

BALSAM GROVE CLUB TO MEET

Gospel Song Service Set. Many Personals in The News

BY MRS. WARD McCALL

BALSAM GROVE — Our regular monthly Community Development club meeting will be Thursday night, March 19, at 7:30 o'clock in the community center. The change from Tuesday night until Thursday night was due to an important meeting of the various community development clubs in Transylvania county along with some of the development leaders at Bcstia on Tuesday night of this week.

We invite all our Community folk out to our club meeting. We'll say tonight as our Transylvania Times arrives on Thursday.

Sympathy

Our hearts were saddened at the passing of Uncle Alney McCall, who died on Monday, March 9th, at the home of a sister, Mrs. Floyd Brown, at Quebec. Our deepest sympathy goes out to the relatives and friends of Mr. McCall.

Song Service

There will be a Gospel song service at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joesiah Galloway Saturday night, March 21, at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Carl Holcomb and Oumitt Broom, of Pickens, S. C., is in charge. The public is invited to attend.

With the Sick

Aunt Mary McCall is still slowly improving, but her daughter, who stays with her, Iva Mason, has been very sick. She was some better Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Melvin McCall has been in bed with the flu, and several children have been sick with measles and flu.

It was good to see Mrs. Tinsley Brown able to attend the funeral of Alney McCall last week, after being sick for several days. We wish all those on our sick list a speedy recovery.

Visiting

Mr. and Mrs. Dutch Brooner, Mr. and Mrs. Howard McCall, of Brevard, and Louie McCall and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McCall visited Mr. and Mrs. Melvin McCall Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Moore, of Hendersonville, and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Moore and daughter, of Waynesville, Mrs. Wilkie McCall, Russel Mason, of Brevard, Louie McCall and Mr. and Mrs. Ward McCall and Leona McCall were among those who visited Aunt Mary McCall and family Sunday.

Carroll McCall spent Sunday afternoon with Gurlie Owen.

Verna Lou Galloway, of Cherryfield, spent Wednesday night of last week with Frenda McCall.

Mr. and Mrs. Vardirey McCall and family and Daniel and David W. McCall attended the Gospel singing at Carson's Creek Baptist church Sunday night.

Vets Of World War I To Meet

James E. Dayton, of Asheville, senior vice commander of the North Carolina Department, Veterans of World War I of the U.S.A., will be the chief speaker at a rally of World War I veterans in Polk and surrounding counties Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock here in Columbus, at the Polk county courthouse.

Headquarters of the World War I organization is located in Washington, D. C., while the state headquarters is located in Salisbury. During the 85th Congress the group of World War I veterans was chartered by the Congress. Since that time their membership has almost doubled with more than 1800 local barracks, with 106 in North Carolina.

By action of the 6th national convention in Springfield, Illinois, Sept. 14-17, they have been mandated to seek a pension for their group which is now averaging 64 years of age. Approved for consideration by the 86th Congress is H. R. 1181, sponsored by Rep. James E. VanZandt of Pennsylvania which would increase present benefits for the veterans of 1917-18 and at the same time increase the present income limitations.

Dayton, Stated today, that countless thousands of World War I veterans are dependent upon relatives for the bare necessities of life. Others are finding it difficult to compete in the present day labor market due to age and physical handicaps. The time has come when something should be done for the "Forgotten generations of veterans", Dayton added.

Twenty per cent of North Carolina's annual grain production is sold out-of-state at harvest time for relatively low prices because of lack of adequate storage.
