williams, brothers, who tied for second place.

MARY ALICE PAXTON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Wood Paxton, is pictured above receiving the grand prize in the art contest at the Brevard elementary school. Principal F. B. Cudd made the presentation of a book of famous paintings to Miss Paxton, as Dr. Rodney Leftwich, head of the fine and industrial arts department of WCC at Cullowhee, looks on. In addition to Dr. Leftwich, other judges were Mrs. Taft Botner, art instructor at McKee laboratory at Cullowhee; and, Thomas Harvis, senior art student at WCC. See story on page 10.

(Photo by Austin's)

COUNTYWIDE MEET IS PLANNED SUNDAY AT TURKEY CREEK

Several Stories Are Carried Throughout This Week's Paper On Events

PURPOSE CITED

Many of Transylvania's Baptist churches are joining in the nationwide crusade of simultaneous revivals during the last two weeks of March.

Throughout this issue of The Times are stories concerning the various revivals, and the public is being invited to attend services at the different churches.

The avowed purpose of the simultaneous crusades, according to local officials, is to reach more people for Christ.

Officials of the churches of the Transylvania association will meet at the Turkey Creek Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 3:00 Sunday afternoon to hear Rev. Johnny Parrar, visiting evangelist for the First Baptist church.

On Tuesday of next week the pastors, with their evangelists, will be guests of Rev. Jarvis Brock of the Little River church, at 9:00 a. m. for a fellowship breakfast. Next Thursday the group will meet at 8:00 for breakfast at Gaither's in Brevard.

Rev. Matthew Greer, evangelist, will lead the revival at Turkey Creek, and Rev. J. R. Brogdon will be heard at Zion Baptist church at Rosman.

Evangelist Joel S. Tyson will conduct the revival at Rocky Hill, and Rev. Jarvis Brock will hold services at his church at Little River.

Other Baptist churches holding revivals and the pastors of each are as follows: Blanton — Rev. George Lynch; Boylston, Rev. Paul Morrow; Enon, Rev. R. L. Phillips; King Street, Rev. H. W. Burleson; Blue Ridge — Rev. Kadez Wilde; Dunn's Rock, Rev. Emmett McCall; Gladly Branch, Rev. M. I. Brock; Mt. Moriah — Calvert, Rev. Marvin Murphree; and, North Toxaway, Rev. Floyd Clark.

Sponsors Of Rural Progress Program To Attend Banquet

JULIAN A. GLAZENER

Glazener Will Make Principal Talk. McGough Will Also Be Heard

The annual banquet for the sponsors of the Transylvania Rural progress program will be held Tuesday night, March 17th, in the cafeteria of the Olin Mathieson Chemical corporation at Pisgah Forest, James Davis, county agent, announces.

The banquet meeting will begin promptly at 7:00 o'clock, and Julian Glazener, former county agent in Transylvania, and now the planning specialist, State college, Raleigh, will be the guest speaker.

Morris McGough, executive secretary of the Asheville Agricultural council, will also speak briefly on the program, and reports from each of the organized communities in Transylvania will be made.

Winning scrapbooks will also be on display at the banquet, and the program will be in the assembly room of the Medical center.

According to County Agent Davis, the organized communities in Transylvania are: Balsam Grove, Blantyre, Cathey's Creek, Cedar Mountain, Dunn's Rock, Little River, Pisgah Forest, and Silver-steen.

CLUB TO MEET

The Green Valley Garden Club will meet this week on Friday, the thirteenth at the home of Miss Letitia Shrank.

The Weather

Almost three inches of rainfall was recorded Thursday and Friday in Brevard. Monday morning brought a mixture of light sleet, snow and rain. Total precipitation for the week was 2.78. Daily readings are as follows.

	High	Low	Pre.
Wednesday	57	20	T
Thursday	52	24	1.61
Friday	49	40	1.14
Saturday	52	23	T
Sunday	53	17	0
Monday	53	22	.02
Tuesday	60	22	.01

Program Highlights

Reports From Baseball Camps Are Being Heard Each Evening On WPNF

Once more as springtime draws nearer, the traditionally sunny southland has become a battleground for early skirmishes in the annual fight for first place in the baseball world. Last Saturday, all 16 teams in both the National and American leagues swung into action against each other in the first exhibition games of the year.

Each evening, Monday through Saturday at 6:20 p. m., WPNF offers a complete rundown on major league activity, with the day's scores, outstanding rookies, and reports on all the teams in general.

Other Programs

The schedule for the Farm and Home hour for the coming week is

March-April Term Of Superior Court In Transylvania Opens On The 30th

Jurors Are Drawn. Judge George Patton Will Preside Over Both Weeks

The March - April term of Superior court in Transylvania county opens on Monday, March 30th.

According to Marvin McCall, the clerk of Superior court, the first week will be a criminal term, followed by a civil session the second week.

Judge George Patton, of Franklin, will preside over both terms of court, and Leonard Lowe, of Forest City, will prosecute for the state.

Jurors called to serve during the first week are as follows:

Howard Whitmire, Herman Parker, Mrs. Charles L. Corn, Arthur L. Waldrop, Glenn Emerson, Marjorie Neely, Pink E. Peavy, T. B. Lane, Mrs. H. Doyle Wells, Frances Allison, William Austin, W. R. Hogsted, Joseph Lavell, J. B. Waldrop, Clayton Gardner, Mrs. Earl Parker, Joe Earl Jones, J. Floyd Gray, Mrs. Harold Siniard, Kenneth C. Moore, Sims Blanton, L. S. Parsons, W. W. Duckworth, Mrs. Charles E. Moss, Lewis Morgan, Edwin A. Morgan, Mrs. Kenneth McDarris, Allen McCall, Warrrior J. McCall, Ullus T. Bryson, Lawrence D. Fisher. Jos-

—Turn to Page Five

On Affairs of State

Advantages Of State Withholding Tax Plan Cited In The Legislature

About 32,000 tax dodgers would have to cough up if withholding is applied to state personal income taxes.

Some of them, Revenue Commissioner James Currie told the joint legislative Finance Committee Tuesday, are dodging against

"Crucifixion" To Be Presented Next Wednesday

"The Crucifixion", arranged by Mrs. Frances Stirewalt, will be presented at the Lutheran church on Wednesday evening at 7:30, March 18th.

"The Crucifixion" is a speech choir rendition of the trial and

—Turn to Page Five

Commerce Banquet Set April 3rd At The College

The annual banquet for Brevard Chamber of Commerce will be held on April 3rd, at Brevard College dining hall, with an official of the Delta Air Lines as speaker, it was announced at the meeting of directors here Tuesday night.

Fritz Schaemmle, director of information service of the air lines, whose planes are now serving the Asheville air port with regular schedules, has accepted invitation, Dr. E. K. McLarty of the banquet committee reported.

General invitation to the public to attend the banquet is being issued by President Gil Coan to the public, and tickets will be available this week at the cham-

—Turn to Page Ten

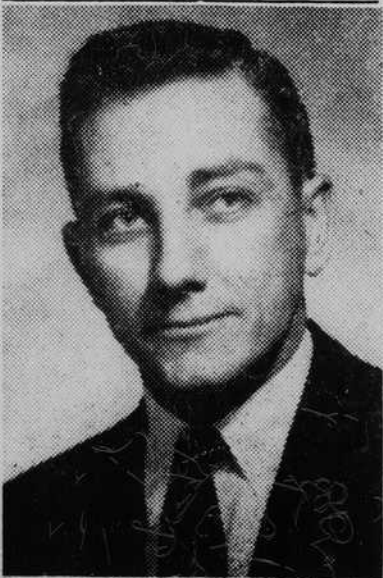

Dorton Is New Administrator Of Music Camp And Brevard Festival

J. Sibley Dorton, Jr., of Charlotte, has been appointed administrator and public relations director of the Brevard Music center, Dr. James Christian Pfohl, the director, announces today.

Mr. Dorton is the former general manager of the Southern States Fair, Charlotte, and he is presently the executive vice president of the Southern States Improvement company, also of Charlotte.

The music center here is comprised of the Transylvania Music camp and the Brevard Music festival, both located here at Brevard. Transylvania is a six-weeks summer camp for boys and girls between the ages of 10 and 20, while the Brevard festival is a two-weeks program of concerts featuring nationally known soloists. The fes-

—Turn to Page Five

J. SIBLEY DORTON

Will Hold Gospel Singing Saturday At Court House

There will be a Gospel singing Saturday night, March 14th, at 7:30 o'clock, here in the Brevard court house.

The singing is sponsored by the senior class of Brevard high school, and all proceeds will go into their fund for the annual trip to Washington, D. C.

The public is cordially invited to attend, and admission will be 50 and 75 cents.

Ernest Gilstrap will serve as master of ceremonies, and among the singing groups to appear on the program are the following: The Fine Tones, The Southern Joy group, the Saluda trio and the Kingsmen.

CALENDAR OF COMING EVENTS

Thursday, March 12 — Masons meet at Temple, 8 p. m.

Friday, March 13 — Ace of Clubs meet, 7:45 p. m.

Saturday, March 14 — Gospel Singing at Court House, 8 p. m.

Sunday, March 15 — Attend the church of your choice. Baptist simultaneous revivals begin throughout county.

Monday, March 16 — Rotary meets at Gaither's, 7 p. m. Music and Art Program at Brevard college, 8:15 p. m. Brevard high P-TA meets at school, 8 p. m.

Tuesday, March 17 — Banquet for sponsors of Rural Progress Programs at Olin, 7 p. m. OES meets at Masonic Temple, 8 p. m.

Wednesday, March 18 — "Crucifixion" to be presented at Lutheran church, 7:30 p. m.

AUSTIN'S STUDIO BEING REMODELED

Concern Now Doing Business In Temporary Location Near Patterson's

Austin's Studio, which was established here in 1925 by the late William C. Austin, is being modernly remodeled, and while the work is underway, the concern is located in the former McPee Jewelry store building on West Main street.

The size of the studio is being doubled, and the general contract for the work was awarded to Charlie Ashworth & sons. Brevard Plumbing company was the low bidder on the heating contract, and Osborne Plumbing company will install plumbing.

The new Austin's studio is expected to be ready for occupancy within the next six weeks. It is operated by the children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Austin.

Prior to coming to Brevard in January, 1925, Mr. Austin taught photography at a veterans school in Waynesville.

In addition to doing developing,

—Turn to Page Ten

Trio Nabbed, Much Of Stolen Property Reported Recovered

Most of the property stolen recently at the T. C. Henderson school has been recovered, Supt. Wayne Bradburn reports.

A South Carolina man and his two step-sons were arrested last week end in Greenville, S. C., and they had in their possession all of the articles taken at the Henderson school, with the exception of a buffing machine.

It was learned that the trio had robbed several other schools recently, and they are being held for trial in Greenville jail.

—Turn to Page Five