

HUNDREDS OF TRANSYLVANIANS inspected the new "Cherokee Arrow", the largest paper machine in America for the manufacture of lightweight paper, at the Ecusta Paper division of the Olin Mathieson Chemical corporation at Pisgah Forest last Friday night. In the left photo Ray Hooper, quality control manager, and Edgar Loftis, assistant to the production manager, explain the machine operator's panel to a visitor. In the picture above Marcy Newell, process engineer, tells of the operations of the stock prep panel to a group. The three refiner beaters of the new No. 10 paper machine can be seen at the right, as they are inspected by visitors and plant officials. (Photos by Russell and Anderson)

TRANSYLVANIA—
The Land of Waterfalls.
Mecca for Summer Camps.
Entrance to Pisgah National Forest and Home of Brevard Music Festival.

THE TRANSYLVANIA TIMES

A State And National Prize-Winning A. B. C. Newspaper

TRANSYLVANIA—
An Industrial, Tourist, Educational, Agricultural and Music Center. Population, 1950 Census, 15,321.
Brevard Community 7,394.

Vol. 70 — No. 19

★ Second Class Mail Privileges
Authorized at Brevard, N. C.

BREVARD, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 7, 1959

★ 20 PAGES TODAY ★

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

Governor Hodges To Inspect The New "Cherokee Arrow" Machine At Ecusta

VOTERS AT ROSMAN ELECT MAYOR AND BOARD ON TUESDAY

Austin Hogsed Succeeds A. M. White. Three Aldermen Are Chosen

Austin Hogsed, owner and operator of Hogsed Auto company, is the new mayor of Rosman.

He succeeds A. M. White, who has served as mayor for the past 27 years. Mr. White did not seek re-election.

Aldermen elected on Tuesday to serve with Mr. Hogsed were: Verlin Wood, 137 votes; Burtle Queen, 123; and, Jack Fisher, 102, incumbent.

Unsuccessful candidates were: Carl Queen, 82 votes; and, Dorsey Paxton, 72.

In the mayor's race, Everett McCall was the unsuccessful candidate, and he polled 41 votes.

Alderman Mickler Lusk did not seek re-election, and Alderman Ben Harkleroad died in office several months ago. The vacancy was not filled prior to the election.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKERS at Brevard college for the 1959 exercises are pictured above. At the left is Rev. Philip L. Shore, Jr., pastor of the First Methodist church in Hendersonville, who will deliver the commencement sermon at 11:00 o'clock in the Brevard Methodist church on May 31st. That afternoon at 4:00 o'clock, Dr. George T. Harrell, dean, College of Medicine, University of Florida, will give the graduation address.

MANY VISITORS EXPECTED HERE FRIDAY EVENING

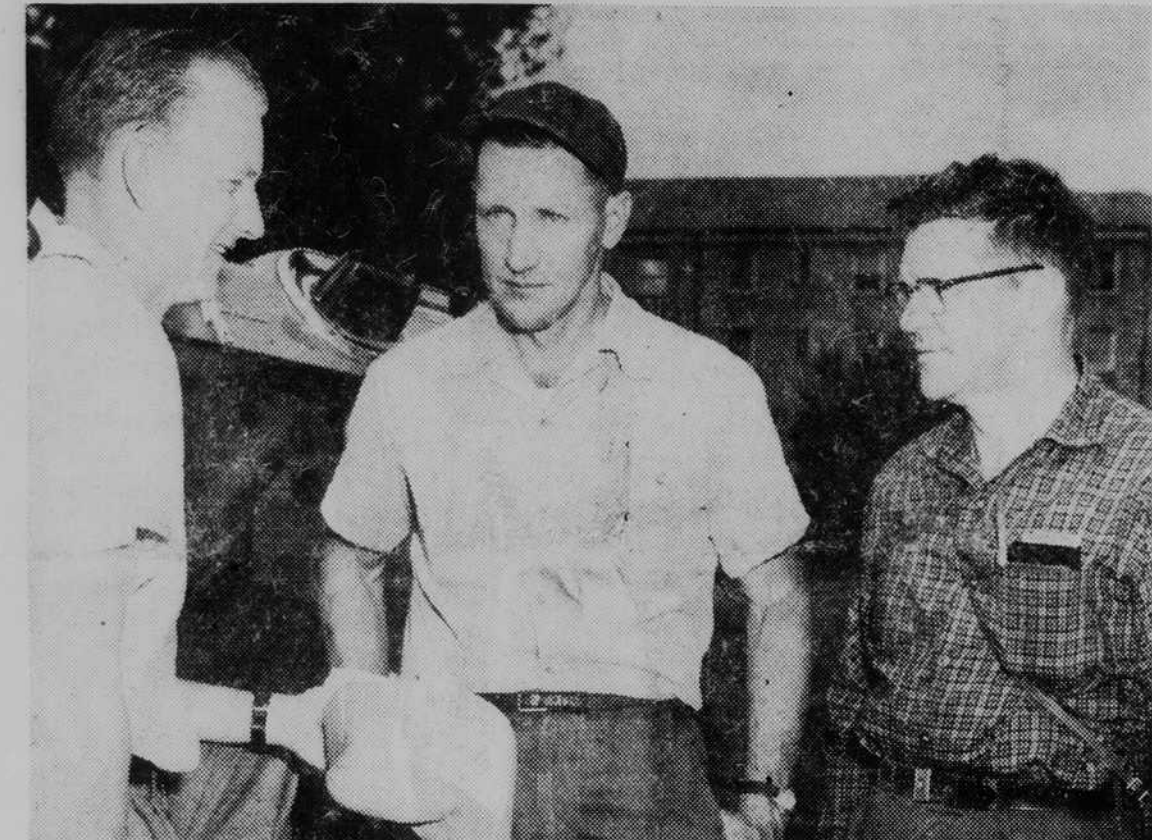

Final "Open House" Is Planned. Picnic Supper At Camp Straus

ARRANGING DISPLAYS

Governor Luther H. Hodges will address an assemblage of area industrialists Friday night at the Pisgah Forest branch of Olin Mathieson Chemical corporation.

The Governor's talk will be the highlight of an "open house" program marking completion of Ecusta Paper division's newest and largest paper machine, "The Cherokee Arrow." The several hundred persons attending are representatives of industry, business and government throughout Western North Carolina.

Following the Governor's address in the plant cafeteria, the guests —Turn to Page Twelve

JACK B. LEAVER, left, produce manager of the new Gerber plant on the Asheville - Hendersonville highway, is pictured above making plans to contact carrot growers in Transylvania county. In the center is Quentin Cantrell, maintenance supervisor, of Brevard college, who is planning to grow carrots on an experimental basis on his farm in the Dunn's Rock section. At the right is Jim Farley, assistant county agent. Farmers in the county who wish to raise carrots this summer on a trial basis are asked to contact the county agent's office. (Extension Staff Photo)

COUNTY FARMERS RECEIVED LARGE SUMS FROM ACP

Benefits Of Conservation Practices Are Broken Down. Figures Given

Transylvania county farmers received a total of $35,510.00, gross assistance through the Agricultural Conservation program in 1958.

This figure and others are contained in the annual ASC report made public this week by the Transylvania county ASC office in Brevard.

In addition to the gross assistance given county farmers, the report pointed out that 766 farmers participated in the program; 41,240 acres of farmland came under the —Turn to Page Seven

Representative Gaither Asks For $15,000 For Music Camp

Transylvania's representative, James C. Gaither, introduced a bill in the General Assembly on Tuesday, asking for $15,000 to help finance activities of the Transylvania Music camp and the Brevard Music festival.

It would be a one-shot grant, not a continuing item in the budget. Gaither's bill pointed out the music camp has scheduled expanded activities for this season.

Representative Gaither's bill that bars any cemetery in Brevard or within a mile of its corporate limits unless permission for the new location is obtained from both the town aldermen and the county commissioner has been ratified into law.

The late Brandon P. Hodges of Asheville was honored in a resolution adopted by the State Senate in Raleigh last night.

The resolution cited contributions made by Hodges to his native city and county and to the state which he served as treasurer from —Turn to Page Six

CALENDAR OF COMING EVENTS

Thursday, May 7 — Lions meet at Colonial Inn, 7 p. m.

Friday, May 8 — Brevard college trustees meet at college, 10 a. m. Music majors recital at Brevard college auditorium, 8:15 p. m.

Saturday, May 9 — Dance at Legion building, 9 p. m. Baseball: Indians vs. Enka, Camp Straus, 3 p. m.

Sunday, May 10 — Attend the church of your choice. Hospital Week begins.

Monday, May 11 — Rotary meets at Gaither's, 7 p. m. Shriners meet

Benet Kolman Wins National Merit Scholarship, Will Attend Harvard

Benet Kolman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kolman, of Brevard, has been awarded a National Merit scholarship.

Young Kolman, who is valedictorian of the senior class at Asheville School for boys, was one of the three winners in Western North Carolina. In all, there were 750 winners in the nation, and total entries were 480,000.

Kolman has been studying for the past four years on National Honor scholarship and has consistently maintained a high scholastic record.

Young Kolman has chosen Harvard college and plans to major in chemistry or philosophy, leading —Turn to Page Twelve

BENET KOLMAN

HOSPITAL WEEK TO BE OBSERVED

"Open House" And Tea Are Planned By Auxiliary For Tuesday Afternoon

Highlighting the local observance of National Hospital week here at the Transylvania Community hospital will be an "open house" and tea next Tuesday afternoon, May 12th, from 2:00 until 5:00 o'clock.

The event is being sponsored by the hospital auxiliary, and the president, Mrs. Herbert Finck, cordially invites the public to attend.

There will be tours of the hospital, followed by the tea. Refreshments will be served, and the personnel of the hospital, along with officials of the auxiliary, will welcome all persons who wish to take —Turn to Page Six

'58 Delinquent Tax List Is Published

A long list of delinquent taxpayers of the county, the towns of Brevard and Rosman for 1958 is published in the second section of this issue on pages five and eight.

In accordance with the law, the list will be published four times and on Monday, June 1st, at 12 noon at the courthouse door Tax Collector C. M. Douglas will offer for sale liens on real estate for non-payment of taxes owing at that time.

Brevard College Commencement Exercises Are Set, May 30, 31

WARNING ISSUED BY DOG WARDEN

Rabies Clinics Completed. Penalty By Law Is Cited This Week

A warning is issued today to all dog owners in Transylvania county who have not had their animals vaccinated.

According to Wade Bagwell, the dog warden, the schedule of clinics has been completed, and beginning on Monday, May 11, all stray dogs that do not have tags will be picked up and held in the dog pound for five days.

The cost of getting a dog re- —Turn to Page Six

Many Activities Are Being Planned. Shore And Harrell Are Speakers

Commencement activities at Brevard College will begin on Saturday, May 30th, at 12:30 p. m. with the annual alumni luncheon and business meeting in the college cafeteria. Members of the 1959 graduating class will be special guests and will be officially welcomed into the Alumni Association.

At 8:00 p. m. the annual concert by the music department will be presented in the college auditorium. Featured on the program will be the 49-voice glee club, under the direction of Professor Nelson F. Adams, singing both sacred and —Turn to Page Six

NELSON TO HEAD THE LEGION POST

Other Officers Are Elected. Installation Service Is Being Planned

New officers of the Monroe Wilcox post, No. 88, of the American Legion, were elected this week at the regular May meeting.

An installation service will be held at a later date.

Willie Nelson is the new commander, succeeding David Sams.

Ed Morrow was named first vice commander, and other vice commanders are: 2nd—Jim Wilks; 3rd—Charles Paris; and 4th—Jim Furr.

Don Parker is the adjutant, and Paul Whitmire was re-elected service officer. Assistant service officer is Bill Bridges.

Bill Baughn was re-elected finance officer, and the sergeants-at-arms are: Henry Lee Hogsed and —Turn to Page Six

WPNF Is Observing National Radio Month, Special Programs Scheduled

Station WPNF is joining more than 3,900 other radio stations throughout the United States in observing May as National Radio Month, Bobby Hoyle, the station's manager, announces today.

"Radio . . . Always In Tune With You" is the theme of the observance.

All during May, the station will broadcast a series of special announcements and programs of information about radio's service to its listeners, the community and the nation, and specific facts about WPNF.

Mr. Hoyle said, "The theme, Radio . . . Always In Tune With You," was chosen because it conveys the personal service that radio renders in entertaining and informing people around the clock wherever they may be."

A series of community activities has been planned for radio month. —Turn to Page Six

To Discuss Flood Control Thursday At Penrose Meet

There will be a meeting to consider the flood prevention program in Transylvania at the Penrose school on Thursday night of this week, beginning promptly at 8:00 o'clock.

Chairman Ed Mackey cordially invites the public to attend.

This is another in a series of meetings to acquaint the people of Transylvania with the flood control program, Mr. Mackey states.